Sacred Concert Slated By Local Church Sunday

The radio choir of the Bible Standard Institute of Eugene will present a sacred concert at the Church of the Open Bible, 1643 SE Jackson, at 7:45 p.m. on Sunday. The choir is on tour in Oregon.

The Rev. Earl Johnson, music director of the school is in charge of the group, and will deliver a short message at the close of the service. Mrs. Johnson accompanies the choir.

According to the Rev. G. C. Henderson, pastor of the local church, the choir is comprised of between 20 and 25 voices. The public is invited to attend.

Roseburg Junior Women Host The Senior Women

The Roseburg Junior Women's Club Thursday night hosted senior Roseburg Women's Club members during a social evening at the clubhouse.

Entertainment was furnished by a Roseburg High School boy's quartet directed by Robert Robins. Mrs. Howard Bird, Winston, district winner of the recent Toastmistress speech contest in Roseburg, repeated her winning presentation "Just a Housewife." Refreshments were served by the Junior Women.

GLEEMEN TO SING

The 70-voice Eugene Gleemen will sing in the Pioneer School at Reedsport next Tuesday night, according to the Port Umpqua Courier, Reedsport.

PIANISTS Evangeline Chapman, top, and Sally Hill, bottom, will take part in First Christian Church spring concert Sunday at 5 p.m. in Roseburg. Free public event includes 40-voice chorus presentation of "The New Earth" oratorio and dedication of newly-acquired church piano. S. Clarence Trued is directing program.

Glendale Rebekah Lodge Meets, Honors Officers

The Glendale Rebekah Lodge honored its noble grand, Mrs. Myrtle Young and Mrs. Mattie Heller, also an officer, on the occasion of their birthdays, at the regular meeting of the lodge at the IOOF Hall in Glendale. They were presented with corsages and a birthday cake.

During the business meeting an invitation was extended for the lodge to visit the Hope Rebekah Lodge at Ashland. It was announced that Mrs. Mae Bayne of Glendale, had been appointed as color bearer for the General Assembly to be held in Tillamook in May.

An article on Rebekah Lodge work in the Netherlands was read aloud. It was reported that C. E. Young, Mrs. Elsie Vincent, and Mrs. Kizzie Clark were doing well after their recent illnesses.

In addition to the birthday cake, the hostesses Mrs. Dorothy Mize, Mrs. Margie Perry and Mrs. Esther Perry, served other refreshments to attending members and 10 guests from the Riddle Rebekah Lodge.

Memorial Fund Started For New Resuscitator

A memorial fund created for the purchase of a resuscitator at Sutherlin has been started under sponsorship of the American Legion post, according to the Sun-Tribune, Sutherlin.

The fund is being called the Laura Jean Memorial Fund, in memory of 2-year-old Laura Jean Hollopeter, who drowned Monday in a post hole near her home.

The resuscitator will be the first in the Sutherlin-Oakland area.

May Day Court Selected At CBA

Canyonville Bible Academy students have chosen Mary Allen to reign as May queen during their annual May Day celebration which is scheduled for May 1 at 2 p.m. on the academy campus.

Cecilia Webb, will serve as maid of honor, with Jane Smith, Gayle Gilbert, Wesley Hoekstra and Wesley Cole, seniors; Sharon Keeney, Patti Humphreys, George Girardin and Fred Shelton, juniors; Lavern Shelton, Sandra Nelson, Ronald Brent and David McMurray, sophomores; Nancy Williams, Peggy Chisum, Edward Rodriguez and David Keil, freshmen, comprising the court.

Mary Allen will lead the procession on the arm of the Rev. A. M. Shaffer, the school's director and founder, and the court will follow under an archway of flowers held by 166 junior and senior girls.

A feature of this traditional May Day festivity is the winding of the Maypole by 20 junior and senior girls.

Music will be furnished by the CBA music department with John Fenderson and Mowad Smith directing. Mrs. John Roldness and Mrs. Robert Shaffer are the faculty members in charge of the event.

Dental Society Prexy Favors Fluoridation

Dr. Dwight E. Boyles, president of the Umpqua District Dental Society, has taken a firm stand in favor of fluoridation of city water supplies.

He discussed what he calls the benefits of fluoridation at two recent meetings, one to the Business and Professional Women's Club and the other to Roseburg teachers in the recent Teachers' In-Service Program.

Last Meeting Set May 3 For Tri-City PTA Group

The Tri-City Parent Teachers Assn. will hold its last meeting of the year May 3 in the new multipurpose room. Tri-City's grade school band and other music pupils will present a musical program. The public is invited.

At the last meeting, it was reported by Mrs. John Birenbaum, chairman of the "Butterfly" Ball, that more than 200 persons attended and the PTA will probably realize a profit of $75, according to correspondent Ruth M. Evans, Myrtle Creek.

Drain Woman Named To Head GOP Fund Drive

Mrs. Chester Rydell has been chosen captain of the Drain area in the neighborhood door-to-door campaign for raising funds for the 1956 Republican political campaign, reports correspondent Maud Deaver.

Mrs. William Cool Sr. and Mrs. Rufus Pfister will act as co-captains. Mrs. Cool and Mrs. Pfister were also named as leaders for the north Drain precinct.

Other precinct leaders named were Mrs. Edwin Martin, south Drain; Mrs. Roy Haldeman, Constock; Mrs. John Webber, Yoncalla. Several others remain to be named.

Two Roseburg women, Mrs. Gordon Smith and Mrs. Ken Bailey were in Drain this week to acquaint the Drain women of the Republican party with the plans for conducting the campaign. They presented the women with lists of Republican voters by precincts and printed instructions for area captains, precinct leaders and volunteer solicitors.

Yoncalla Girl Scouts Sponsor Tea, Program

The Yoncalla Girl Scouts sponsored a silver tea and program in the social room of the Yoncalla Methodist Church last weekend.

Group singing was given by the Brownies, followed by a piano and violin duet by Kay Churchill and Donna Churchill. Carol Abbott gave a reading which was followed by accordion solos by Delphia Gardner and Patty Cogswell.

Slide pictures of the Girl Scout activities were shown, with Sharon Gordon and Carroll Shields as narrators.

The Girl Scouts helped in the kitchen with the serving of the lunch. Mrs. Leslie Chapman, Mrs. R. W. Knight and Mrs. Robert Templeton served. The girls netted about $30 from the tea, which will go towards their goal for the year.
