EVERYONE REMEMBER DAD

Read the following carefully for 'AD-RIME' hints

Wonder if the chap who dreamed up Father's Day was the same 'joker' who first proclaimed: "Every Dog Has His Day".

Well, even if poor old dad may occasionally share the dog-house with Shep, Sunday, June 17, is HIS DAY and he deserves a very special gift to suit his own needs, tastes and fancy.

In choosing the gift may we suggest that you select: Something DURABLE which he will enjoy long and often, always with loving remembrance of you.

Something conducive to FUN, PLAY or RELAXATION. Something bought in his home town... dads are sorta funny that way... believe in buying in the community which supports them and their families.

LAST WEEK'S PRIZE WINNER

MRS. ANDY HARRIS
Drain, Oregon
Her winning line to rhyme with "HERE YOUR DOLLAR BUYS A LOT" was...
"SHOW YOUR NEIGHBOR WHAT YOU GOT"
