Portland ran its victory string to six in a row Sunday, then fell to Vancouver, 1-0 in the second game of a Pacific Coast League baseball doubleheader.
That put Portland in a tie with Sacramento for fourth place in league standings, 10 1/2 games back of Seattle. The Seattle lead was cut to a single game over Los Angeles as a result of two Los Angeles victories over Seattle, 7-4 and 4-2.
The first Sunday game at Portland turned into a free-scoring affair before Jim Baxes, getting an intentional walk, reached out and swatted one of the wide, high throws to bring in the winning run. It was an 8-7 win for Portland with Vancouver scoring six runs in its half of the ninth and Portland countering with four.
In the second game, Vancouver got away to a one-run lead in the first inning and held it. Portland was able to get only two hits off George Gamberger's slow curves.
The Vancouver first-game rally that didn't quite stand up was sparked by a two-run homer by Jim Pisoni. There were a pair of those extra-run homers by Los Angeles in the Angels' game at Seattle.
Two-run homers by Gene Macuh and Steve Bilko and a two-run single by Mauch put the first game out of Seattle's reach.
A single by Bob Coates, a walk to Bilko and a triple by George Freese produced two runs in the first inning of the nightcap. Four straight singles in the third inning turned up the other two.
All that squared their four-game series.
Third-place Hollywood moved to within seven games of the lead

Critics of the All-Star voting are quiet today after Cincinnati's home run shower at St. Louis. Instead of five Redleg starters, maybe the National League should go with the whole team.

The Redlegs edged within five percentage points of the league lead yesterday by ripping St. Louis twice 10-15 in 10 innings and 7-1. Milwaukee lost its full-game advantage by splitting a pair with Chicago, the Braves rallying from a 7-0 shutout by Don Kaiser to grab the second 4-3.
Brooklyn remained a full game back by beating Philadelphia 4-1 on Gil Hodges' two-run homer and Roger Craig's five-hit pitching aller the Phils slugged Sal Maglie and Clem Labine for five in the ninth to win the opener 7-4. The New York Giants Johnny Antonelli shaded Pittsburgh's Bob Friend 3-2 and New York also led 7-6 in the second game that was suspended until Aug. 10.

In the American, Mickey Manile got back on the beam after going 11 games since June 20 without a home run. He slammed No. 28 into the third deck in left field, batting right-handed, and hit No. 29 into the right field bullpen, batting lefty, in the New York Yankees' second game 8-6 victory over Washington.

Joe Collins' two-run homer won the opener for the Yanks 3-2.
The Yanks' double triumph boosted their lead to four full games because Cleveland knocked off second-place Chicago in two games, 7-6 and 6-1.
Despite home runs by Ted Williams and loser Bob Porterfield, Baltimore topped the Boston Red Sox 5-3 behind Connie Johnson. A homer by Dick Williams, an ex-Dodger, with a man on was the winner. Kansas City rallied with three in the sixth inning to rob Detroit of a series sweep 4-3.

One of the wildest games of this season — or any season — saw Cincinnati score six in the 10th to overcome the Cardinals in the first game of their double. A total of 34 runs, eight homers and 43 base hits were collected off 14 pitchers.
Ted Kluszewski hit three homers, the third in the 10th, with one on, and Frank Robinson and George Crowe also homered for Cincy in the first game.
