THE WEDDING of Miss Judith Elaine Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Stevens of Oakland, and Gilbert William Harvey, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Harvey, Wilbur, took place Saturday afternoon, July 14, at the Sutherlin Methodist Church sanctuary. The Rev. Robert Peters performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends. (Koop's Modern Photography).

The altar was beautifully decorated with large baskets of mixed gladioli and tall white candelabra. Mrs. Jean Treman provided the traditional wedding music on the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a ballerina-length gown of white lace over tulle, with a scalloped hemline. She carried a white orchid upon a white ribbon. Her fingertip length veil was set off with a cap of nylon, trimmed with seed pearls.

The maid of honor, Miss Shirley Thomas of Portland, was dressed in white eyelet over a pink background. She carried a bouquet of white carnations. Patricia Stevens, sister of the bride, and Shirley Harvey, sister of the bridegroom, were candlelighters and wore gowns of pale green. Ryland Brosz of Ideyld Park was best man and Douglas Hart and Charles Thomas were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stevens wore a navy blue dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a tan and white bolero dress, also with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception followed in the church social hall. The lace covered serving table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Low vases of pink roses and a crystal punch bowl also graced the table.

Mrs. Roy Harvey and Mrs. Joe Feser were in charge of serving at the reception. Miss Glenna Leonard had charge of the guest book, and Miss Polly Bonner, the gifts.

For traveling the bride chose a charcoal grey box suit, with white accessories. After a wedding trip to Portland Mr. and Mrs. Harvey are at home on Calkins Road in Roseburg. The bride was graduated last spring from Oakland High School as salutatorian. The bridegroom is a graduate of Roseburg High School and is employed by Martin Bros. Box Co. at Oakland.

Coming from Portland to attend the wedding were Mrs. Roma Thomas, Miss Shirley Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Feser and Charles Thomas.

Church For Deaf Scene Of Impressive Wedding

Hope Lutheran Church for the Deaf, Portland, was the scene of a lovely and impressive wedding Saturday, July 14, when Miss Carla Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Brown, and Edgar Lyle Blakely, son of Mrs. Bess Blakely of Glendale, exchanged wedding vows by sign language. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ring, pastor of the church, who spoke as he signed the words of the service. One hundred guests were in attendance.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Thompson, soloist from the Fellowship of the Deaf Christian Church of Portland, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me." She used her hands very gracefully in signing the words as she sang.

The bride wore the traditional white wedding dress and carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli. Mrs. Harold Blakely, in blue net and carrying pink gladioli, was matron of honor. Miss Carol Binder in pink and Miss Nomi Ross in blue were bridesmaids. Each carried a bouquet of pink gladioli. Muriel Brown, small sister of the bride, was a dainty flower girl in a floor-length frock of lavender.

Harold Blakely acted as best man for his brother, Larry Appleby of Roseburg and William Walker of Portland and formerly of Roseburg, were ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held in the church parlors. The bride and bridegroom cut the traditional three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with miniature bride and bridegroom.

Going from Glendale to Portland to attend the wedding were Mrs. Bess Blakely and son, Dale; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Blakely and children, Marilyn and Robbie; and Mrs. Agnes Moore. From Roseburg were Mrs. Marion Yount and daughter, Farrah, and Larry Appleby.

The bride is employed as a typist in the office of Meier and Frank department store. The bridegroom is employed at the B. F. John Co.'s furniture factory. Both were graduated from the State School for the Deaf in Salem.
