

Clerk Announces Precinct Committeemen And Women Results From Recent Vote

With a few exceptions still to be ironed out, the county clerk's office has tabulated voting of both parties on May 18 for both precinct committeemen and committeewomen.

The exceptions are those in which the votes occurred or the person elected to party office was living in a precinct different from that in which he was elected.

Those who tied, mostly as the result of write-ins, are to appear at the clerk's office in the courthouse sometime this month, according to Mrs. Bessie Wilken, county elections registrar.

Those where elected include:

straightened out. There were no write-in votes in either precinct. Marvin Barker received 62 votes for Democratic committeewoman in the Reedsport No. 1 precinct, but he lives in Reedsport No. 2, in which he captured the write-in ballot. That made him a committeewoman, so the post in Reedsport No. 1 went to a write-in candidate, E. G. Dunn.

Here are the tie votes. The winner must be chosen by drawing straws in the clerk's office in the courthouse.

Return To North Umpqua

Mrs. L. H. Nixon and daughter, Mrs. Paul Holsing of Berkeley, Calif., arrived Saturday at their former home on the North Umpqua near Mc's place, after an absence of three years. Mrs. Holsing will remain for two weeks. Mrs. Nixon for an indefinite period to superintend painting and remodeling. Retired Capt. and Mrs. Nixon built their home in this area in 1924 and lived there until three years ago, when Capt. Nixon accepted the managership of a 24-unit apartment building at Berkeley. Capt. Nixon suffered permanent injuries in World War I. He recovered his sight after eight and one half months of total blindness, but still bears the scars of his service.

Robert Griffiths, Sp.3, stationed at Fort Ord, Calif., spent the weekend at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lewis. Mrs. Griffiths, nee Betty Madison, who graduated from Glide High School this year, returned with her husband to their new home near the Army base. The couple was married Dec. 15, 1955.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McAuliffe and family, who had been living at the Nixon place, moved Friday to their cabin at Diamond Lake for a week, then motored to Terre Haute, Ind., to spend two weeks visiting Mrs. McAuliffe's parents, returning to spend the summer at Diamond Lake before moving to their new home at Portland, Mr. and Mrs. McAuliffe have been English teachers at Glide High School the past three years. McAuliffe resigned to accept a teaching position at Lincoln High School.

Wilda Stacy and Jack McCreary, seventh grade students, received special awards for perfect attendance the past school year.

TERMINAL MANAGER
Dick Schultz has been appointed terminal manager at Roseburg of Consolidated Freightways Inc., according to an announcement from the Portland headquarters of the company. Schultz has lived in Roseburg since early 1955. He covered southern and central Oregon in the capacity of district sales manager. Before that, he was located at Portland as sales representative. Schultz succeeds Art Benson here.

CAR MISSES CURVE
SPOKANE (AP) — An automobile missed a curve in the street, knocked down a fence and rolled right into Robert Pleasant's garage Wednesday. The building promptly collapsed.

The driver, John G. Mullen, was taken to a hospital with possible internal injuries and was ticketed on a reckless driving charge.
