This, in case you hadn't noticed, is a brand new year in the National League.

A year ago, the NL went into the Memorial Day milepost, struggling behind Brooklyn, with the bungle and St. Louis and Milwaukee 11 games back. Pittsburgh, going through its regular pantomime, was 18 games to the rear and in the cellar.

That was last year. Right now Milwaukee is winning what has been a two-way scrap for the lead with St. Louis, while the Pirates are just a game back.

And where's Brooklyn? Three games back in fifth.

Milwaukee blasted the Cardinals 10-3 last night, thus removing a screw predicament that had them a length short in the "games behind" column but still in first. Pittsburgh made it cozy by nudging the Braves 3-2 — with Bob Friend winning his eighth on a two-hitter and Dale Long hitting his eighth home run in eight games to better his major league record set Saturday.

Cubs Stop Redlegs

Bob Rush's three-hitter tripped Cincinnati as the Chicago Cubs won 4-1. Philadelphia kept the road rocky for New York by beating the Giants 5-2.

In the American League, the race has the look of a romp. The New York Yankees grabbed a 4 1/2-game lead, beating Boston 2-0 as Whitey Ford gained his seventh triumph and second shutout while the runner-up Cleveland Indians lost to Detroit 1-0. Kansas City dumped Chicago's White Sox 6-4, on a two-run homer by Enos Slaughter in the ninth, and Baltimore clipped Washington 6-5 in 10 innings.

The only hits off Friend, who has lost two, were a first-inning homer by Duke Snider and a one-out single by Junior Gilliam in the third. Carl Erskine was the loser.

Two Braves Homer

Bobby Thomson and Del Crandall homered for the Braves, who had a 6-0 lead in two frames to chase Herb Wehner, Gene Conley, in relief of Lou Sleater, was the winner.

Harvey Haddix, with ace Robin Roberts relieving in the eighth, won his first for the Phils.

Roy McMillan got two hits off Rush, who fanned seven and walked one, and scored a run that stood up until the fifth. Then the Cubs racked Joe Nuxhall for four runs — two on a bases-loaded double by Ernie Banks.

Ford, in trouble only twice, scattered five Boston hits while the Yanks made the most of four singles off Frank Sullivan. Two in the first and an infield out by Yogi Berra, back from an eight-game stay on the injury list, scored one run. Two errors by shortstop Bob Buddin helped the other across in the fourth.

Score Given Loss

Sieve Gromek eight-hit the Indians while the Tigers got two runs in the fifth on Bob Kennedy's ground-rule double and a force-out to hand Herb Score his fourth defeat.

The White Sox blew a 2-0 lead as Kansas City scored four in the eighth with homers by Gus Zernial and Jim Finigan. They tied it with two in the top of the ninth. Billy Pierce went in as a reliever in the bottom of the ninth. He walked a man, and then came Slaughter.

Reliever Mike Fornieles doubled in the 10th and came home with the clincher for the Orioles on Chuck Diering's single.

Eighth Homer In 8 Games Thrills Slugger Dale Long

PITTSBURGH — "I got chills all over. It was bigger than the one in Philadelphia. I am glad it happened in Pittsburgh for the people who deserve it."

Dale Long, who threatens to out-Mantle Mickey Mantle, stood in the Pittsburgh clubhouse after last night's 3-2 victory over Brooklyn. He was doing his best to tell how it felt to hit his eighth home run in eight games, breaking the major league record he set Saturday in Philadelphia.

"Have you got any left?" somebody asked.

"Who cares as long as we keep on winning," he replied.

Did you ever see a bunch of kids like this? They just keep bouncing back when they're supposed to be knocked out.

"At first I didn't think it was going in (the ball just did make the right field stands, about 375 feet from the plate.) I just put my head down and ran. When I passed Bobby Bragan, Pirate manager at third, I just shook my head because it was hard to believe. But the big thing was what happened next."

Tag Team Bout Ruled 'No Go'

The largest crowd in several weeks turned out at the local armory Saturday night and were treated to an exciting evening of wrestling.

The Australian tag team match ended in a no-contest verdict after the Donovan Brothers had at first been awarded the match.

In the final fall of the evening Larry Chene and Red Donovan collided and were laying prone on the mat while Referee Owen was trying to get Alvaro Velazco out of the ring. Doug Donovan sneaked into the ring and pulled his brother on top of Chene.

When Owen turned back he counted Chene down and raised Donovan's hand in victory. The ringside fans set up a yell and after conferring with several witnesses, Referee Owen declared the match a no-contest match and held up the purses.

John Horn, chairman of the Roseburg Ring Commission ordered a rematch and will hold up the purses until the same teams make a satisfactory showing.

Red Donovan took the first fall over Chene with the sensational Chene coming back to even the match when he dropped Doug Donovan with a dropkick and press.

In the prelims Velazco defeated Red Donovan and Chene went to a draw with brother Doug.

Long's Homers Listed

PITTSBURGH — Here's the game-by-game breakdown of Dale Long's record-breaking home run performance. The Pittsburgh slugger extended the major league mark he set last Saturday by hitting his eighth home run in as many consecutive games Monday night.

8. May 28, Erskine, Brooklyn.

Los Angeles Slugger Hoards Honors In PCL

SAN FRANCISCO — Again this week, Steve Bilko, Los Angeles first baseman, has a virtual monopoly on Pacific Coast League batting records.

Batting .411 to top the league, the big first sacker leads with hits, with 69, and in home runs, with 18. Jim Bolger of Los Angeles heads the remaining division—runs batted in—with 45. And Bilko is right behind him, with 44.

The top 10 PCL batting averages, including games through Sunday, May 27, as compiled by league statistician William J. Weiss:

Young Woman Tells Ordeal Of Being Lost On Mt. Hood

PORTLAND — A pretty, 21-year-old secretary was rescued Saturday after she had been lost two days on the wet, cold slopes of 11,245-foot-high Mt. Hood.

Miss Lynn Wattier, who survived because she left the chill, snow-covered upper slopes of the mountain, was found three-quarters of a mile from a road on the heavily timbered lower slopes.

"The first night was the worst. I woke up and couldn't feel my feet. I jumped up on a log... I got soaked the first night. I took my ski pants off and wrapped them around my feet all three nights. It was uphill, downhill, over a river, over another river, downhill, uphill..." she said.

Dr. Charles Dotter, who reached the scene shortly, said she had a moderate case of immersion foot from being wet and cold so long. Soldiers know that as trench foot. The terrain was so rugged it took two hours to bring her to the road. The slopes were so steep the rescuers could not use a stretcher at first. They carried her piggy-back, later transferring her to a stretcher.

At the road she was put into an automobile that brought her to Providence Hospital at Portland. Jim Lyne, forester of that area, was the first to find Miss Wattier. With him in the rescue party were Al Barrows, William Porter and Wes Moehke. They gave her sandwiches and coffee, then began the trip out.

The young woman had only recently gone to Mt. Hood, 60 miles east of Portland. She formerly lived in St. Paul. Her parents reside at Bristol, S. D.
