

THE NUPTIAL MASS which united in marriage Miss Theresa Marie Durand and Joseph Lowe took place at St. Joseph's Catholic Church Thursday, March 8 at 10 a.m. Members of the wedding party shown above are Beverly

Sims, Vicki Lynn Lowe, Mrs. Vernon Hage, the newly-married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lowe; James Lowe and Vernon Hage. (Photo Lab picture).

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Edmund Hyland in the presence of close friends and relatives. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Durand Sr., of Roseburg and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lowe, formerly of Roseburg, now of Portland.

For her wedding Miss Durand chose a street-length full-skirted gown of white taffeta with tulle overskirt. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a boat neckline and three-quarter sleeves. Her fingertip tulle veil was secured by a small white taffeta cap. The bridal bouquet was of white carnations and lily of the valley. Mrs. Vernon Hage, sister of the bride, wore lavender taffeta and carried a yellow daisy bouquet; Miss Beverly Sims, bridesmaid, wore a gown of pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink daisies. Vicki Lynn Lowe, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl and wore a pink satin dress. James Lowe acted as best man for his brother, Vernon Hage, brother-in-law of the bride, was usher. A wedding breakfast was given for the bridal couple at the home of the bride's parents. It was followed by a reception at which Mrs.

Hage served the cake and Miss Sims poured the punch. After a short honeymoon in California Mr. and Mrs. Lowe will make their home in San Diego, where the bridegroom is stationed with the U. S. Navy. They are at home to friends at 2464 Juan St., San Diego.

Both were graduated from Roseburg High School in 1955. Before her marriage, Mrs. Lowe was employed in the office of Umpqua Plywood.

MR. AND MRS. EDWARD F. BLANCHARD JR., above, pose for their wedding picture following their marriage April 8 at 2:30 p.m. at the Westside Christian Church. The bride, Jeanine Crystal Conn, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Conn, Melrose, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Blanchard Sr., of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Jeanine Crystal Conn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Conn of Melrose, and Edward Forrest Blanchard Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Blanchard Sr. of Klamath Falls, were married at the Westside Christian Church Sunday, April 8, at 2:30 p.m. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Knox.

The church was attractively decorated with baskets of white and pale yellow daffodils and snow bells. Mrs. Knox played traditional wedding music and accompanied Harold Shanks, soloist, who sang "Always."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a ballerina-length gown of white brocade satin, made princess style with three-quarter-length sleeves. She wore her mother's band of orange blossoms in her hair and carried her maternal grandmother's wedding handkerchief. Her bouquet was a white orchid on a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Catherine Perry, who wore ice blue embroidered taffeta and carried a corsage of yellow and white carnations. Jim Conn, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Kenneth Bly and Gary Conn, cousin of the bride. The bride's mother was dressed in navy and white and wore a corsage of red carnations. At the reception which followed in the church parlors, a beautiful lace tablecloth made by the bride's paternal grandmother covered the table. A three-tiered wedding cake was served by the bride's sister, Mrs. Jerry Stidham. Coffee was poured by Miss Donna Barker and Miss Dalene Busenbark served the punch. Virginia Fenn had charge of the guest book and Sylvia Fenn and Lynette Conn arranged the many lovely gifts. Mrs. Harold Shanks assisted about the rooms. For traveling the bride chose a tan ensemble with brown accessories and orchid corsage. Mrs. Blanchard has lived in Melrose all of her life, was graduated from Roseburg schools and attended Southern Oregon College. Mr. Blanchard is from Parsons, Kan., and since his return from duty in the Air Force, has been employed at Klamath Falls, where the young people will make their home.
