

Martha Shull Gets Nomination

PORTLAND (AP) — Martha A. Shull, Portland, Ore., was nominated without opposition Tuesday for president of the National Education Assn. (NEA).

Lyman V. Ginger, Lexington, Ky., was nominated without opposition for first vice-president.

Miss Shull, an English teacher at Jefferson High School in Portland, is now first vice president. Ginger is dean of adult and extension education at the University of Kentucky.

LONGEST FLOOD
PORTLAND (AP) — The longest Columbia River flood of modern times ended Tuesday as the river dipped below flood stage of 15 feet at Vancouver, Wash., north of here.

Minor Delays On State Roads Are Reported

SALEM (AP) — Several minor delays and detours occur on Oregon routes, the weekly road report of the state Highway Department indicated Tuesday. They are:

Columbia River Highway, Bradley Park-Wauna section, 4 miles of construction, possible slight delay.

Umpqua Highway, one to eight miles east of Reedsport, construction, possible delay.

AS HE'D LIKE TO LOOK—San Francisco artist, who prefers to remain anonymous, has sketched Harry S. Truman as he'd look with whiskers, in light of the former president's remarks in London concerning his suppressed longing for chin adornment. Truman's suppressed longing was revealed after he saw a political satire in which bewhiskered stars appeared. From left, top to bottom: Van Dyke; a la President Van Buren; as President Lincoln; as General Grant.

Syria Extends Red China Diplomatic Recognition

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Syria today became the second Arab nation to extend diplomatic recognition to Communist China.

A Foreign Ministry communiqué said the Cabinet at a meeting last night decided "to recognize the government of the People's Republic of China."

Syria thus again followed the lead of its close ally Egypt, which on May 16 was the first Arab nation to recognize formally the Peking regime.

Turns In Fast Time

ST. PAUL, Ore. (AP)—Billy Hogue of Holtville, Calif., turned in fast times in two events Monday night to win a favorite's role for the all-around title at the annual St. Paul Rodeo which started Sunday and winds up Wednesday.

Hogue bulldozed a steer in 9.7 seconds and roped a calf in 13.5.
