

THE CHURCH-SAAR WEDDING party is pictured above following the ceremony Saturday, June 16, at 2:30 p.m. at the First Christian Church. The bride, Janice Saar, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Saar of Roseburg and the bridegroom, Robert Church, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Church of this city. Left to right: Candle-

lighter, Patty Dent; bridesmaids, Joan Phillips and Carolyn Lutz; maid of honor, Janet Church; the bride and bridegroom; best man, Ronald Babcock; ushers, Roland Wilson and Dr. Madan Sinha, and candlelighter, Charlene Dent. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

Floor baskets of blue delphinium, syringa and white peonies flanked by candelabra holding tall white candles formed the altar decorations at the First Christian Church Saturday, June 16, when Miss Janice Saar, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Saar of this city, became the bride of Robert H. Church, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph M. Church of Winchester. The Rev. Newell Morgan performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 2:30 p.m. in the presence of 150 guests.

Mrs. Frank Poole played the wedding music including the traditional wedding processional and recessional and accompanied Mrs. Norman Niblett, who sang, "Because."

Miss Charlene Dent, in a blue gown, and Miss Patty Dent, in a pink gown, and wearing pastel-colored corsages, lighted the altar candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a ballerina-length gown of white embroidered organza. She wore a double pearl choker, a gift of the bridegroom. Her finger-tip veil fell from a halo outlined with seed pearls. She carried a white orchid tied with a shower of white satin ribbons. The bride's dress had also been worn by her sister, Shirley Saar, now Mrs. Arthur Husko.

Miss Janet Church, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore a pink ballerina-length gown and carried pink Esther Reed daisies tied with matching ribbons. Miss Joan Phillips and Miss Carolyn Lutz, in blue gowns, carried blue Esther Reed daisies tied with blue ribbons. They wore headbands of net to match their gowns.

Best man was Ronald Babcock, a faculty member from University of Oregon, and ushers were Dr. Madan Sinha, of Calcutta, India, who is studying at the U. of O., and Roland Wilson, a roommate of the bridegroom at University of Oregon.

For the wedding Mrs. Saar wore a navy blue silk and white polka dot afternoon dress with white hat and a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Church wore a turquoise blue lace afternoon dress with white hat and an orchid corsage. Grandmother of the bride, Mrs. May Saar, wore a navy blue lace dress and Mrs. H. B. Church, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore a pink dress. Both grandmothers wore corsages of pink rosebuds.

A reception followed in the social room of the church. The bride's table was covered by a white organza cloth and centered with an arrangement of white wedding bells and white mums. Pink ribbons ran the length of the table. The tiered wedding cake was decorated with pale pink roses and topped by a wedding bell and bridal couple. Mrs. Everett Wimmer, aunt of the bridegroom and Mrs. Arthur Husko, sister of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Franklin Voss served the coffee and Mrs. M. Lutz, aunt of the bride, Placerville, poured the punch. Maureen Church, of Eugene, cousin of the bridegroom had charge of guest book. The Peace roses decorating the table for serving punch were from the garden of the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. Floyd Church, of Eugene.

For traveling the bride wore a green figured dress with a beige coat and black patent leather accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid. Following a honeymoon to Lake Tahoe, Mr. and Mrs. Church will make their home in Eugene, where the bridegroom is employed by an accounting firm. Both the bride and bridegroom were graduates from Roseburg High School. The bridegroom was graduated from University of Oregon and the bride attended U. of O. her freshman year.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. May Saar, and her uncle and aunt and cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lutz and Carolyn, all of Placerville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Wertz, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Church and daughter, Corabelle, Corvallis, Ron Oglesby and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Church and sons, Dale and Dean, and daughter, Maureen, of Eugene.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN LESLIE WEST, above, pose for their wedding photograph following their marriage Sunday, June 17, at the First Presbyterian Church. The bride, Joanne Ware, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darley Ware of this city and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland R. West of Roseburg. Dr. James Millar performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

One of the most beautiful of June brides was Miss Joanne Darlene Ware, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darley Ware of this city, who was married June 17 at 2:30 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church to John Leslie West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland R. West of Roseburg. Dr. James Millar performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

Two large floor baskets of pink gladioli flanked by candelabra holding tall white and decorated tiered wedding cake, which was topped by wedding bells and mums, were arranged at the back of the church. The center aisle of the church was taped off with white ribbons and the pews were marked with nosegays of white satin ribbons.

Mrs. Homer Grow played the wedding music including the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin and at the close of the ceremony, played Mendelssohn's Wedding Reconciliation. She accompanied Bud Dellor, who sang, "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mollie Jean Ware, dressed in a pink gown of lace and net fashioned to match the bridesmaids' gowns, and wearing a wristlet of pink carnations, and Romano Ware, sister and brother of the bride, lighted the altar candles. Romano wore a white coat and trousers to match those worn by the men in the wedding party.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was very beautiful in a ballerina-length wedding gown of white lace and net over white satin fashioned with long sleeves, a close fitting collar and a bouffant skirt. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a lace headband trimmed with sequin and pearls. She wore lace slippers and carried a white orchid tied with a shower of white satin ribbons knotted with stephanotis over a lace-covered white Bible, which had been given to her when she was honored queen of Job's Daughters. Her pearl earrings were a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Harry J. Thomas Jr., of Portland (the former Peggy Knight of this city) was matron of honor and wore a gown of white lace over pink, fashioned along princess lines with low-cut bodice and cap sleeves. The bridesmaids, Miss Kay Partch, Portland, sorority sister of the bride, and Miss Ruthie Wood and Miss Janis Johnson, both of Roseburg, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore white lace gowns over blue.

The bride's attendants wore matching headbands and slippers and the matron of honor carried a sheaf of white gladioli and the bridesmaids carried sheafs of pink gladioli.

Bill West, Roseburg, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Don Ware, Roseburg, brother of the bride, and Bill Anderson, Eugene, and Len Berrie, Portland, were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a pink gown with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a beige gown with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white rosebuds.

A wedding reception followed in the church parlors. Sorority sisters of the bride served. The bride's table was beautifully decorated in pink and white to match the pink and white decorated tiered wedding cake, which was topped by wedding bells and mums. White candles in crystal candelabra and bouquets of pink and white summer blossoms flanked the cake.

After the traditional first piece of the wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom, the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Gordon Marker of Eugene and Miss Joanne Hardt, Milwaukee. Miss Kay Sonnickson, Hood River, presided at the punch bowl and coffee was served by Miss Sylvia Wingard of Eugene, who also had charge of the guest book. Assisting about the room were two aunts of the bride, Mrs. Don Johnson, Roseburg, and Mrs. R. B. Wood, Toledo.

For traveling the bride chose a beige sheath dress with matching jacket and flamingo-colored accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid from her wedding bouquet. Following a honeymoon trip to San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. West will make their home at 465 NE Winchester St., Roseburg.

Out-of-town guests coming for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Knight, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Munro, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thomas Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dave Partch, Miss Kay Partch, Mr. and Mrs. Len Berrie, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Cosby and family; Mr. and Mrs. John West, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Svensen and family, Crescent City, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Wood, Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Marker, Miss Sylvia Wingard, Eugene; Miss Joanne Hardt, Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Stamey and family; Mr. and Mrs. William Calhoun and son, Bill, Myrtle Creek; Miss Kay Sonnickson, Hood River.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and University of Oregon. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority and is employed as secretary at the Ken Bailey Insurance Agency. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg High School and attended Brigham Young University and was graduated from University of Oregon. He is a salesman in business with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roland R. West, in the Roseburg Jewellers.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH G. PINARD, above, cut the first piece of their beautiful wedding cake at the reception following their marriage June 9 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The bride, Merrijean Wilson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Wilson. Father Richard Gleason performed the double ring ceremony at a Nuptial Mass at 9 a.m. (Picture by Chris of Photo Lab).

St. Joseph's Catholic Church was the scene of a beautiful summer wedding, Saturday, June 9, at 9 o'clock, when Miss Merrijean Wilson became the bride of Joseph G. Pinard. Father Richard Gleason performed the impressive double ring ceremony at a Nuptial Mass before a large number of friends and relatives. Sacred music was furnished by Mrs. Rod Nevue, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Hatterscheid.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Howard J. Wilson, was very lovely in her ballerina-length gown of nylon organza embroidery over ruffled nylon tulle featuring a bustle effect and satin cummerbund at the waist. She wore nylon organza mits.

Her fingertip veil fell from an organza pillbox crown trimmed in seed pearls and lilies of the valley. She carried white carnations with stephanotis and a white Rosary which had been her sister's wedding Rosary.

The bride's attendants were Miss Leola Lorenzen, maid of honor; Miss Merrielyn Preskar, a cousin, junior bridesmaid; and Miss Diane Pinard and Mrs. Richard Berney, bridesmaids. Their ballerina-length gowns of crystal-embroidered tulle except that the maid of honor wore gold while the others wore aqua. They wore matching picture hats trimmed with lily of the valley and carried bouquets of Esther Reed daisies. Each wore flowered earrings, gifts of the bride. Dainty Virginia Noel, dressed in gold and carrying a small bouquet of Esther Reed daisies, was flower girl.

Jim Pinard was best man for his twin brother. Ushers were Lester Pierce, Bill Sullivan and Dick Stone.

The bride's mother was dressed in blue lace with white accessories and wore a pink corsage. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in pink lace with white accessories and wore a white corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Carl's Haven. The bridal table, covered with a hand-made lace table cloth attractively arranged by Mrs. Harold Desbiers, was centered with a huge wedding cake surrounded by roses. Mrs. Elwood Foster served the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Ronald Haade. Mrs. Richard Barclay, sister of the bride, presided over the punch bowl; Mrs. Ed Lorenzen poured the coffee; Mrs. Ronald Noel and charge of the guest book and Mrs. Corinne Stewart and Miss Albina Preskar had charge of the gifts.

For going away the new Mrs. Pinard wore a yellow nylon dotted dress with a black faille duster and white accessories. Following a honeymoon to points of interest in Oregon and Washington the couple will be at home to their friends at 1249 S. E. Main.

Mrs. Pinard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Wilson, 2112 West Foothill Drive, and is employed by the Siskiyou-Cascade Research Center. She was graduated from Roseburg High School, class of 1953. Mr. Pinard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Pinard of this city and was graduated from Roseburg High School in 1952. He served with the U. S. Navy and is presently employed by Industrial Electric Service.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hamstreet of Olympia, Wash.; Miss Albina Preskar and Miss Merrielyn Preskar of Anacosta, Mont.; and Miss Diane Pinard of Portland.

THE LUDLOW-MELLIS WEDDING party is pictured above, following the marriage June 5 at the First Methodist Church of Frances Anne Mellis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Mellis, Roseburg, and Willis Helman Ludlow, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ludlow of Nyssa, Ore. Left to right: candlelighters, Kathleen Oakley and Mrs. Floyd Irwin; bridesmaids, Natalie Hodgson and Jacque

Meadows; maid of honor, Marilyn Ludlow; the bride and bridegroom; best man, Donald Hobson; ushers, Stuart Shaw, Thomas Foster and Malcolm Mellis. At the back are the three ministers, the Rev. Paul Ludlow, the Rev. Ellsworth Tilton and the Rev. Ross Knotts. (Picture by Clark's Studio).

Calla lilies, peonies and English iris formed the all-white flowers used in floor baskets and flanked by candelabra holding tall white candles at the First Methodist Church Tuesday, June 5, when Miss Frances Anne Mellis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce A. Mellis, Roseburg, became the bride of Willis Helman Ludlow, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ludlow of Nyssa, Ore. The bridegroom's father and the Rev. Ellsworth Tilton, pastor of the church here, performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. in the presence of 130 guests.

Mrs. Homer W. Grow played the wedding music and accompanied Ernest Shipp of Canyonville, who sang, "O Perfect Love." For the processional, Mrs. Grow played "Cortege Nuptial" by Graham Moore and for the recessional played, "Hymn to Joy," by Beethoven, 9th Symphony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length gown of white lace and net.

Her shoulder veil fell from a tiara of nylon and rhinestones. She carried a nosegay of white spring flowers and red roses.

Miss Marilyn Ludlow, Nyssa, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, wore a pink ballerina-length gown fashioned with net skirt and taffeta jacket. The bridesmaids, Miss Jacque Meadows, Eugene, in green, and Miss Natalie Hodgson, Porterville, Calif., in yellow, wore gowns designed to match the maid of honor's. They carried nosegays of spring blossoms.

Donald Hobson of Salem was best man and ushers were Malcolm Mellis, Seattle, brother of the bride, and Thomas Foster, Nyssa, and Stuart Shaw, Shelton, Wash. Candlelighters were Miss Kathleen Oakley and Mrs. Floyd Irwin, both of Roseburg. They wore dresses in lavender and pink fashioned to match the bride's attendants.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mellis wore a pink two-piece dress with pink accessories and a corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a grey-blue crepe dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

A reception followed in the church parlors with members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church in charge. Mrs. Fred Stever, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Alva Laws were in charge of the decorations. Large baskets of mixed spring blossoms were attractively arranged about the room.

The tiered wedding cake was topped by a nosegay of fresh flowers and after the bride and bridegroom cut the traditional first piece of the cake, Mrs. Theo Bond and Mrs. Malcolm Mellis cut and served to the guests. Mrs. Edna Ludlow and Mrs. S. Raynor Smith presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Clyde Beard served the punch. Mrs. Darrell Crossler had charge of the guest book and Miss Katherine Burlingham had charge of the gifts.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's parents and sister, the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Ludlow and Miss Marilyn Ludlow, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foster, Nyssa, Ore.; Dr. and Mrs. S. Raynor Smith Sr., Eugene and grandsons, Garrett and Glendon Smith, Centralia, Wash.; the Rev. and Mrs. Meredith Groves, Eugene; the Rev. and Mrs. Ross Knotts, Alice and Joe Knotts, and Robert Vestal, Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Mellis, Seattle; Mrs. Darrell Crossler, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hobson, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beard, The Dalles; Mrs. Edna Ludlow, Hillsboro; Miss Katherine Burlingham, Forest Grove.

For traveling the bride wore a melon-colored sheath dress with white coat and accessories. Following a honeymoon to coastal points in Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow will be at home to their friends at 1033 Oakland Ave., Piedmont, Calif.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and from Willamette University and is studying for her master's degree in religious education at Pacific School of Religion. She is assisting in youth work at the First Methodist Church in Oakland, Calif. The bridegroom was graduated from Willamette University and is studying for his Bachelor of Divinity degree at Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, Calif. He is an assistant in youth work at the First Methodist Church in Oakland, Calif.

MRS. GRANT PHILLIPS HOSTS NAVY MOTHERS

Monday evening Mrs. Grant Phillips entertained the Navy Mothers at her home on Tipton Road. Lovely bouquets of mixed flowers were used about the rooms.

At the impressive installation ceremony which took place Mrs. Robert Huff was installed as new commander of the club. Mrs. Phillips served dainty refreshments following the ceremony to the 11 members present.

Mrs. Thompson will host the next meeting which will be in September.

MRS. SLACK HOSTESS AT RECENT LUNCHEON

Pinochle Foursome met at the home of Mrs. Dolores Slack Thursday for a one o'clock luncheon, which was served to Audrey Brim, Nona Hall and Barbara Liesinger by Mrs. Slack. For the afternoon pinochle play Mrs. Brim won high and Mrs. Liesinger low. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Hall, Thursday, June 28.

FAREWELL PARTY HONORS PRICE FAMILY

There was a community farewell party held Saturday for Mr. and Mrs. Louis Price and daughters, Peggy, Penny and Ruth, who will be moving to Glendale this summer to take teaching positions in the Glendale school next year.

Gene Fisher acted as master of ceremonies. On the program were two numbers sung by Betty Grimsrud; Ted Hand played his guitar and sang with Arlene and Doris Hand; Nancy Fisher played a piano solo. A skit about the Prices' intended trip to Glendale by train was enjoyed. Participating were Lucy Haines, Marian Fisher, two small girls, Gator Gates, Jim Ademo, Cecil Denny and Buddy Ademo. Janice Haines sang a farewell song to the Prices. Gene Fisher gave a history of their 10 years' work in the schools and community. Norman Weatherly presented an electric blanket to the Prices from the community.

There were 125 friends present. Refreshments were served. A large cake was made and decorated by Bobby Haines who is attending OTI at Klamath Falls and is studying baking. Mrs. Lucy Haines was in charge of arrangements for the affair.

COUNTRY CLUB WOMEN MEET ON THURSDAY

Women of the Roseburg Country Club met Thursday for a noon luncheon at the clubhouse, followed by the weekly contract bridge play. High score was won by Mrs. L. F. Nielsen with Mrs. H. T. Hansen winning second high score and Mrs. Keith Bryant winning third.

FAMILY REUNION DINNER IS DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

A very enjoyable family reunion dinner was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rippstein near Umpqua Sunday. The rooms were lovely with bowls of roses.

Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Leonard and children of Eureka, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Dee Case and son, Sam, of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Rente and daughter, Peggy, of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Amos Case of Orick, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bradley and son, James of Apple Valley, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hamilton and son, Stevie of Sheridan; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Matthews and sons of Lookingglass; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Leonard and sons, Lynn and Lonnie; Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Germond and the host and hostess and their daughters, Janice and Carolyn, all of Umpqua. The day was spent visiting and playing games.

RIPPSTEIN'S ENTERTAIN AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Rippstein entertained at their home near Umpqua Saturday evening at a lovely birthday dinner, celebrating the 17th birthday of their daughter, Janice. The table centerpiece was a beautifully decorated heart-shaped cake.

Places were set for Mr. and Mrs. Don Coffey and children, Dianne and Albert; Mr. and Mrs. Breedlove and daughters, Ardie and Judy; Miss Carolyn Rippstein, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bradley and son, James; and the guest of honor and her parents. She opened her many gifts at the dinner table.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND HELMS are pictured above following their marriage at 2 p.m. June 16 by the Rev. Clyde Blakley of the First Christian Church in North Bend. The bride, Donna Kelley, is the daughter of Mrs. L. M. Manfull of North Bend and D. D. Kelley of Sutherlin. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Helms, Idlayd Park. The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin and her lace-edged finger tip veil fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried pink carnations on a white Bible. Jarita Osborn sang "I Love You Truly." Judy Neumann was maid of honor and Bill Jones was best man. Delbert Ferren and Don Amoth were ushers. The bride was given in marriage by L. M. Manfull. Picture by Salon Portraits, Coos Bay.

WILL YOU WILT through another sticky summer? No indeed you won't... if you're supplied with Prince Matchabelli's fresh Summer Shower fragrance in everything from frosty Cologne to fluffy Dusting Powder! Above all, you'll want the Summer Shower Deodorant to keep you fresh and coolly confident on even the steamiest day. Come in to Fullerton Drugs and let me, Jean Nelson, show you Summer Shower. Each item priced at a refreshing $1.

Jean Nelson

MARTIN'S

Health Center

TREATMENT FOR
MUSCULAR, CIRCULATORY AND NERVE DISORDERS

•
Swedish Massage
•

718 S.E. Douglas OR 3-5412

ALLEN'S
PICTURE
FRAMING
PICTURES and GIFTS

1052 W. Harvard OR 2-1097