

Employee Relations Importance Told By Lions Speaker

"You can't run your business alone. The people who make your ideas work are your employees," according to John Eddy, traveling auditor for the California Oregon Power Co., with headquarters at Medford.

The need for humanization was stressed by Eddy in a talk on "Employee Relations" before the Roseburg Lions Club Thursday night. He was introduced by J. P. Moteschenbacher of the local Copco office.

The employee is an employer's greatest asset, said the speaker. Any program of relationship that can keep up efficiency is very important, he emphasized. If for no other reason than lowering his own cost of operation, an employer should look into employee relations. Turnover of employees is often traced to faulty relations, and investors frequently look to these relations, rather than the company's paper work in studying its worth.

The psychology of needing to belong to an organization was stressed by the speaker, who listed the following points as essential to good employee relations:

1. Recognition of a job well done and proper advancements as warranted;
2. consultation with experts on the job or employees responsible for carrying out an idea;
3. opportunity for an employee to increase his knowledge, his ability and position;
4. security, not only financial but of position with the company and place in the community;
5. good lines of communication from management to employee and reverse, which influence the desire to work, ability to do the job and getting along with others, and, 6. impressions obtained by outsiders from the attitude of employees.

He said work can be obtained in two ways: persuasion or force. As to the latter he quoted Gen. George Patton, who said an army is like a string; it can be led by pulling the string, but it cannot be pushed.

2 GOP Senators Say Eisenhower Still In Fight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two Republican senators said Friday they expect President Eisenhower to be in there pitching when the campaign gets under way despite his recent operation.

At the same time, two of their Southern Democratic colleagues foresaw a Southern swing to Adlai Stevenson, possibly as a means of blocking New York's Gov. Averell Harriman. The prediction that Eisenhower would seek a second term came from Sens. Ives (R-NY) and Carlson (R-Kan).

"I think he is rarin' to run again, will run again and will be elected," the New York senator declared.

Carlson, an Eisenhower friend, said he was "certain" the President's decision to run again, made prior to undergoing intestinal surgery, would stand. "And I don't think he needs to say anymore," he added.

6 Men Missing As Plane Crashes

LAKE CHARLES, La. (AP) — Six men were reported missing after a KC97 Stratotanker from the Lake Charles Air Force Base crashed Friday in Labrador.

Capt. George Spottswood, public information officer, said the big refueling plane crashed and burned in wooded territory about 45 miles northeast of the Goose Air Force Base, Labrador.

The missing included 2nd Lt. William W. Jaycox, 24, co-pilot, Box 76, Rochester, Wash.

Two Larcenies, Building Entry Are Investigated

Two larcenies and a building entry are being investigated by Roseburg police today.

A San Bernardino, Calif., college student working in the Douglas County woods this summer reported Thursday that $51 in currency was taken from a billfold in a dresser in his Roseburg hotel room.

Ana Paul Bridges, 19, told police the money probably was stolen the night of July 3.

Two mortars, used for setting off fireworks, were pried out of the ground near the fairgrounds, where the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored a fireworks display Wednesday night.

Jaycee Robert Triplett said the steel tubes belong to the Western Fireworks Co., Canby. Value is about $20 each.

Time Payment For Camp Tye Plan Devised

A time payment plan for campers at Camp Tye has been announced by the Douglas County Camp Fire Girl Council.

Tom Pargeter, council president, said the program was inaugurated so that delayed income would not keep any girl from "taking advantage of the wonderful recreational and educational opportunities available for girls at Camp Tye." The plan calls for a small down payment with the balance due in 30 days.

The "Camp and Charge It" system will apply to all five camping sessions at Camp Tye. The cost is $15 for seven days.

Sessions are July 8-15 for junior high and older girls; July 15-22 for fifth-grade-and-up Camp Fire Girls; July 22-29 for Camp Fire Girls; July 29 - Aug. 5 for Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls; Aug. 5-12 for Blue Birds.

Girls who have not yet joined a Camp Fire or Blue Bird group and out-of-council members are also eligible to attend the camping sessions.

Mrs. Oscar Amundson, executive director of the council stated that the staff at the camp would be headed by June Emerson. Experienced cooks and a registered nurse will also be on hand, she reported.

Interested girls or parents may call Camp Fire headquarters at 3-8277 for further information at any time. Mrs. Amundson said, but "it is definitely mutually advantageous if we are contacted by the girl or her parents as soon as possible," she added.

LONGSHOREMEN TURN OUT

PORTLAND (AP) — An estimated 1,000 longshoremen turned out Thursday for ceremonies marking the 22d anniversary of "Bloody Thursday."

A floral casket was dropped into the Willamette River in the annual observance of the day on which seven men were killed and several injured in the 1934 Pacific Coast waterfront strike.

Eisenhower Talks Politics, But No Hints Forthcoming

GETTYSBURG (AP) — President Eisenhower talked politics with two aides Friday but there was not a hint—except for a big grin on the face of one—whether they got word of his present political intentions.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty was grinning broadly when he told a news conference that he and Sherman Adams, presidential assistant, had discussed "personal politics and general politics" with Eisenhower.

He declined over and over to say whether the President had disclosed any decision either to run or not to run for another term. And, when a reporter suggested he couldn't be grinning so if Eisenhower had said he wouldn't run, Hagerty grinned the more but insisted his smiles were without significance.

Hagerty said he wouldn't know whether or when there might be some public pronouncement from Eisenhower. But he did say the President might hold a news conference before leaving Gettysburg.

Critical Steel Items Frozen

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Moving to assure continuance of the national defense program, the government today froze certain critical steel items as the six-day steel strike rolled on.

There was no sign of an early breach in deadlocked contract negotiations.

Top federal mediators conferred separately yesterday with both sides. They flew back to Washington with the word they will study the issues and "be in touch" with the United Steelworkers and the basic steel industry early next week.

in several parts of the watershed. Lee McAllister, area engineer from Salem, said all other available sources of information have been utilized. He listed these sources as the Corps of Engineers, Surface and ground water branches of the Geological Survey, state engineer of Oregon, Oregon Game Commission, Fish and Wildlife Service, National Park Service, Soil Conservation Service, Dept. of Agriculture, Bureau of Mines, Oregon Sanitary Authority, Federal Power Commission, Bureau of Land Management and U.S. Forest Service.

The 99-page report contains a general description of the 4,710-square-mile basin, an outline of problems and needs of the area, irrigation characteristics, other possible project functions, a recommended plan of development of the streams, an outline of the agricultural economy, and conclusions and recommendations as well as information from the other services which contributed.

Three recommendations were made in the report:
1. That the report be submitted to the people of the basin to provide them with a general inventory of basin water and land resources.

2. That future investigations be conducted for specific multipurpose projects within the basin where local interests desire such development.

3. That future studies incorporate a plan of flood control where irrigation development is being considered in combination with other uses.

ages placed at spots in the vicinity of the Weinberger home. The only other information given out by Weinberger was that the phone caller indicated he would be watching afternoon papers. Weinberger did not say what was meant by this.

Earlier the distraught parents of the 34-day-old child publicly pledged to pay real ransom money or do anything to obtain a release of the sandy haired, blue-eyed tot.

Weinberger, a prosperous wholesale drug salesman whose expensive home is located in a Long Island suburb, said he had the cash ready to turn over to the kidnap.

Weinberger said he would go anywhere, do anything to see his son again.

And the mother, Beatrice Weinberger, a pretty, 32-year-old brunette, sobbingly implored the kidnap to "please, please, please call anyone. Leave a note anywhere. I shall see that you get what you want."

She was near collapse Thursday as she broadcast a radio and television appeal for the return of her son.

Tipster Puts FBI On Robbers' Trail

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — An anonymous tipster who overheard plans for a bank robbery put FBI agents on a trail that led to three arrests Thursday night only nine hours after $28,000 was stolen from the Florida National Bank at Starke, Fla.

Most of the money was reported recovered.

A Navy enlisted man, Clinton Emil Withington, 19, of Cecil Field, near Jacksonville, and Empire, Nev., was charged with bank robbery.

Another Navy man, Marvin Frederickson, 19, of Cecil Field and Wedderburn, Ore., and a girl, Mary Ann Reid, 23, of Jacksonville were charged as accessories.

FBI agents said they could not reveal the identity of the Jacksonville resident whose tip led them to arrest the trio at Miss Reid's residence.

Seeing news accounts of the robbery at Starke, about 40 miles southwest of here, this resident informed authorities of having overheard plans for such a robbery.

Communism March Halted, Says Nixon

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Vice President Nixon told the Vietnamese Constituent Assembly Friday that "although your country is divided the militant march of communism has been halted."

The U.S. vice president arrived here from Manila on an official visit and addressed the Assembly after a talk with President Ngo Dinh Diem.

He brought a personal message for Diem from President Eisenhower.

Nixon told the Assembly that "behind the enlightened leadership of your president Viet Nam for the first time can look forward to achieving her rightful place among the free nations of the world."

"You may be sure," he added "that you will have the warm support and admiration of the American people."

At the airport he described the young republic as a "symbol of independence for all people to respect."

Mediation Board Abandons Efforts In WCA Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Mediation Board Friday abandoned peace efforts in a labor dispute involving West Coast Airlines, leaving the Air Line Pilots Assn. (ALPA) free to strike.

ALPA President Clarence Sayen had said a new strike date for 65 captains and co-pilots would be set as soon as the National Mediation Board surrendered jurisdiction.

The board said that since it hadn't been possible to settle the dispute it was stepping out of the picture and "they're on their own from here on out."

A strike had been called for June 27 but was postponed at the board's request for time to seek an agreement.

At issue are a retirement plan for the pilots and a demand for a $40 a month wage boost. Sayen said the pilots receive $1,031 a month but pilots on most other local service lines in the area are paid $1,075.

NEA Girls For Fresh Fight On Education Aid

Jews from entering be by-passed in NEA-sponsored tours abroad.

A much more vociferous attempt by another group, mostly from the South and border states, to substitute a sharply worded school desegregation resolution for the committee version apparently has been dropped for this convention.

The substitute proposal bore down on what the group said was a growing threat of dismissal for teachers who push racial desegregation.

A spokesman for the white and Negro backers of the substitute, F. D. Moon of Oklahoma City, said they plan to "put up a strong fight when we meet in Philadelphia next summer."

Also to come before the Philadelphia convention will be a proposal by the Board of Directors to boost NEA dues from $5 to $10 a year.

The board said it contemplated part of the increase would go for a campaign to establish a $4,500 minimum teacher salary in every state.

The national commander of the American Legion called upon the NEA to help prevent "another Korean prisoner of war tragedy."

The tragedy, said J. Addington Wagner, was that "a number of American prisoners of war yielded to Communistic brain-washing because, by their own admission, they lacked basic knowledge of the country and flag they were defending."

Wagner described a joint NEA-Legion committee search for effective means by which schools can counsel young men who will enter military service.

Ike's Picture Replaces Nudes On Program

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Three rugged but spirited bronze male nudes have been kicked off the cover of the official program for the Republican National Convention.

In their place a portrait of President Eisenhower will be seen by conventiongoers against a background photograph of the Cow Palace auditorium and stage where the convention opens August 20.

This was announced Thursday night by Mayor George Christopher and Edmund O'Brien, executive director of the GOP Arrangements Committee, after Christopher's criticism of the photograph of sculptor Auguste Rodin's statue of the three nudes.

McKay, Hitchcock Launch Campaign

PORTLAND (AP) — Doug McKay and the man he beat for the Republican U.S. senatorial nomination will start out together Saturday on McKay's second eastern Oregon campaign tour since the primary election.

Phil Hitchcock will go with McKay to Bend and the two men will spend the weekend there. Then McKay will go on alone, following this schedule:

Monday—Madras and Prineville. Tuesday—Mitchell, Dayville, Mt. Vernon, Canyon City and John Day, then to Kimberley, Spray, Fossil and Condon.

Thursday—Morning in Condon, then to Moro, Grass Valley and Wasco.

Friday—Dufur, Tygh Valley, Maupin and return to Portland.

Mrs. Ledgerwood Of Riddle Dies

Mrs. Effie W. Ledgerwood, 84, of Riddle, died in a Roseburg hospital Friday morning.

She was born August 24, 1871, at Willis Creek near Dillard. Her grandparents were early pioneers who settled near Willis Creek in 1853.

The deceased was a member of the Episcopal Church and a former member of the Rebekah Lodge at Riddle.
