DA Again Files To Have Grand Jury Discharged

EUGENE (AP) — District Attorney Eugene Venn moved again Wednesday for discharge of the grand jury called to consider a charge that money has been embezzled from Moses Moody, a state prisoner.

Venn, who lost earlier in an attempt to have the grand jury dismissed and a new one drawn, filed new supporting arguments, including an affidavit and a list of court cases bearing on the matter.

Venn argues that the jurors were named in improper manner, and that a new grand jury should hear the case. His previous attempt went to the Supreme Court, where he lost.

Circuit Judge Dal M. King of Coos County, who ruled on Venn's previous motion, also is to hear this motion.

Migrant Farm Worker Killed, Boss Is Held

HOOD RIVER (AP) — A migrant farm worker was shot to death Wednesday night and his boss is in jail here, accused of the crime.

Sheriff Rupert Gillmouthe said the shooting followed an argument between the worker, Haskell A. Morrison, 45, Oklahoma City, and the boss of a farm labor group, James B. Athey, 40, of Arizona.

Gillmouthe said he was told by witnesses that Athey had ordered Morrison to board a truck for transfer to another camp. Morrison declined and the shooting followed. The sheriff said Morrison had been shot five times.

Dist. Atty. Kenneth Abraham said he would file a murder charge against Athey. The shooting occurred near Parkdale in the upper Hood River Valley.
