

MR. AND MRS. RODNEY KNIGHT HOUSER, who were married at St. Aloysius Church in New Plymouth, Idaho, June 9, spent their honeymoon at Sun Valley and are now at home to friends in Salt Lake City, Utah. The bride, Lois L. Shurts, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shurts, New Plymouth. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Houser, formerly of this city and now of Ogden, Utah. The bridegroom is a senior at University of Utah. (Picture by Harano Studio, Ontario, Ore.)

Blue and white-delphinium and white gladioli and stock formed the large floor basket bouquets for the wedding of Miss Lois Lorraine Shurts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Shurts of New Plymouth, Idaho, who became the bride June 9, at St. Aloysius Church, New Plymouth, of Rodney Knight Houser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. Houser of Ogden, Utah, former residents of Roseburg. The Rev. Father T. C. Hapin performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 10 a. m. in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. Jimmy Shurts and Johnny Buerman served as altar boys.

Miss Marlene Carraway, soloist, and Miss Naomi Innes, organist, both of Shoshone, Idaho, furnished the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in a gown of white organza over pale blue fashioned with tiers of tiny tucks edged in fine lace. The skirt ended in a chapel train and her shoulder-length veil fell from a cap of lace. She carried a bouquet of garnet rosebuds encircled by stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Miss Margaret Shurts, and bridesmaids were Miss Joanne Shurts and Miss Helen Shurts, all sisters of the bride. They wore identical gowns of taffeta in shades of blue and carried Colonial nosegays of carnations and garnet rosebuds.

Best man for his brother was Douglas G. Houser, senior at Willamette University, Salem, and ushers were George J. Lindenberg and Kay B. Magley of Salt Lake City.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Shurts wore a dress of pale blue with white accessories and a corsage of rosebuds. Mrs. Houser, the former Shirley Knight of Roseburg, and mother of the bridegroom, wore a beige dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

A wedding reception followed in St. Aloysius Hall, Miss Pat Hart

ON SATURDAY, July 7, at 7 p. m. Phyllis Jean Porter and Carol William Bay, above, both of Sutherlin, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Porter. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Evelyn Bay of Sutherlin. The Rev. Lloyd Whitford of the Neighborhood Church of Christ of Sutherlin performed the ceremony.

Floor baskets of pink carnations and mixed bouquets about spacious rooms were used in decoration. The piano was played by Mrs. Jean Treman, who played the traditional music, "O Promise Me" and "Because," and accompanied the Rev. Whitford, who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a dress and coat ensemble with white accessories and carried a bouquet of white carnations with lily of the valley and butterflies and white streamers.

Bridesmaid was Janis Epps, a schoolmate. She wore a matching ensemble of beige and carried a bouquet.

Elmer Hethecock, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man and candlelighter were Linda Epps and Eileen Kenwisher.

BRIDE-ELECT—Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wells, Sutherlin, announce the engagement of their daughter, Pauline, to Otho Churchman, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Churchman, also of Sutherlin. The bride-elect will be a senior at Sutherlin High this fall and the bridegroom-elect was graduated from Sutherlin High School and attended OTI and is now serving his fourth year in the United States Air Force. No date has been set for the wedding. (Picture by Wilson Studio).

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Greenquist, Roseburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kay, to Myron Bevans, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bevans, Roseburg. Miss Greenquist was graduated from Roseburg High School and is presently employed at the Commercial Abstract Co. Mr. Bevans was graduated from Oregon State College and will enter University of Oregon Dental School in the fall. No date has been set for the wedding. (Picture by Jay Golden of Photo Lab).

I HAD A TALK WITH SANTA

By Jack West

What? you exclaim, you mean you had a talk with Santa in July? Yes, that's right. I know that this is the month of July and no one ordinarily is thinking about Santa. But I had a new idea.

I said to myself, "Why not get on the long distance phone and talk to that fabulous Christmas fellow about gifts that people ought to give one another during the year—and not just at Christmas time? You know what Santa Claus told me? He said 'I cannot understand why most folks down there think that gift giving is strictly and only a December 25th affair. Why, every month in the year you could remember someone with a nice present—and how happy you would make that person!'

I consider this an excellent idea. So I'm passing it along to you. We have one of the largest and most beautiful stocks of jewelry to be found anywhere. Jewelry for womenfolk. Jewelry for menfolk. Jewelry for youngsters. Jewelry for Grandma and Grandpa.

For as little as $3.50 you can choose a gift of jewelry that will be a token of your love. Or you can spend much more if you wish. Whatever you buy here will be smart, modern and of finest craftsmanship. Easy terms, too. Come in today.
