

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD PERRY WITHYCOMBE JR., above, cut the first piece of their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage June 10 at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg. The bride, Dalene K. Busenbark, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Busenbark of Melrose. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Withycombe of McMinnville. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

The wedding of Miss Dalene K. Busenbark, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Busenbark of Melrose, and Richard Perry Withycombe Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Withycombe of McMinnville, was an event of Sunday, June 10, at the Roseburg First Presbyterian Church. Dr. James Millar of that church performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 relatives and friends at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Floor baskets of pink and white gladioli and candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles formed a setting for the impressive ceremony. The aisle used by the wedding party was marked at each end with white satin roses.

Organist Mrs. R. E. Doerner played traditional wedding music and accompanied Ray Doerner, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Preceding the ceremony, Virginia Busenbark, sister of the bride, and Beverly Wandling, a cousin, lighted the altar candles. The girls wore pink and lavender sheer nylon dresses.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white lace over tulle gown, which was fashioned with a sequin trim over neckline and full gathered skirt. She wore lace mitts and a nylon net fingertip veil, held in place by a crown of seed pearls and sequins. Her bouquet was of white gladioli.

Miss JoAnn Busenbark, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and bridesmaid. She wore a white gown and carried a white Esther Reed daisy.

Flower girls were Leta Busenbark, sister of the bride, and Cathy Smith, niece of the bridegroom. They wore pink crystal gowns and carried baskets of rose petals. Ring bearers were Carol Smith and Curt Cuffel, niece and nephew of the bridegroom.

Dick Ong was best man for his fraternity brother, the bridegroom. Ushers were Hal Cuffel, Rick Graap and Roger Reece.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Busenbark chose a pink hat and gown with a deeper pink coat.

VISIT FROM CALIFORNIA—Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Perry and daughter, Donna Lee, and son, Freddie, of Fresno, Calif., are visiting in Roseburg this week as guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Perry, on Beaumont in Hucrest. Mr. Perry is a brother of Mrs. Sidney Moon Jr., and a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Stanton of this city. He is an instructor in the Fresno School System. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

POSING for their wedding picture are Mr. and Mrs. Chester Leroy Daniels, above, who were married June 10 at 5 p.m. in an impressive double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church. The bride, Donna Louise Holm, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin E. Holm of Glendale. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Daniels of Dallas. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab.)

Miss Donna Louise Holm of Glendale became the bride of Chester Leroy Daniels of Dallas, Oregon, at a 5 p.m. ceremony Sunday, June 10, at the First Presbyterian Church. The beautiful double ring service was performed by the Rev. James I. Elliott of the Salem Church of Christ before 110 relatives and friends. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin E. Holm of Glendale and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Daniels of Dallas.

Two tall baskets of pink and white gladioli and candelabra with white candles flanked the altar. Miss Geneva Russell of Molalla, was organist. She played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride and groom were accompanied by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marlin E. Holm, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Daniels.

Pamela and Lee Holm, cousins of the bride, lighted the candles preceding the ceremony. Pamela wore a white nylon with blue frock and collar outlined with seed pearls. Her full skirt had two tiers of lace, pointed front and back over a net flounce. Her bridal bouquet was of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Marlin Holm gave his daughter in marriage. She was lovely in an exquisite floor-length white gown with fitted bodice of Chantilly lace over satin, scalloped net yoke and collar outlined with seed pearls. Her full skirt had two tiers of lace, pointed front and back over a net flounce. Her bridal bouquet was of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Miss Kay Emery was maid of honor. She wore pink crystal, ballerina-length, and carried white carnations. Bridesmaid Shirley Riegel of La Center, Wash., wore a gown fashioned identically as that of the maid of honor, of aqua crystal and carried pink carnations. Both wore matching headbands of velvet and seed pearls.

Larry Daniels of Dallas, acted as best man to his brother. Ushers were James Melvin Hodges of Dallas; Peter Harvey of Grants Pass and Erik Klepp of Rainier. Following the wedding ceremony a reception was given by the bride's parents at the Roseburg Women's Club. The bride's table was covered with a white organza cloth with nosegays of tiny white bells draped with aqua ribbons. The centerpiece was a ring of bells with tiny rosebuds in net. The table was further decorated with white tapers in crystal holders and bowls of aqua and white mints. The lovely white tiered wedding cake had touches of aqua and was topped by a white bell. Bouquets of pink and white snapdragons were used about the room.

Mrs. Larry Holm, aunt of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Richard Swanson poured coffee and Mrs. Floyd Squier served the punch. An aunt of the bride, Mrs. Arnold, had charge of the gifts and Miss Rochelle Plank, cousin of the bride, presented the guest book.

Those coming from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Daniels, parents of the bridegroom, of Dallas; Mrs. Anna Daniels, grandmother of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Siefkin, Thomas and Charles, of Lincoln, Neb.; W. C. Plank, James Melvin Hodges and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Sjolund, of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Leland Plank and Rochelle of Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mabley, Gary and Joanne of Glendale, Calif.; Mrs. O. A. Paul and son, Jeff, of Long Beach, Calif.; Mrs. Frank Riegel, Shirley and Marcia of La Center, Wash.; Miss Geneva Russell, Molalla; Mr. and Mrs. James I. Elliott and Jim, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davis, Salem; Erick Klepp, Rainier; Lois Murray and Paul Casebeer, Orsorge; and Hanna Sue Hansen and Peter Harvey, Grants Pass.

For her wedding trip to Southern California, Mrs. Daniels wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and pink carnation corsage. The bride and bridegroom will be at home to friends at 3401 SE Riley Ave., Portland, after July 1.

Mrs. Daniels was born in Roseburg and has lived here all of her life. She was graduated from Laurewood Academy at Gaston in 1954 and attended Willamette University. Mr. Daniels, born in Nebraska, has lived in Dallas most of his life. He attended Dallas schools and was graduated from Willamette University in 1955. He is presently employed in the accounting department at the Sellwood branch of the Pendleton Woolen Mills.

THE GRIFFITH-REED WEDDING PARTY is pictured above following the marriage of Lucille Maxine Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Reed, Morton, Wash., and Richard Elton Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Griffith, Sutherlin, Sunday, June 10, at the First Baptist Church in Roseburg. The Rev. Eugene Gerlitz performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 3 p.m. in the presence of 40 guests. (Picture by Jay Golden of Photo Lab.)

A very lovely June wedding took place Sunday, June 10 at the First Baptist Church when the Rev. Eugene Gerlitz performed the impressive double ring ceremony for the marriage of Lucille Maxine Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray J. Reed of Morton, Wash., and Richard Elton Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Griffith of Sutherlin. The wedding took place at 3 p.m. in the presence of 40 relatives and close friends of the couple.

Tall baskets of pink and white snapdragons and stock flanked by candelabra holding tall white candles formed the altar decorations. Appropriate organ music was played by Mrs. Richard Hoskins, who also accompanied Richard Hoskins who sang "I Love You Truly," preceding the ceremony and "Because" during the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a ballerina-length gown of white satin, net and lace. Her matching fingertip veil fell from a pearl-trimmed silk Juliet cap. She carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and tied by a shower of white satin ribbons on her white Eastern Star Bible. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Mrs. Carl Smith, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a Romance blue lace dress fashioned princess style. She carried an arm spray of white carnations tied with ribbon of the same blue color and headband matching the bridesmaid's. Miss Edna Mae Young, step-sister of the bride, Morton, Wash., and Mrs. Lloyd Mays, Hood River, a friend, were bridesmaids. They wore identical frocks of soft pastel pink with high collars and full skirts. They carried arm sprays of pink carnations tied with the same color ribbon and matching headbands and pink choker necklaces.

Judy Griffith, Sutherlin, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl and wore a dainty light blue dress with matching headband. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eugene Gerlitz, pastor of the church, at 3 p.m. in the presence of 40 guests. The bride's table was covered with a white organza cloth with nosegays of tiny white bells draped with aqua ribbons. The centerpiece was a ring of bells with tiny rosebuds in net. The table was further decorated with white tapers in crystal holders and bowls of aqua and white mints.
