Memo to American League managers:

You can forget that defensive shift against Ted Williams. You'll either have to walk the big guy or pitch and pray.

The Thumper, who has won four American League batting titles topped by his .406 in 1941—and has a lifetime .348 average, set the terms for the 1956 season when he made his first appearance in the Boston Red Sox' opening day lineup in four years yesterday.

Forced to miss those recent starts due either to service duties or injuries, Williams showed up as a healthy civilian for a change and banged two doubles to left and a single to center against Baltimore's shift as the Red Sox belted the Orioles 8-1.

Defense Didn't Work
The prescribed defense against Williams' notorious left-handed power has been to shift the shortstop and second baseman in to right and crowd the outfielders around to right. Now something

Pat McMurtry Kayoes Opponent In Seventh

PORTLAND, Ore. — Tacoma's Pat McMurtry decked Matt Jackson three times in the seventh round of a scheduled 10-round heavy-weight boxing match Tuesday night and was declared a knockout winner over the Salt Lake City Negro.

Jackson's seconds tossed in the towel after the third knockdown and referee Ralph Gruman stopped the fight at 2:34 of the round. McMurtry knocked 184 pounds to Jackson's 175 to post his 18th knockout in 21 professional fights.

Ted, who walked his first time up, drove in a run and scored one in the 16-hit Boston attack, which got started with a four-run first off Bill Wight. Frank Sullivan held the Orioles in check with an eight-hitter, fanning seven.

The bat spree gave the Red Sox a running break in the predicted four-way AL pennant fight among Boston, New York, Chicago and Cleveland.

Mantle Wallops Homers
The Yankees, who have been hinting this may be Mickey Mantle's big year at last, swamped Washington 10-4 with the Mick swatting two 475-foot homers out of the Senators' Griffith Stadium. The White Sox got a jump on the Indians, winning 2-1 at Chicago when Cleveland ace Bob Lemon walked the clinching run home in the seventh.

Kansas City beat Detroit 2-1 on Gus Zernial's pinch two-run double.

In the National, which fell short of the AL's 117,210 opening day crowds with an attendance of 108,887, Brooklyn's world champion Dodgers — who won their first 10 games last season, were knocked off by Philadelphia and Robin Roberts 9-5.

Joe Adcock, homered for Milwaukee in the Braves' 6-0 decision over the Chicago Cubs on Lew Burdette's five-hitter. Stan Musial hit a two-run homer in the ninth at St. Louis defeated Cincinnati 4-2. And Johnny Antonelli tossed a six-hitter and homered in the New York Giants' 4-3 victory over Pittsburgh.

Yogi Berra also homered for the Yanks, who got six-hit pitching

STICKY WICKET

Cricket Pitch By Ball Park Ires Athletes

VICTORIA, B.C. — Suburban Oak Bay Council was caught on a sticky wicket Wednesday by a clash of interests between cricket and baseball.

The cricketers were up in arms about a recent over-lapping of the Windsor Park cricket pitch by a new baseball diamond.

"It's a shocking thing for anyone from England to come and see us playing under these conditions," said cricketer J.A. Hobday.

"Deep cover is standing on the mound. . . Second base and the extra cover wouldn't get along very well."

The Sunday cricket match has been a tradition in the park for the last 11 years, he said.

"We have a great following come down and bring their own chairs and bring their tea."

There had been a suggestion that the cricket ground be moved to another park, but "Gentlemen, you can't play cricket on a potato field."

Alabama Athletes Leave Dormitory

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — About 100 University of Alabama athletes struck Tuesday night for better rules and regulations, and threatened to leave the school if their demands are not met.

They said they moved out of the university's athletic dormitory because they "were being treated like children."

The exodus took place after a committee headed by Dan Coule, former football end, told athletic director Hank Crisp "the rules are too strict."

Coyle declared that "unless our demands are met, the general feeling is that we will all leave. We feel that we can go somewhere else, because we are not happy here."

HERBIE FREEMAN . . . to return Saturday

O'Reilly, Montana To Continue Grudge

One of the hottest grudge matches now racing in the northwest will explode at the local Armory Saturday night when Irish Jack O'Reilly tangles with rugged Bull Montana in the main event.

Both men are rough along with being slightly on the mean side and should make for a humdinger of a match.

Herbie Freeman who made such a sensational debut last week will return to tangle with another newcomer to the the Northwest, "Terrible" Tommy Phelps.

Phelps hails from Dallas, Tex., where they are used to the rough and tough Texas style of wrestling, and plans on giving the well-liked Freeman a good sample of same.

'Science' To Be Applied By WSC Football Coach

PULLMAN, Wash. — Jim Sutherland is bringing what he calls "the scientific approach" to Washington State College football.

Sutherland, opening his first season as WSC head coach, tried out the new system Tuesday on 71 players who turned out for the first spring football training session.

The coach ran them through an agility test, push ups, chin ups, and sprints while assistant coaches kept score.

Sutherland said the tests will show the musclemen and the speedsters on the squad and later he hopes to bring in equipment to test how hard a back can hit a line.

Fifteen lettermen were among the 71 players who reported for the first practice session. Sutherland is replacing Al Kircher who was released at the end of the 1955 season.

There just isn't any question about it—those home runs are killers.

Well - spotted homers gave Seattle, San Diego and Sacramento

one-run victories Tuesday in a surprisingly tight round of play for the start of the Pacific Coast League season's second week.

San Diego beat Vancouver, 3-2. Sacramento took Hollywood, 3-2, and Seattle got San Francisco, 4-3.

Los Angeles' 11-6 win over Portland was the only loose game. The Angels got three homers in a wild, six-run second inning and Portland got one.

San Diego pitcher Dave Hoskins did it to Vancouver with a tight pitching job and a game-winning homer in the fifth. The other Padres runs came on solo homers by Harry Elliott and Bob Usher. Vancouver starter Chris Van Cuyk was the victim.

Sacramento's George Risley, up from Little Rock, knocked a two-run homer in the eighth to give the Solons their victory over Hollywood.

Seattle reliever Larry Jansen stood off San Francisco threats in the eighth and ninth on the margin of bases-empty homers by Bill Glynn in the third and Art Schult in the sixth.

Los Angeles clobbered Portland starter Rene Valdes in the second inning, scoring six runs before relief man Dick Fiedler got them stopped. The Angels ran up the score on homers by Johnny Goryl, Jim Bolger and Casey Wise. Portland's effort was led by home runs from Bob Borkowski and Ed Mickelson, the latter with three on.
