

Cincinnati Team Dominates All-Stars In National Loop

NEW YORK (AP)—It will be Cincinnati against the American League in the All-Star Game at Washington July 19 with five Red legs in the starting lineup.

Three more Cincinnati players, all handy with the home run bat, finished second in the final balloting as the fans decreed a complete turnover in the 1955 National League starting lineup.

First baseman Dale Long of Pittsburgh, third baseman Ken Boyer of St. Louis and right fielder Stan Musial of St. Louis were the only men capable of breaking Cincinnati's look on the starting jobs. In each case the runner-up was a Redleg—led Kluszewski at first, Ray Jablonski at third and Wally Post in right.

Johnny Temple and Roy McMillan, Cincy's classy second base-shortstop combination, won starting jobs. So did rookie Frank Robinson in left, Gus Bell in center and Ed Bailey as catcher.

Mickey Drawn as pitcher.

Despite this tremendous push by Cincinnati, top honors in total votes went to Mickey Mantle, New York Yankees threat to Babe Ruth's home run record. Mantle polled 206,524 with catcher Yogi Berra, a Yankee teammate, second with 191,146 votes.

Final totals were announced by the office of Commissioner Ford Frick after fan polls by newspapers, radio and television stations.

Roy Campanella, Brooklyn catcher, who led last year's voting with 2,154,778, was second to Bailey in the 1955 voting with 115,495. Campanella, incidentally, didn't play last year because of injuries.

Other National starters of '55 who failed to win were Kluszewski, second baseman Red Schoendienst of New York, third baseman Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee, shortstop Ernie Banks of Chicago and outfielders Del Ennis of Philadelphia, Duke Snider of Brooklyn and Don Mueller of New York.

1955 All-Star Game

American League fans returned almost the entire 1955 ticket intact. The only starter who failed to win again was Jim Finigan, Kansas City third baseman who hasn't been playing regularly.

Mantle and Berra are the only representatives of the leading Yankees. Boston has two, Mickey Vernon on first base and Ted Williams in left, and Detroit also placed a pair—right fielder Al Kaline and shortstop Harvey Kuenn. Other American starters are second baseman Nellie Fox of Chicago and third baseman George Kell of Baltimore.

Under All-Star rules, the players picked by the fans must start and play at least three innings unless injured. The pitchers and other members of the 25-man squads will be named by Managers Casey Stengel of the American and Walter Alton of the National next Monday.

Glendale Trips Merchants, 11-4

The potent Glendale Loggers, leading the Rogue Valley League, hosted the visiting Roseburg Merchants to a 11-4 baseball defeat Friday night.

Tom Prestanni and Duane Miller combined to hurl the win, giving up seven hits, walking five and striking out 11 Merchant batters.

Glendale utilized two big innings for most of its scoring. After taking a one-run lead in the third, it pounded across five in the fourth, three more in the fifth, and added single counters in the sixth and seventh.

Roseburg dented the plate for two runs in the fifth and a final run in the ninth.

Top batters for the winners were Ray Munyon with a triple and two singles, Wayne Berg with two singles and Tom Prestanni who gained a triple and single.

Eugene Polley, the flashy center fielder of last year's Glendale baseball nine, blasted out a rousing triple for the big blow by the losers.

Sunday afternoon, Glendale will swing into league play against the Cave Junction nine in a game to be played at Glendale's home field at 2 p.m. Miller has been nominated to start on the mound.

Roseburg will be back at Finlay Field Saturday night for a return engagement against the Grants Pass Merchants at 8 p.m.

Manager Frank Weber announced Eugene Polley as his starting pitcher.

Line score:

Roseburg 000 020 001—3 6 5
Glendale 001 531 10x—11 11 2

Batteries: Roseburg—Richardson, Weber (8) and Myers; Glendale—Prestanni, Miller (5) and Munyon.

Glide Kiwanis Club Honors Baseball '9'

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY

Over 100 persons attended the potluck dinner Thursday evening at the Glendale High School multi-purpose room, given by the Kiwanis Club of Glendale, honoring the winning Glendale Wildcat baseball team, state class B champions.

Following the excellent dinner, Forrest Kennaday, vice president of the Glendale Kiwanis Club, gave a brief address of welcome to the assembled guests and introduced Bill Harper, of Roseburg, coach of the Roseburg American Legion baseball team, who in turn introduced the Roseburg members of the team. Jack Forsythe, Glendale High School coach, spoke, thanking Glendale residents for their support of the schools' athletic activities. Forsythe, then introduced the Glide members of the American Legion team, former Wildcat player.

Kennaday then introduced Al Fiegl of Roseburg, guest speaker, an ardent supporter of Peewee and Junior League baseball. Fiegl stated that these athletic activities of the youngsters acted as a strong preventive of juvenile delinquency, but emphatically said that the words "juvenile delinquency" should be termed "parental delinquency" on account of the lack of parental co-operation in promoting and supporting baseball for their young children.

Howard Hatfield was announced winner of the door prize, and the meeting closed with a benediction by the Rev. Dewey Obenchain, pastor of the Glide Christian Church.

Lookingglass Church and Faith Lutheran won church softball League encounters over North Roseburg and First Baptist, respectively, during loop play Friday night.

The Lookingglass nine chalked up its second win of the season with a 11-8 victory over North Roseburg in a game that was called at the end of five frames. Three circuit clouts were blasted out by the winners, one by Don Grass, one by Jim Jacoby and the final one by Jim Williams.

Jim Elliott added to the scoring with 2-4, a single and a double.

Top hitters for the losers were French, Roelle, Stone and Holliman, each with two hits in four trips to the plate.

Ned Noy gained credit for the win.

The Faith Lutheran—First Baptist tussle saw the Lutes sending 11 runners across the plate in the first frame, five more in the second, six in the third and the final two in the fourth, giving them a 24-3 win over the Baptist crew.

Nine of the 18 hits garnered off losing pitcher Markle went for extra bases, including home runs blasted by Nicklason and Fred Aarnt.

Bud Backen with 3-4, Arnold Ebert with 3-4, Lester Olson with 4-5 and Fred Aarnt with 3-4 were the top sluggers for the Lutes.

Rains and Galloway had two hits each for the losers.

Death Ends Career Of Tiny Thornhill

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Claude (Tiny) Thornhill, who coached one of Stanford's greatest football teams, died Friday at 63 of a heart attack. He had been ill three weeks.

Thornhill had not coached a big time team since 1939 when Stanford fired him after a disastrous season.

His best team was the "Vow Boys" club of 1935 that won the Rose Bowl game, 7-0, from Southern Methodist after two straight unsuccessful attempts against Columbia and then Alabama.

The "Vow Boys" got their name when they promised as sophomores never to lose to Southern California which then was dominating the Pacific Coast Conference. They never did.

Numbered on those teams from 1933 through 1935 were such standouts as Bobby Grayson, Frank Alustiza, Bones Hamilton, Monk Moscrip and Keith Topping.

Thornhill went to Stanford in 1922 as an assistant to Andy Kerr. In 1924 he started assisting Glenn (Pop) Warner with the famous single wing teams. He took over as head coach in 1933 when Warner went to Temple.

FL Club In Glendale Holds Initiation For 7 New Members

By MRS. GERALD B. FOX

The Glendale FL Club held its initiation last Wednesday. Candidates for initiation were Bernice Cleveland, Yvonne Doss, Betty B. Brady, Betty L. Brady, Gloria Faye Paie.

Glenn Sinclair and Les Robson were the official representatives of the Glendale-Azalea VFW at the state encampment held in Roseburg on June 27, 28 and 29. Mrs. Wes Hays acted as delegate of the Women's Auxiliary.

Merchants and mills in the Glendale area recently donated a total of $425 to help sponsor the encampment and the sending of delegates.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Thompson of Wolf Creek, former Glendale residents, are the parents of an 8 pound, 10 1/2 ounce boy, Douglas Wayne, born June 16 at Josephine Hospital in Grants Pass.

Carol Lee Craddock, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Craddock of Glendale, choked on a penny recently and was unable to breathe until her mother and her aunt, Mrs. Don Williams were able to push the penny on down her throat.

Mrs. Glade O'Neal of Glendale visited recently in Eugene with her niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Skold and their new son. Another guest at the Skold residence was Mrs. O'Neal's sister, Mrs. Clair Davidson of LaGrande.

Rev. Ed Grafstrom was rushed to the Josephine Hospital in Grants Pass recently with a blood clot in his arm, which was shutting off circulation. According to members of the family, the clot has now been dissolved, and the patient is doing very well. He will be kept in the hospital under observation, however, for a few days.

Dan Densley, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Densley of Glendale, is spending part of the summer visiting at Goldendale, Wash., with his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ira Pierce and his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Densley. The D. R. Densley family drove to Goldendale for Decoration Day and left Dan there.

Jim Cox, his grandson, Ricky Major, Ray Cox, Jim Miller and son, Alvin Miller, spent two days last week on a fishing trip on the Umpqua River.

Mrs. Lewis Bruington of Glendale returned Monday, June 25 from a couple of weeks spent visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Shenkel, in Tacoma.

Mrs. James Kurtorf and children, of Glendale, are visiting her mother in Eugene for a couple of weeks. Her sister, from California, stopped in Glendale, and they went on to Eugene together.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keys of Florence, Oregon, visited last weekend with her sister, Mrs. Marcella Chiavaris of Azalea.

Gov. Smith Makes Brief Visit In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. Elmo Smith of Oregon made a brief visit here Thursday en route home from the governors conference at Atlantic City, N. J.

The governor lunched with Oregon's three Republican representatives, Sam Coon, Baker, Walter Norblad, Stayton, and Harris Ellsworth, Roseburg.

"I've just been seeing a few people," he said before boarding an airliner with Mrs. Smith for a flight to Portland. They were accompanied by the governor's executive assistant, Ed Armstrong, and Mrs. Armstrong.

Collins Of Dillard Vacation To Missouri, Attend Reunion

By ROSA HEINBACH

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Collins and sons, Victor and Lonnie Ray, have returned to their home following a three-week vacation to Dora, Mo., after leaving their home in Dillard they stopped in Portland and picked up his sister, Mrs. Maxine Hall and two children, Stephen and Brenda. Together they traveled to Spokane where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Atkinson, formerly of Dillard. The party then toured the Yellowstone National Park which was only recently opened to travel due to the heavy snows. They stopped at Virginia City, Mont., and Ogallala, Neb. On their arrival at Dora, they found Mrs. Collins' mother critically ill. She was improved before they left for home. Earl Collins parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collins, their seven children, and twelve grandchildren gathered from several states for a reunion.

Several members of Mrs. Collins' family gathered at the home of her mother to visit. En route home they visited Collins' uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Kelly at La Junta, Colo., and other relatives, then stopped over in Portland to take Mrs. Hall and children home before returning to Dillard, where Collins is employed at the Paul B. Hull sawmill and Mrs. Collins at the Dillard Post Office.

Pat Mulklin and Stanford Gough of Salem are spending the week visiting the farm of the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas and family on Robert's Creek. Patricia is the daughter of Mrs. Thomas' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Mulklin, formerly of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rummell entertained the former's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Onstott and sons, Brent and Jan, and his uncle, Bracken Rummell, from Las Vegas, last week. The visitors made several fishing trips up on the North Umpqua and visited points of interest in the community. They left Friday for Eureka, Calif., where they plan to visit Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Rummell and children and his mother, Mrs. Bertha Rummell, en route to their home in Las Vegas.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Clark of Portland were overnight guests at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Belle Clark, and his aunt, Mrs. Grace Barnes. They were also guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Gale, and her mother, Mrs. White, visited him Tuesday, and they report he is recuperating satisfactorily from the recent spinal fusion.

Mrs. William Cantwell and son, Billy, went by train to Eugene last week where the latter has his regular medical check-up. They visited her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tuttle, and went shopping while there.
