The annex will be renovated as quarters for the Douglas County Welfare Commission. Plans may be obtained from the office of the County Court. Budgeted for the job is $2,500.

Soon to be advertised for bids is construction of garages and parking area at the rear of the courthouse, for which $45,000 has been designated in a supplemental budget.

Other steps toward completion of work in connection with construction on new wings will be renovation of the courthouse lawn ($8,000), refinishing the front steps ($5,000) and putting in a parking strip next to the alley on the east side ($1,500). The parking strip is completed.

An open house for new courthouse facilities is still planned tentatively for July 1, according to County Judge Carl C. Hill. It is hoped most of the work will be complete by that time. Most new quarters in the east and west wings of the courthouse now are occupied. Finishing, window washing, and so forth is continuing.
