DANCE Review Soon

Ralph Patterson, owner and teacher of the Roseburg School of Dancing is putting in long hours in preparation for the school's annual recital. This is the sixth one to be given here and each one has been bigger and better than ever. Somehow Mr. Patterson is able to make a dance recital run off like a professional review. The dancing costumes and scenery are really very outstanding. Toe dancing and ballet and tap are on the program as well as several modern numbers such as, the Slucfoot, featured in the Fred Astaire picture "Daddy Long Legs," the mambo, modern jazz, Charleston and others. Tuesday and Wednesday evening, June 5th and 6th at the Central Jr. High Auditorium is the time to see this production and reserve seats may be obtained at the Roseburg School of Dancing. Students from Canyonville, Glide and Sutherlin as well as the Roseburg area will be participating. Lessons will be given during June and July both daily and weekly. Call OR 3-4423 to enroll.
