It's been a long time coming, but Bobby Thomson finally looks ready to deliver the payoff for the Milwaukee Braves in that ill-fated deal they arranged to get him from the New York Giants in 1954. The Swattin' Scot was the man the Braves figured they needed for the pennant, and so they packed up pitchers Johnny Antonelli and Don Liddle, catcher Ebbu St. Clair, infielder Billy Klaus and a about $50,000 and sent them to the Polo Grounds for Bobby and catcher Sam Calderone. You know what happened. Thomson broke an ankle in spring training, hit only two home runs and the Braves finished third. The Giants won the flag — with Antonelli winning 21 games. Last season, Thomson hit 12 homers while playing on a part-time basis and the Braves finished second to Brooklyn. Now Thomson has eight home runs so far this season and the Milwaukee lead the National League by a game. Bobby slammed four homers, had six hits in nine trips and drove in seven runs as the Braves split a double-header with the Chicago Cubs yesterday. All told, the two clubs combined for 15 home runs among the record 50 which were blasted in the 16-game Memorial Day card. For all the records and Thomson's great day, however, most of the excitement was set off by Mickey Mantle's "nearmiss." The Oklahoma strong boy, jolting his 19th and 20th homers of the season as the New York Yankees swept Washington, smacked one against the facade on the third tier in right field that missed by 18 inches of being the first fair ball ever hit out of mammoth Yankee Stadium.
