Thousands In Savings Forecast During Biggest Karl's Shoe Sale

Residents of the area will participate in total savings of thousands among families in the 11 western states during the special "Money Saving Sale" announced by Karl's Shoe Stores, Ltd., for its several hundred outlets, starting today.

The announcement of the major merchandising event, described as "the biggest sale of the year", was made yesterday by Harry Karl, President of the firm, the largest family-owned and operated concern of its kind in the nation, and Mr. Ben Phillips, manager of the local store at 556 S.E. Jackson St., Roseburg.

"We are happy to announce this important economic event," Karl commented. "Savings effected by our customers in the course of this sale will represent real benefits for the family budget especially in a period when vacation expenses are apt to make extra demands." He declared that footwear for all members of the family will be "sensationally slashed."

Karl added that such special savings will, of course, be added to those regularly accruing to shoppers at Karl's Shoe Stores, where a flexible policy of gearing merchandising to economic needs, and placing emphasis on goods rather than store fixtures, has enabled the 51-year-old firm to weather every kind of economic weather, while expanding its outlets at the current rate of 20 a year.

Headquarters of the firm is in Los Angeles, where the Karl family launched operations with one tiny cobbler's shop in 1905. (Adv.)
