

International Team Visits Here

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

Pictures
by
"Chris"
Of Photo Lab

SATURDAY, APRIL 21, 1956

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

AMONG those enjoying the International Team here were Mrs. Frank Ashley (lower left picture), who is vice president of District No. 2 of the Federation of Women's Clubs, Roseburg; Mrs. John Devereux, second vice president of District No. 2, Bandon; Mrs. John Hall, state president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, Portland; Mrs. R. A. Talbot, Portland, president of District No. 2, and Mrs. Kenneth Ford, newly elected president of the Roseburg Woman's Club.

INTERESTING VISITORS in Roseburg for three days this week were Eva Shipstone, above left, from Lucknow, India; Violeta Cavallero, above right, of Montevideo, Uruguay, and center, Mrs. Kiyo Tanaka, of Nagoya, Japan, who made up the International Team sent out to three places in the United States as a workshop team to promote better world understanding for peace. The three were enthusiastically received by audiences here. Mrs. Ellsworth Tilton, wife of the First Methodist minister here, introduced the team to Roseburg audiences. Mrs. Tilton, who is secretary of Foreign Missions of the Western Jurisdiction, has attended the United Nations several times, and is very much interested in working for peace.

PICTURED AT THE LOWER RIGHT are Mrs. Tilton, Mrs. C. A. Bender, New York, of the Women's Division of the Methodist Church and the United Nations accredited observer, and Miss Louise Robinson, of New York, co-ordinator for the team.

