Stock, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith of this city.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN GERALD McCASLIN, above, were married in a beautiful double ring ceremony at Olivet Presbyterian Church in Glendale Wednesday, April 11. The bride, Dianne Marie Halstead, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Halstead of Azalea. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland McCaslin of Royal, Ark. The Rev. Wayne Wattman officiated and Mrs. Flo Cox played the wedding music. (Picture by Mary Ruth Thompson).

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attended by Miss Betty McCaslin, a cousin of the bridegroom, who was maid of honor; and Miss Bonnie Halstead, her sister, who was junior bridesmaid. The bridegroom was attended by his cousin, Leon McCaslin, as best man. Other attendants were Carter McCaslin, a brother; Derrel McCaslin, a cousin; and Bert Thompson.

The church was decorated with multiple candelabra arranged behind a wall of greenery into which miniature bells were woven. Huge white ribbon bows tied white wedding bells and greenery at the inner aisle end of the pews in the church and white candles were set in the windows above the outer aisles.

The bride wore an exquisite ballerina-length gown of white nylon with lace above the waist and a finely pleated skirt. Her white hat was trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis on a white ribbon. The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo with silver and white ribbon streamers.

Bridesmaid Betty McCaslin wore a blue ballerina-length dress and a tiara of blue flowers. She carried a bouquet of varicolored sweetpeas tied with white streamers. Junior bridesmaid Bonnie Halstead wore a dress of salmon pink trimmed in white. She wore a yellow flower tiara and also carried varicolored sweetpeas.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Bill Halstead, wore a medium blue satin dress and pink camellia corsage. Mrs. Leland McCaslin, mother of the bridegroom, wore an identical corsage on a navy blue suit.

The wedding reception was held in the basement of the church where columns of the structure were twined with ivy, and white and silver bells were hung from the ceiling and at the windows. The three-tiered white cake was set on a small table covered with a pink cloth which hung to the floor. The cake was white with silver leaf trimming. A ring of
