

4-H STYLE REVUE—One of the most attractive contests put on annually by 4-H clubs at the Douglas County Fair each year. The revue this year will be at 2:30 p.m. Saturday, right after Gov. Elmo Smith speaks in the pavilion. New bleachers have been erected in the pavilion for convenience of audiences. Style judging precedes the revue Saturday morning.

RULING ON BRIDGE
SALEM — Atty. Gen. Robert Thorton ruled Friday that the Highway Commission can construct interstate bridges, and can make agreements with the federal government or other states to build bridges.

Northwest Turkey Show Combined With County Fair

The Northwest Turkey Show has been combined with the Douglas County Fair again this year, according to Fair Manager Dick Turley.

Glen Wellman has been appointed as show manager. He also is poultry department supervisor. Running the combined shows is a relatively easy task for Wellman, who spent over a quarter of a century as a poultry specialist for a local flour mill.

All poultry classes will be staged in the same area as in previous years — next to the livestock judging area.

The judge this year will be Kenneth Priest, Curry County agent.

Market eggs will compete again this year, one class of white eggs and one class of brown eggs. Since eggs are the chief poultry

FOR WANT OF A NAIL—
YAKIMA, Wash. — A thug stuck up DeLorme's Tavern here. As he was concentrating on the bartender, one of the patrons—how happily anonymous—Ducked down behind the bar and payed his way toward a pay telephone. Unnoticed by the thug, the patrol fished in his pocket for a coin to phone police. He only had a nickel. Pay phones require a dime. The holdup man got $200.

product in Douglas County, competition in these two classes should be keen.
