Absentee Ballots May Be Obtained At Clerk's Office

If you plan to be away from home at the time of the primary election, May 18, now is the time to apply for an absentee ballot, according to County Clerk Charles Doerner.

Doerner said those desiring to vote by absentee ballot may obtain applications from the county clerk's elections department until 10 days prior to the election. The application forms must be returned to the office at least five days prior to election.

Other valid reasons for voting by absentee ballot, besides being absent from the county, are: If the voter is physically unable to personally attend the election, and if the voter's residence is more than 15 miles from his precinct polling place.

The county clerk pointed out that absentee ballots must be cast by the time all official election supplies—ballot boxes, poll books, ballots, tally sheets and so forth—are received to the sheriff, which by law must be done not later than five days prior to the election. The sheriff is responsible for the supplies, the polling places and conduct of elections until the sealed ballot boxes are returned to the clerk.

Former Roseburg Man Receives Commission

Recently commissioned as a Marine second lieutenant at the Marine Corps School at Quantico, Va., was Allen G. Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Henry of Grants Pass, formerly of Roseburg.

Henry was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1951 and was later employed by the J. C. Penney Co. in Roseburg. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

Having completed a 10-week officer candidate course, he is undergoing five months training in the officers basic school at Quantico.

University Women Date Final Meeting Of Year

The concluding meeting for the 1955-56 year will be held by Roseburg branch members of the American Assn. of University Women Saturday.

Program Chairman Rae Betlach has announced a surprise program in addition to presentation of new branch officers and reports of the recent AAUW state convention. The event is primarily a social session, she said. Outgoing president Mrs. Harold Hoyt will preside.

Subcommittee Questions GM's Plans To Expand

WASHINGTON (AP) — A staff report to the Senate's "big business" subcommittee questions whether General Motors should be allowed to expand freely into any new fields.

It also says GM should cut prices of its cars and other products in view of what it says were the company's "extremely high profits" over the past eight years.

Citing GM's dominance in such fields as truck and diesel locomotive manufacturing, as well as its recent purchase of extensive facilities for making earth-moving equipment, the staff report says the corporation's size gives it competitive advantages not necessarily good for the economy as a whole.
