By BILLIE SUE FORREST
J. Griffin, who operates a chicken farm on Brumbach Road, recently bought 350 DeKalb layer chicks, 8-weeks old. According to producers, the DeKalb is one of the best new strains, somewhat like the White Leghorn. The Griffin flock now numbers about 900. J. Griffin and Cecil Griffin, his son, are building two new chicken houses to accommodate the new chickens.

Buys Home
Emil Smith has bought a home on the Strader Road which is part of the old Lindbloom Ranch, off Buckhorn Road. Emil, his wife, JoAnn, and children Mike, 1-year-old, and Sue, 1-month-old, have moved to their new home from the Curtis Barker place on the North Umpqua Road. Emil is a nephew of Curtis Barker.

Bill Townsend, Airman second class, plans to visit friends in this vicinity during June when he expects to be on leave from Castle Air Force Base, Merced, Calif. Townsend was a former resident. Joe Price reports that his son, Don, recently completed eight months training in a hospital at Corona, Calif., where he is studying for a pharmacist rating. He is now operating the commissary there as part of his training.

Mothers of Den 2, Cub Pack 45, of Dixonville, were recently presented with seedling flower plants prepared by their sons. Mr. and Mrs. Duane Coble and children drove to Dayton, Wash., recently staying overnight in Portland. In Dayton they visited his mother, Mrs. Lewin Parker. Mr. and Mrs. Parker are well known here, being former owners of the Banning place on the Old Dixonville road. They also visited other relatives in Dayton.

Cub Scouts of Den 1 held a wienner roast last week near the creek behind the Zuck home, reports Dorothy Coble, den mother. The Cub Scouts plan a hike for this month and during their next meeting will construct model airplanes.

A snake, which had crawled into the mechanism of the water system at Deer Creek School, caused a short circuit, and temporary lack of water. The snake was removed, and a substitute pump was cut in, while the motor was taken out to be re-wound. Everything is now running smoothly.

The Melrose Home Economics Club was entertained last week at the home of Mrs. Stanley Sjogren at Elgarose, Mrs. A. M. Hanson was co-hostess at the dessert-supper.

Chairman Nellie Myers conducted a short business meeting. The club will not meet again until September at the home of Mrs. Paul Abeel. Mrs. Herman Aydelot will be chairman of the Father's Day refreshment committee. A donation was made to the cerebral palsy foundation.

Several games were presented by Mrs. C. E. Reece with prizes going to Margie Hanson, Mrs. Bob Tjomsland and Mrs. Sibley Nielson.

Wilbur Community Club Holds Potluck Dinner

A potluck dinner was held Friday evening at the Wilbur school by members of the Wilbur Community Club. The meeting, the last of this school year, was conducted by the new president, Mrs. Doris Jepson.

It was decided the club would provide ice cream for the lower grades when they had their school picnic. Mrs. Jepson announced two committees for the coming year. Mrs. Cecil Langdon, refreshments and Mrs. Everett Blondell and Bill Glasco, entertainment. Ways of earning funds for the organization were discussed, including the possibility of putting on a three-act play as in past years.

SPEED BOMBER UNVEILED—A Douglas twin-jet B-66 bomber of the Strategic Air Command roars into the air in first public showing as it is unveiled before a group of over 250 aviation writers at Castle Air Force Base near Merced, Calif. The new supersonic light jet bomber has a known speed of 700 m.p.h., fully loaded.

Melrose School Students Assist in Landscaping

By NETTIE WOODRUFF
All six grades of the Melrose School have aided in the landscaping project of the school grounds. The sixth grade purchased camellias from class funds and planted them. The fourth grade assisted Mrs. J. P. Bathrick in hauling fertilizer as their part of the project.

The first grade of Melrose School enjoyed a field trip to the Melrose Dairy last week and then gathered at the Dale Ellis home for a picnic. Mrs. Guy Oglesby and her son, Marine Pvt. James Oglesby, left Thursday for Crawford, Colo., to attend business for several days.

Frank Dunn and Mrs. Nora Haines visited relatives and friends at Coos Bay during a recent weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rogers spent the weekend visiting relatives in Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Blanchard were overnight guests Friday of his relatives at Gilchrist. Saturday they went on to Klamath Falls to visit his parents and his uncle and aunt, who were visiting there from out of state.

JoAnn Busenbark accompanied several student friends and two physical education teachers on an outing to the coast during the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson have had their home remodeled, including new shingles on the outside and a picture window installed.

Guests at the Kenneth Bollingberg home are her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. McDonald of Marysville, Wash., who are spending several weeks in this area and also visiting their son and family at Olalla.

Moving recently into the J. F. Bonebrake rental were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ilett and family. Miss Anita Herrman and Miss Janie DeLuccia, University of Oregon students, spent the weekend here with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Herrman. The girls accompanied Miss Dalene Busenbark to Melrose. She had spent Saturday visiting Miss Herrman on the campus.
