

Indians On Road To Play Tornado

Roseburg's fleet-footed football brigade will take its first road trip of the year tonight when it travels to the south for its annual battle against one of the strongest Medford Black Tornado outfits in several years. Game time is 8 p.m.

Indian Coach Bob George will have his tribe up to full strength with the exceptions of end Dave Bradley and halfback Marvin Fray, both starting regulars. Bradley is out with a leg injury and Fray has been sidelined with a kidney injury.

Medford, with two impressive wins under its belt, will be out to make it three straight and if the Roseburg team hopes to come home with a victory, they will have to halt a veteran - loaded Tornado backfield.

Roseburg has split its two games to date. It lost the season's opener against Hillsboro, 12-7, and a game fighting back the next week and scalped the Ashland Grizzlies, 42-0. Jimmy Brown and Bill Oerding, who were both members of the Junior Legion team, missed the initial contest and the added strength in the backfield was quite noticeable.

With the injury to Fray, Bill Oerding probably will move into the vacant spot and will be running with teammates Eddie LaRouque at quarter, Leo Stone at the other halfback spot and Brown, the fast-stepping transfer from Kelso, in the tailback slot. Gary Welch, who made a 15-yard carry against the Grizzlies, will no doubt see plenty of action also.

The balance of the lineup will probably be the same as what took the field last week. It would find Fred Skeels and Russ Pinard at ends, Don Horton and Mike Vasey at guards, Jim Hicks and Stan Bork at tackles and Charles Ridenour at center. Frank Benson will do the kicking.

Flagman Reece Found Place On Sidelines After Crash

Dick Reece, 27, of Route 1 Box 1176, is the competent flagman at the Roseburg Speedway and is a familiar figure on the flag stand at the center of the grandstand.

Reece and his wife, Francine, were married March 18, 1950, in Roseburg. They have two daughters, Debra, 5 and Diana 3.

Having been a driver for three years himself, Reece is familiar with all the rules and regulations for cars on the track and is well qualified to handle the job.

DICK REECE... hardtop flagman

He is one of a group of five or six men who first got interested in racing in order to start the Pacific Racing Assn. in Roseburg and is one of the charter members of the organization.

The flagman was the first elected secretary after the organization was active. He first became interested in driving in '51 when a few races were held at the fairgrounds.

He drove nearly three years, until near the end of the last year's season, when he rolled his car six or seven times and was sent to the hospital for the night with many bruises. Mrs. Reece then took a "no driving" stand and Reece decided he'd better settle for a different type of job with the association, so he took the position of flagman when asked to do so.

While he was driving, he won several heats and a few B mains. He didn't win an A main, but was able to place in many. He holds two A trophies from this track and one trophy from the Eugene track.

In 1953, he held the track record here until the last day of the season. He held it with a time of 18.01 seconds.

He drove a '37 Chevrolet with a 270 hp motor.

He is employed by the Umpqua Plywood Co. as pond sawyer.

Included will be at least 100 laps of racing. Speedway officials said. Invitations have been sent to drivers throughout Southern Oregon and Northern California.

Braves Choke Again, Lose To Pittsburgh By One Run

Brooklyn 88 57 .507 —

New York 62 85 .422 27
Pittsburgh 57 89 .390 31 1/4

hold any real hope for the National League pennant. And after losing 2-1 to Pittsburgh in 10 innings yesterday, even winning all their seven remaining games won't guarantee a title for the Braves—who have been able to win as many as three in a row only once in the last two weeks.

Even by winning all seven, Milwaukee can't gain as much as a tie for the pennant unless Brooklyn's world champion Dodgers lose two of their remaining nine.

The Braves, beginning to hear the jingle of another world series payoff, have won nine of their last 11 and took a full-game lead while idle yesterday.

The Braves had to battle from behind yesterday against Bob Friend, who gave just four hits but almost missed his 16th victory when two errors on one play by first baseman Dale Long gave Milwaukee the tying run in the ninth. Then Roberto Clemente tagged reliever Ray Crone for a two-out single. Billy Bruton just couldn't get to center field and Bill Mazeroski scrambled home with the winner.

The only hits off Friend, winning his first since Aug. 26 and defeating the Braves a third time this season, were fifth and 10th inning singles by Johnny Logan, Hank Aaron's single and Bobby Thomson's double, both in the seventh. Logan's first single came with two out in the fifth—after Friend had retired the first 14 men in order.

Buhl was in on this one, too, giving three hits—one Jack Sheppard's seventh home run in the seventh inning—before being lifted for a pinch-hitter in the 9th.

Going into a four-game series at Pittsburgh tonight, the Dodgers now are 3-1 favorites to win the pennant. It's 8-1 the race won't end in a tie.

Cutthroat Run Seen In Umpqua

A few sea-run cutthroat are being taken now in the Umpqua River, the Oregon Game Commission says in its weekly bulletin to anglers.

Salmon angling at Winchester Bay has been good, while Coos Bay angling is fair.

The only hits off Friend, winning his first since Aug. 26 and defeating the Braves a third time this season, were fifth and 10th inning singles by Johnny Logan, Hank Aaron's single and Bobby Thomson's double, both in the seventh. # Anderson-Hayman Duo Captures Pin Feature

Sylvia Anderson captured high scoring laurels for the lady bowlers during Thursday night mixed doubles when she dumped the maples for a 188 solo and series of 499. She combined scoring totals with Jack Hayman and the duo won first place money for the night with a 1,171 count.

Hayman aided the winning cause by taking high scoring honors for the men with a single game effort of 221 and series of 585.

Florence Slack and Joe Quant fashioned 1,071 to take runnerup position, Beverly and Al Fish won third with 1,060 and Vi and Verdun Boucek came home fourth on a 1,049 total.

Al Fish rolled the only other 200 game for the night with a 204 single in his second outing.

Vikings, Drain In Night Tilts

The Drain Warriors host Creswell at 8 p.m. in a feature Emerald League encounter and Myrtle Creek's Vikings travel to play its annual tussle against Myrtle Point, also at 8 tonight.

Coach Frank Doyel and his Warriors will be looking for their second consecutive league win. Drain opened loop play last Friday with a narrow 9-7 victory over Junction City there. Creswell comes to town with a 0-2 record which included 33-20 loss at the hands of Willanette High of Eugene in its league opener last week.

Myrtle Creek, still suffering from injuries collected last Friday at Glendale, will be the underdogs in the battle at Myrtle Point. Two of the Vikings' backfield axes will probably miss the game completely due to battle scars inflicted against the Pirates.

The Bobcats started the year with 14 veterans on hand and lost but little from a year ago when it handed Myrtle Creek a 19-6 defeat. The coastal eleven has a 2-0 record for the year which included a 14-0 romp over tough Siuslaw High of Florence.

Coach Earl Miller's lads dropped the season's opener, 12-0, to Band-on and bounced back with a 26-14 victory over Glendale. John Bardwell and Ed Cearley were both injured in last week's fracas. Cearley is still on the shelf, but Bardwell is okay and will be ready to roll at the opening kickoff.

Northwest Conference, OCC Teams Slate Tests

PORTLAND, (AP) — Pacific University gets the Northwest Conference into 1956 football action Friday night, meeting the Cal Aggies in an inter-sectional contest at Davis, Calif.

Other members of the conference swing into pre-campaign action Saturday with Lewis and Clark at Western Washington, Whitman at Central Washington, Willamette at Whitworth. College of Idaho entertains Eastern Oregon at Caldwell.

Portland State of the Oregon Collegiate Conference plays Linfield Saturday night.

Three other OCC teams also will be in action Saturday. Southern Oregon will play Humboldt State at Medford. Oregon Tech plays Yakima J. C. at Klamath Falls. Oregon Collegiate of Education will meet Lower Columbia J. C. at Longview.

Marshfield, defending state champion, will try to make it 26 games without a defeat when it meets Grants Pass in the feature game of Oregon high school football action Friday night.

Marshfield, favored to retain its Class A-1 district 5 title, was a lopsided winner in its first two games without a defeat when it meets Grants Pass in the feature game of Oregon high school football action Friday night.

Unbeaten Pendleton, district 7 finalist, is host to Pasco, Wash., as is The Dalles to Washougal, Wash. La Grande travels to Caldwell, Idaho, and Baker plays Union. Hermiston meets Richland, Wash., and Milton-Freewater travels to Kennewick, Wash.

The Portland high school league, which sends two teams to the state playoffs, will hold its annual jamboree at Multnomah Stadium. The eight teams draw for opponents and the contestants play one quarter, with the four games to be completed Saturday night.

There is no district 6 counting action. Medford, a pre-season favorite to retain its title and winner of its first two games, takes on Roseburg of district 5. Klamath Falls goes to Reno, Nev., for an annual game. Ashland meets Phoenix, an A-2 school. Central Point plays Redmond of district 8.

In district 3 defending champion David Douglas of Portland and Beaverton will play Central Catholic of Portland. Astoria will be at Milwaukie and Hillsboro at Parkrose.

Vale, state class A-2 champion in 1954 and 1955, will try for its 24th consecutive victory when it travels to Ontario for a traditional game.

A-2 games include Dallas vs. Silverton, Creswell at Drain, Pleasant Hill at Oakridge, Junction City at Elmira, Glendale at Sutherlin, John Day at Madras, Meridian, Idaho, at Burns, and Weiser, Idaho, at Lakeview.

A jamboree is scheduled at Stayton among Capital Conference schools.

The Saturday night grappling bouts will be missing from the local arena for at least two weeks, according to word from Elton Owen, promoter. If and when he opens his weekly shows, he will feature such proven veterans as Black Hawk, Wild Red Bastien, Andre Drapp, Gentleman Ed Francis and Bull Montana.

The NCAA football "game of the week" Saturday will be between Georgia Tech and Kentucky. It will be carried over KOIN-TV, Channel 6, starting at 12 p.m. The big league baseball "game of the week" will be between the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox on KOIN-TV at 9:45 a.m. The game will be played at Boston. The Sunday pro football game will feature the Detroit Lions vs. the Oakland Raiders starting at 10 a.m. It too will be carried over KOIN-TV.

Some find that "beginners luck" can prove mighty costly. Such was the case of Bob Colley, Roseburg school teacher and local sports enthusiast. A couple of weeks back Bob took his initial salmon venture and had the misfortune of landing a nice silverside that weighed around 14 pounds. Since then, it has cost him around $75. This includes fishing gear only. . . . I wonder if he knows hunting season is just around the corner? . . .

LAST WEEK I collected 4-6 winners in my initial pigskin predictions for the year. I missed on the Myrtle Creek-Glendale tussle and Viking coach Earl Miller has been grinning from ear-to-ear ever since. My shoulders are broader, here they are: Glide over Sutherlin by at least one touchdown. This game has caused a great deal of controversy in the local News-Review newsroom and I still pick the Wildcats. Skip Stillwell will be off and running, but I think Dick Smith and Wayne Kennady will be there to greet him.

The Oakland-Riddle game looms as a toss-up. Both teams have one game under its belt. I pick the Oakers by two TDs, after all, an A-2 school should beat a class B aggregation. Yoncalla should have no trouble setting Canyonville down by two TDs and chalk up its second straight Douglas B League victory along the way.

Myrtle Creek over Myrtle Point. I can always retreat and say that I got mixed up having too many Myrtles around. The Vikings are the underdogs but, I look for an upset. The Bobcats are loaded with veteran players and lost very little from the same team which racked Myrtle Creek, 19-6, last year.

ONLY A DOPE (that's me) would pick Glendale over Douglas when he knows that both of the Pirates hard-running backs are out with injuries. Douglas looked terrible last week against Glendale and no doubt coaches Bob Williams and Puss Hawk have worked the lads mighty hard whipping them into top shape. It will be a close one.

The Roseburg-Medford battle looks like a case of too much water on this fracas. I got the Inland tribe along with 18 points and I think I got a good bet. Medford has one of its biggest teams in years and will average close to 180 per man. George's speed-merchants could stage an upset.

Oregon should beat Colorado by two TDs, even at Boulder. The Oregon State-Missouri game looks pretty even. If Roseburger Nub Beamer sees much action, I'll stand by the Beavers.

Southern Oregon College of Education will initiate the grid season Saturday night at Medford when it hosts the Humboldt State aggregation. Kickoff time is set for 8 p.m. . . .

VERN MARSHALL, who played baseball with the Drain Black Sox of the Southern Oregon League, is tabbed for a Saturday starting berth in the Linfield College backfield. The Wildcats are managed by Drain baseball manager Roy Helsler. . . .

On the subject of baseball: Ray Stratton, athletic director at Drain High School, who also held down the hot corner for Drain's semi-pro baseball team, told us that at the beginning of the past season, 27 left-handed hitters were on the five rosters of the league. This included five of the Black Sox staff. . . .

Vic Backland, football star while attending Bandon High School a couple years back, has again been named on the Willamette University starting team for Saturday's opener. The 210-pound junior is slated for left end duty. . . . Backland was picked on last year's all-conference first team. . . .

Today marks the first anniversary of Red Hat Day. We sincerely hope that all sports-minded citizens and hunters have signed the pledge and live up to it. . . .

Chinook Salmon Continue Umpqua River Migration

Chinook salmon continued to pass over the counting board at Winchester Dam in the Umpqua River during the first two weeks of September, according to the twice-monthly report from the Southwest Regional Office of the Oregon State Game Commission.

Although the season is nearing an end, 13 adult fish were counted during the first two weeks of the month, bringing the total adult movement for the season to 7,791. During the same period silver salmon, a fall migrating species, made their appearance, with six adults counted.

The summer steelhead run continued below normal, but the count on salmon trout was the best ever tallied by mid-September.
