Karl Thiele Honored At Delightful Party

One of the most delightful parties of the season was that given to honor Karl Thiele on the occasion of his attaining the position of master counselor of the Roseburg DeMolay chapter. The party, given by Mr. and Mrs. Perry Thiele at their home, was held Saturday evening following installation ceremonies at the Masonic Temple. Invited were Job's Daughters who participated in the drill at the installation, DeMolay boys and their invited guests.

Japanese lanterns were used to light the attractive patio and yard where dancing and games were enjoyed until a late hour. Guests were served a delicious buffet supper from a table beautifully appointed with dark green cloth and centerpiece of pale pink rhododendrons and white Esther Reed daisies, flanked by large pheasant figurines.
