

ATTEND CORONATION TEA

Reporters for the Pioneer Post, monthly Joseph Lane school paper, Lois Carey of Wilbur and Bonnie Sween of Newton Creek, attended the coronation tea in honor of the new king of Nepal which was held on the U of O campus in Eugene. Mr. Tandukar, who visited Joseph Lane last fall and was interviewed for the paper, invited the girls to the tea. They received a souvenir of a coin from Nepal.

Glendale Eastern Star Members Hold Recent Memorial Service

By MRS. GERALD B. FOX

The Glendale Eastern Star held a memorial service at a recent regular meeting. Mrs. Jackie Smith read a memorial poem while Mrs. Esther Kafer accompanied her on the piano. During the recitation, Mrs. Mary Wright lit candles for those who had passed away during the past year.

Neta Kay Jackson, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jackson of Glendale, was rushed to the Forest Glen Clinic recently when she swallowed several nerve sedative pills she had found in her aunt's purse. She was given emergency treatment at the hospital and then was kept in close surveillance at home for a few days until she had fully recovered from the effects of the medicine.

A son was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. John M. Goodson of Glendale at the Josephine Hospital in Grants Pass. For a time, both

Mrs. Goodson and the infant were on the critical list, but Mrs. Goodson is now reported to be improving. There has been little change in the baby's condition.

Ralph Cobb of Glendale has been ill in the Josephine Hospital since last weekend.

Bert Spradlin of Glendale underwent an appendectomy recently at the Forest Glen Hospital in Canyonville.

Oscar D. Smith of Glendale, employed by the Robert Dollar Lumber Co., was treated at the Glendale Clinic when he ran a large splinter into his right wrist.

Bruce Sloan, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sloan, was scheduled to undergo surgery this week at Eugene for a hernia which resulted from an injury sustained during play.

More than 650 persons attended the annual Glide grade school picnic. The event started at 9 a.m. Friday. Principal Wayne Schermerhorn and instructors of the first five grades supervised the games played by youngsters. Students of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades were taken by bus to the Rink in Roseburg for a morning of roller skating, reports correspondent Mrs. Arthur Selby.

Luncheon in the school playhouse was served by members of the Glide PTA. The students brought food for the potluck. The PTA furnished soft drinks and coffee.

Principal Schermerhorn said there were 490 students, 21 teachers and many mothers of students present.

Young Republicans Ask Attorney General Probe

SALEM, Ore.—The Lane County Young Republican Club has asked Gov. Elmo Smith to order Atty. Gen. Robert Y. Thornton to investigate how the Lane County Grand Jury was chosen.

The governor's office made public the text of the resolution by the club Tuesday.

The grand jury is investigating charges of embezzlement of funds of Moses Moody, prison convict.

Dist. Atty. Eugene V. Venn, in a Supreme Court action, charged that the jury wasn't properly empaneled, but the court ruled 4-3 against him.

The governor ordered Thornton to handle the embezzlement investigation before the grand jury.
