Flemings From Washington Visit Overnight With Melrose Couple

By NETTIE WOODRUFF

Recent overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bonebrake were their long-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Fleming of Vancouver, Wash. They made a trip to the North Umpqua and held a picnic at the old CCC Camp during the visitors' stay.

Visit Here

Mrs. Rose Bue and son, Bud Wickman, of Salem, visited last week at the home of another son, Jerry Wickman, and family.

Miss Judy Warner was unable to attend school several days last week due to illness.

Miss Carolyn Pargeter is working part time in the office of Dr. William Allen, optometrist.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson and Carol Manning took a trip to the coast recently.

Mrs. Ed Gross took her daughter to Eugene last week for medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bradley and son, Bob, and Steve Chitwood spent last Sunday at the coast, where they visited the Sea Lion Caves and other scenic spots.

Past Noble Grands Meet In Sutherlin

Mrs. Charlotte Parker entertained the Past Noble Grands Club at the IOOF Hall with a luncheon recently. Mrs. Bertha Barge and Mrs. Belle Cook assisted. Fifteen members were present.

After the dinner a short business meeting was held and arrangements were made for members of the club to go to the two Sutherlin cemeteries to clean and decorate the graves of Rebekahs on Decoration Day.

A social hour was held with two flower quiz games, won by Mrs. Mary Barker and Mrs. Olga Bielmann. Mrs. Eunice Beck won the door prize and Mrs. Emma Vandenberg the penny prize. The next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 5, with Mrs. Ruth Manning as hostess at a 12:30 luncheon at the IOOF Hall.

Martha Circle Of WSCS Holds Recent Meeting

The Martha Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Dillard Methodist Church met recently at the home of Mrs. Willard Laurance in Dillard for a potluck luncheon, business meeting and social afternoon.

Mrs. Eva Nichols, president, opened the business meeting by asking Mrs. Harold Emert to give the devotion.

Mrs. Mercy Buell read a letter from a long-time friend of the group, Mrs. Dave Brooks, who is now confined to a Salem hospital for treatment. She is reported to be recuperating satisfactorily. A birthday card was signed and presented to Mrs. Belle Clark and Mrs. Grace Barnes.

Mrs. William Johnson was placed in charge of arrangements for the Mother's Day program which will be held in the new church, Mrs. Kenneth Day will have charge of the small children's nursery during the service.

Mrs. Helen Buell, chairman, submitted the report of the nominating committee for the new officers of the coming year for the Martha Circle. The officers elected were: chairman, Mrs. Donelda Trobough; vice chairman, Mrs. Vivian Laurance; secretary, Mrs. Rosa Heinbach; and treasurer, Mrs. Marie Claiborne. An executive committee meeting was called for Monday morning, May 14, at 10, in the new church, with each member to bring a sack lunch.

Mrs. Vivian Laurance, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Margaret McCord who played a piano solo. Mrs. Beth Gordon gave her prize-winning speech from the Winston-Dillard Toastmistress Club.

The next meeting of the Martha Circle of the Woman's Society of the Dillard Methodist Church will be held at the home of Mrs. Stanford Buell for a noon potluck luncheon.

Fair Oaks Club Meets, Works On Linen Project

The Fair Oaks Industrial Club met recently for a noon potluck dinner with Jackie Thompson and Dorothy Longbrake as hostesses. Twenty-five members and one guest, Mrs. Nee, attended.

Following the business meeting which was conducted by the president, Mrs. Jackie Thompson, the scripture reading was given by Mrs. Jennie Boehme, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. Several matters of business were transacted and the ladies worked on a quilt that will be added to the chest of linen that the club is preparing.
