District Title To Be Decided For Legion '9s'

Lockwood Motors of Roseburg and Pitchford Mack Sales of Eugene will commence its best-of-three playoff tonight at 8 o'clock at Bethel Park for the Area 4 American Junior Legion championship.

The second game is scheduled for Roseburg's Finlay Field Sunday night and the third, if necessary, will be played in Roseburg Monday.

The winner of the series will then play against Albany, who won Area 3 honors by disposing of Oregon City and Astoria. The first game of that series (semifinals) will begin July 28 at Albany.

The finals will open Aug. 3 and will be a best-of-five series.

Mecca Lunch of Portland has claimed the Area 2 crown and its semifinal opponent will be The Dalles or Pendleton, who will open their playoff today to decide the Area 1 representative.

Legion Coach Bill Harper has selected Dick Smith, the 6-1, 190-pound right-hander from Glendale, as his starting hurler. Bill Rudzik will receive Smith's offerings.

Outfield assignments have been given to Danny Kinne, Bill Oerding and Wayne Kennaday.

Eugene Coach Duane Mellem is undecided as to who his starting pitcher will be, but it will be either Gary Ashworth or Lynn Coons. Ashworth is a right-hander and Coons serves them up from the left side.

The team is scheduled to leave Roseburg at 3 p.m.

Promotor Elton Owen has installed a new ventilation fan in the balcony for the comfort of the fans.

Matches get under way at 8:30 p.m.

California Regents Set Study Of Athletic Row

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—Regents of the University of California, policy makers for both the campus at Berkeley and that of UCLA, will delve into the troubled Pacific Coast Conference athletic situation.

The board of regents voted Friday for a study by its committee on educational policy of both the conference controversy and the athletic policies of the two schools.

Committee chairman Edward Carter of Los Angeles said he wasn't certain when the committee would hold its first session. It was indicated, however, the group will gather before Aug. 6-8 when the conference is scheduled to make a final determination in Portland of penalties in the cases involving under-the-table aid to athletes by alumni and booster organizations.

UCLA, California, USC and Washington all have been hit by penalties which include probation, financial losses and declarations of one-year ineligibilities.

Ted Williams Expresses Displeasure With Press

BOSTON (AP)—Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams is mad at local baseball writers again—and displaying his contempt publicly.

No longer "the Kid" but a temperamental outfielder made contemptuous gestures to the press for the second time within four days last night while being cheered by 29,806 fans for a fine catch.

Williams misjudged a line drive by Jim Briedeweger of Detroit but backtracked and made a one-handed stab for the final out of the top of the seventh inning.

As the crowd roared its appreciation Williams fired the ball some 50 feet into the air. He tossed his glove high as he reached the infield.

Then, standing at home plate to lead off the Boston seventh, Williams turned his head toward the press box and spat. Next he turned and spat toward the first base stands.

Safety First Hardtop Code Friday Night

By SHIRLEY FLYNN

A large crowd of spectators witnessed some superb driving skill at the Roseburg Speedway Friday night and for the first time this season saw near collisions and no major mishaps.

While there were no flip-overs or crack-ups, there was still plenty of excitement as drivers pushed their throttles to the floorboard and drove at a furious pace to snare the coveted lead positions.

The third heat provided an unusual finish. John Wilverding (6) moved into the lead on the first lap and maintained it to cross the checkered flag. Pushing him all the way were Lyle Westcott (99), Jack McCoy (M2 Medford), and Whitley Dage (77).

McCoy took the second spot from Westcott on the sixth lap. Just a few feet before the finish line Westcott nudged McCoy, who spun about, but was close enough to spin across the flag in a reverse position to claim second place. Nearly nosing him out was Westcott with Dage right against his bumper.

McCoy Stars Again

McCoy, winner of the A main last week, snared top honors again Friday. He took the lead from Wilverding on the ninth lap and held it. Jim Standley (22), Art Pollard (87) and Lou Domeian vied for third with Standley coming out on top. Wilverding held to second.

Tenth car in an 11-car pack was Leonard Kress (91) who moved into first place on the seventh lap of the B main and started lapping the rear of the pack by the 13th lap before roaring down the homestretch to top money.

Jack Beavers (4) coming from the rear of the pack to rest in second had the spot sewn up until the 20th lap when his motor heated. Beavers shifted into high gear hoping to maintain his hold on second place and did until the blue flag lap when he was forced to pull into the pits. This let John Barron (37), who'd been closing the space between them last, finish second. Chuck Roberts (18 Cottage Grove) was third.

Standley took the A trophy and Barron the B trophy. Art Pollard clocked last time for the evening with 17.7 seconds. McCoy of Medford and Ray Lawrence of Cottage Grove have joined the local association and will be seen here often.

Winning a Pitmen's Race of ten laps was Don Hein (22). Placing second was Hal Walker (6) and third was Doug Moore (59). Don Partin (37) spun completely around as he crossed the checkered flag and narrowly missed a serious collision.

Eddie Yost Threatens Babe Ruth's Walk Mark

WASHINGTON (AP)—Let the rest talk about Mickey Mantle. In Washington, it's Eddie Yost who is assaulting Babe Ruth's record.

Not that Babe's unequalled 60 home runs of 1927—but Ruth's 170 walks in 1923.

No other ball player has received so many bases on balls. But Yost, Washington's third baseman, is a real threat. With 65 games to go, he's been passed 97 times.

'Portland' Dirty Word Around Seattle Baseball Fanatics

By JACK HEWINS

SEATTLE (AP)—There is one word around the Seattle Rainier baseball campus that is considered somewhat dirtier than others. They pronounce it "Portland."

Not that Portland's Beavers are put it mildly, have treated the Rainiers with disrespect. The first time the two teams collided this year the Rainiers clubbed the Seattles out of first place. Knocked 'em all the way down to third in the Coast League standings.

When they met again with the Rainiers still third, Portland left them one full game farther from the lead. Back in front when they tangled again, Seattle dropped three straight but kept the No. 1 spot because Los Angeles was losing, too.

Portland could only hold Seattle to a 2-2 split in their most recent series but softened up the Rainiers so tallent Vancouver could shellac 'em two out of three and Los Angeles could lower the boom in three games out of four.

From their roost in first place with a game and a half margin, Seattle skidded three games back. Is that any way to treat a champion?

The chief spokesman for the firm of D. Soriano, Inc. (reasonable rates on bases and boat pilotage), had this to say about the Portland-Seattle situation: "Jim? Phooey!"

It was an opinion shared by Tommy Holmes, who lately managed the Beavers. "We just seemed to get our game together against Seattle," he said. "Our pitching was at its peak and our team hitting was adequate. Sure, there's a lot of satisfaction in knocking off the league leaders—but no feud."

Where in the world would the World Champion Brooklyn Dodgers be in that National League without big Don Newcombe? Or without the St. Louis Cardinals, for that matter.

After dropping two of three at Cincinnati and slipping six games behind the leaders, Brooklyn stopped the skid with a 4-1 decision over the Cards last night as Newcombe pitched a five-hitter for his 13th victory. It was Newk's seventh straight over the Cardinals, who haven't beaten him since August 1951. It also was the eighth victory in 11 games with St. Louis for third place Brooklyn.

Milwaukee retained its two-game edge with Bob Tossing a two-hitter for his 12th victory and Hank Aaron pumping across four runs in a 10-0 frolic against Philadelphia. Runrump Cincinnati, scoring a 11 in 6 runs on homers, beat Pittsburgh 6-4 in 12 innings on Smoky Burgess' two-run shot.

The Chicago Cubs whacked the last place New York Giants 7-4. In the American League, Whitey Ford tied an AL record with six straight strikeouts while winning his 12th as the New York Yankees defeated Kansas City 6-1. That raised their lead to a high of 11 games over Cleveland, rained out at Baltimore. Detroit stomped Boston 9-6. Chicago and Washington also were idled by rain.

Portland turned in an infield ground-ball triple-play, but it was not enough to defeat Hollywood Friday night.

The Stars beat Portland, 5-4, at Hollywood despite the unusual triple play.

R. C. Stevens and Danny Kravitz led off for Hollywood in the third inning with singles. Then Joe Duham hit a sharp ground ball to third baseman Eddie Basinski. Basinski stepped on to force Stevens, then fired to second baseman Dick Young to force Kravitz. Young completed the triple killing by pivoting and throwing Duham out at first.

The triple-play was quite a lift for Portland pitcher Bob Darnell, seeking his 11th victory of the season. But Darnell was not quite up to it, yielding three runs in the eighth inning. Carlos Bernier singled home the winning run after a costly error by Portland first baseman Ed Mickelson.

Bevo Threat Fizzles

Portland threatened in the ninth inning on a single by Luis Marquez, a 340 hitter now, and a double by Mickelson. But pitcher Luis Arroyo halted the drive by retiring Jack Littrell.

Los Angeles trimmed the San Francisco Seals 5-1 Friday night and stretched its Pacific Coast League lead to 3 1/2 games over the Seattle Rainiers, who were shut out 1-0 by Sacramento.

Angel pitcher Johnny Briggs allowed eight hits, giving no more than one an inning. He fanned three pinch hitters sent in by Seals manager Joe Gordon in late inning efforts to salvage the game.

Earl Harrist gave up five hits while pitching the Solons to their second straight victory over Seattle. The Rainiers' Howie Judson allowed only six hits, but two of them and a walk plated Sacramento's Nippy Jones in the fourth inning.
