Newcombe Voted MVP In National League

NEW YORK (AP) — Pitcher Don Newcombe, whose 27 victories made him the biggest Brooklyn winner in 32 years, was voted today the Most Valuable Player in the National League for 1956 by the Baseball Writers Assn.

The big right-hander edged out his mound mate Sal Maglie by a scant 40 points. Seven players received first-place nominations by 24 voting writers. Five accumulated more than 100 points.

Not since Hank Sauer nosed out Robin Roberts and Joe Black in a three-way battle for the 1952 award has there been such a close race.

The 30-year-old Newcombe, who lost only seven games all season and but two of his last 20 decisions, topped the list with 223 points. His subpar World Series performance — he was knocked out of the box both starts — did not figure in the balloting.

Maglie, who won 13 games including a no-hitter while losing only five after joining the Dodgers in mid-May, was second with 183 points. Then came Milwaukee's Hank Aaron, 146, and Warren Spahn, 126. Junior Gilliam, another Dodger, rounded out the first five with 103 points.

In all, 32 players received recognition, 11 of them pitchers. Eight Dodgers were named, but Roy Campanella, who got his third MVP award last year, wasn't among them.

Only one rookie was honored in the voting. He is Frank Robinson the Redlegs' slugging left fielder, who placed seventh with 79 points. Pee Wee Reese of the Dodgers was eighth; Stan Musial, the St. Louis Cardinals' all-time great, was ninth; and Duke Snider, also Brooklyn, was tenth.

Roy McMillan, Cincinnati shortstop, was sixth with 98 points. Newcombe, who weighs 220 pounds 6-4, enjoyed by far his greatest season. In registering his third 20-game season, he racked up the most victories by a Dodger pitcher since Dazy Vance won 28 in 1924. He started 36 games and completed 18. He turned in five shutouts and finished fifth in earned runs with a 3.09 mark. His only two defeats after June 17 were a 1-0 loss to Johnny Antonelli and the Giants and a setback to Robin Roberts and the Phillies when Sandy Amoros dropped a fly ball.

Loren McClure Tops Shooters

Loren McClure and Jerry Cumpston staged a two-man battle during class A junior rifle competition for top scoring laurels Tuesday night at the Roseburg Rod & Gun Club range at Winchester.

McClure finally ended the match one point over his capable opponent tallying 280 to 279. Dennis Gilkenson took third with 272 followed by Bob Flury at 262, Lewis McAllister 262, Jeremy Halladay 257, Larry McAllister 254, Gary Eaton 254, Ron Young 250 and Bob Blizard 245.

The shooting was from prone, off-hand and sitting positions. Highest score possible was 300.

Class B scoring honors went to Charlotte Gray, who chalked up a 182 total, closely followed by Norman Ladd and Gary Lindberg at 181 each. Next in line was Joe Bailey with 176, Mike Cavin 170, David Parks 170, Lonny Dudley 169, Arlan Foote 168, Galen Carter 168 and Darrell McAllister 167.

The latter class was from prone and sitting position with a top possible total of 200.

According to the club spokesman, all junior members are urged to be present at the election of officers' meeting scheduled for next Tuesday at 7 p.m.

Second Crown In 41 Years OSC's Stake In Traditional

Waldorf Gives Notice To Quit As Cal Coach

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Lynn O. (Pappy) Waldorf, dean of Pacific Coast Conference football coaches, announced his resignation to his California squad Tuesday night, emphasizing "it was my own idea."

The 54-year-old Waldorf, head man at California since 1947, said there was "no pressure on me to quit and this was merely the step I've contemplated for quite a while."

He announced the resignation before Cal's big game against Stanford Saturday "to avoid speculation about my future and to prevent pressure on the university."

Waldorf, whose three-year contract expires July 1, has been under fire by alumni groups two years. His salary has been estimated at $15,000 a year.

Pappy, one of the best known figures in football during 29 years of coaching at five colleges, told The Associated Press:

"I have seven months to make up my mind what I want to do. Maybe I'll stay in coaching, maybe I'll do something else. I just don't know."

Waldorf said he had not discussed the resignation with anyone connected with the Associated Students of the University of California, which operates Cal's athletic program.

Has 66 Wins
Waldorf piloted the Golden Bears to 65 victories, 32 defeats and 4 ties in 10 years. He took California to the Rose Bowl in 1949, 1950 and 1951, losing all three times.

This year, the Bears have lost seven games while winning two. Before coming to California, Waldorf was head coach at Northwestern University from 1935-46 where he developed pro great Ott Graham. He previously coached at Oklahoma City University 1926-27, Oklahoma A&M 1929-33 and Kansas State 1934.

His overall record is 169 victories, 94 defeats and 16 ties.

Grey Enchehard, Calathletic director, said nothing will be done about a successor until after the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. meeting in January. He added Cal has no successor in mind.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — On the first day of Ohio's small game season, a deer "ran over" an unidentified, elderly hunter in a public hunting area north of Delaware, causing the man some injuries.

Iowa Tackle Selected As Lineman Of Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Big Alex Karras, Iowa tackle was named Associated Press Lineman of the Week Wednesday for his superb play against Ohio State in the Rose Bowl.

The performance of the Gary, Ind., youth in Iowa's 6-0 triumph over the Buckeyes was "outstanding" according to his coach, Forest Evashevski. Alex was shifted to play head on with the OSU center.

Brodie Still Top Gainer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The passing of Stanford's John Brodie, UCLA tailback Kirk Wilson's punting and the running brilliance of Jon Arnett of the University of Southern California Wednesday continued to dominate the Pacific Coast Conference individual statistics.

Brodie, the nation's leading passer, has clicked on 130 passes out of 221 for 11 touchdowns and a .589 average. The lanky quarterback back is only seven completions from the 1952 conference record of Washington's Don Heinrich.

Brodie also leads the conference in total yardage with 1,546. Wilson, the husky sophomore who carries most of the offensive load for the Bruins, leads the conference with a 48.8 yard average for 24 punts.

Although he hasn't played the last three Trojan games, Arnett is still top man in rushing with 625 yards. His teammate, C. R. Roberts, is second with 593.

Arnett, a "five game" senior, ended his collegiate career against Stanford.

Stanford's Lou Vail leads the conference in scoring with nine touchdowns, 14 conversions and one field goal.

The conference's top pass catcher is Bill Steiger of Washington State with 32 for 510 yards and three touchdowns.

WEATHER LOOKS GOOD
CORVALLIS (AP) — The sky will be clear and the temperature close to 50 degrees Thursday for the annual Oregon-Oregon State College football game here.

This forecast from the Weather Bureau promised a better-than-usual setting for the game in which the University of Oregon, itself an also-ran in the Pacific Coast Conference, will try to take some of the Rose Bowl luster from Oregon State's Beavers.

Both teams went into secret practice Tuesday, the Beavers here and the Ducks at Eugene. Coaches presumably were trying out new thoughts in tactics.

Duck Victory Would Give Title To Ukes

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Oregon State, all set for a New Year's day date in the Rose Bowl with Iowa, has another holiday matter confronting it tomorrow in one of several traditional Thanksgiving Day college football games.

The Beavers, lacking only the formality of a vote to assure their presence at Pasadena Jan. 1, need a victory over archrival Oregon to clinch their school's second Pacific Coast conference championship in the 41-year history of the league.

Oregon State (6-1) is challenged for the PCC leadership by UCLA (5-1), a Rose Bowl ineligible. Should the Beavers falter, UCLA would be able to lift the championship for the fourth straight year by defeating Southern California Saturday.

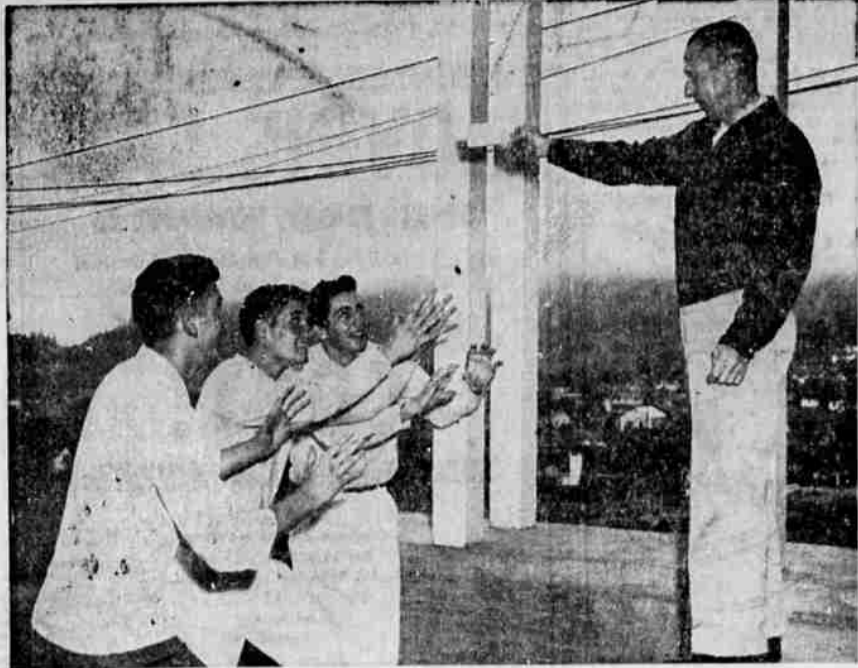

A further scrambling — or unscrambling — of the Atlantic Coast Conference's position concerning its Orange Bowl representative could come about in South Carolina's game with Wake Forest. There's been renewed interest in the Gamecocks (4-2) and in four-times-beaten Duke (3-1) in ACC competition since Clemson was mauled by Miami 21-0 last week. Since the conference is not bound to send its champion to the bowl, merely its "most representative team," a good performance by South Carolina could keep the pot boiling. Clemson still leads with a 3-0-1 league record.

Other pairings for the Thanksgiving football menu are Virginia Tech vs. Virginia Military, Penn vs. winless Cornell, Colgate at Brown in a morning game, Miami (Ohio) at Cincinnati, Maryland at North Carolina State, William & Mary at Richmond, Washington & Lee at Washington (Mo.), Colorado A&M at Denver and Idaho at Montana.

For the National Football League enthusiast, there's the annual pro game at Detroit between the Lions and Green Bay Packers.

Three Ladies Lead Tuesday Night Bowl

Feminine bowlers Anita Nichols, Joan Cornutt and Dell Mix shared kingly honors Tuesday night at the local pin plant.

Anita topped the maples for a sizzling 598 total with lines of 299, 176 and 213. It is the new ladies' high for the year. Dell found the range for the one big game and dumped 239 sticks and carved out a nice 550 count.

Joan rolled lines of 184, 170 and finished off the night's action with 215 to notch a scorching 969 total.

Sylvia Anderson collected 194 and 520, Ina Hooven bowled 191 and 520 and Martha Pookington counted 205 to round out high shooters for the session.

Sun Studs Inc. increased its league margin to five full games with a complete sweep against the Pastime. Other loop play ended in 3-1 verdicts. Clarks Studio dumped Roy O. Young Insurance, Women of the Moose took Bee Hive Trucks and Hanley & Post downed General Service Center.

All Junior Classic action ended in 2-1 scores. Jensen - Kees Construction won over Eagles Lodge, Winston - Dillard Fire Dept. took Patterson Bakery and Montgomery Wards measured Moose Lodge.

Frenchy Lamoureux captured the high scoring laurels for the league on a 470 count.

Official's Slants

By JAKE LEITCH

A play situation where the official got pretty well boomed for his action, came on a run down the sideline. The ball carrier touched his knee to the ground and then fumbled with the defensive team recovering. The official gave the ball to the offensive team as the whistle had killed the ball before the fumble took place. The whistle blew immediately as soon as his knee had touched the ground, ending the run.

An unusual play (defensive clipping) took place in the Eagle Point-Pleasant Hill game played Saturday. The Hillbillies punted and on the return by Eagle Point, the right end of Pleasant Hill clipped the Eagle halfback from behind on the 10-yard line. The ball was returned to this point and the penalty took place from the spot of infraction, which moved the ball to the 1-yard line (the minimum under the circumstance). Eagle Point scored on the next play.

A college game viewed by many local fans on TV had several of them scratching their heads. The play came about when the ball was kicked into the end zone and the man in attempting to run it out, which college rules allow was met on the three-yard line and driven back into the end zone. A fumble took place and the ball bounded out of the end zone. The official ruled it a safety, which was in error. The ball should have been given to the receiving team on the three-yard line where the forward progress was halted.

During the Yoncalla-Montana game Friday afternoon, the Drag-on wingback was called for being in motion prior to the snap of the ball. The play in question went for a TD, but was called back because of the penalty.

The rule book clearly states that a man may be in motion backward, providing he comes to a full second stop prior to the snap of the ball. The play in question failed to come to the second stop as he rocked forward before starting his backward motion.

In the Medford - Gresham game, the receiving team called for a fair-catch, but failed to clarify the signal, and was tackled quite hard. Again, the rules state that any man signaling for a fair-catch must raise his hand high above his head and wave it back and forth so that it may be clearly seen by the kicking team. The receiver was at fault in this situation and the fair-catch ruling was void.

During the six-man game played on Finlay Field Saturday between Camas Valley and Aلسa, there was one pass play where the ball bounced on the ground and the offensive team picked it up and ran for a sizeable gain.

In six-man ball, any pass that fails to pass the line of scrimmage, is considered a fumble or loose ball and either team may recover. Such was the case Saturday.

Francis was lucky in his defense of his coveted title in last week's knock-down-drag-out against powerful Roy Heffernan. Montana is itching to get a title shot and will be going all out come Saturday night.

Francis assured the rugged Montana of a belt bout should he win a decisive victory. On the other hand, Heffernan wants another crack at the crown and will attempt to get another win streak going at the expense of Maurice LaChapelle.

Heffernan and LaChapelle are scheduled to slug it out during the semifinal card. Heffernan is a big favorite with Roseburg people and most of them would like to see him get another chance at the belt held by Francis.

LaChapelle has wrestled here on numerous occasions. He is rough, tough and tilts towards the ornery side should the need be.

Plenty of fireworks should be in the offing when these four mat warriors enter the ring. All are veterans with plenty of ring savvy. Bouts will get under way at 8:30 p.m.

Bull, Francis Face Question Saturday Eve

BULL MONTANA

Prince Charming returns

A feature attraction is in store for local wrestling enthusiasts Saturday night at the Douglas County grappling arena.

Who is the toughest between Bull Montana and Gentleman Ed Francis?

That's the question that will be answered this coming weekend when two of the toughest and meanest grapplers of the northwest step into the ring to do battle during main event action.

The two have met in battle once previous, but not as individuals. They both took part in a Russian battle royal and both are anxious to battle it out to the finish.

Paul Lowe Exonerated On 'Bike' Theft Count

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — Paul Lowe, Oregon State College football player indicted by a grand jury on a charge of taking a bicycle, was exonerated by Circuit Judge Fred McHenry Tuesday.

The judge sustained a demurrer to the charge filed by Lowe's attorney, Karl Huston, and dismissed the indictment. The demurrer objected to prosecution of the felony charge under the state motor vehicle code.

Huston contended a bicycle was not intended for inclusion in that part of the state code relating to theft.

Lowe and a fellow student, Bert Washington, were accused of taking the bicycle of a Corvallis high school youth last June 29, without his permission but without attempt to steal. They were indicted Oct. 11.

Judge McHenry also ordered the charge against Washington dismissed.

The "do-it-yourself" TV repair books have lost their popularity among home tinkers. It is understandable that some folks like to tinker with anything that fascinates, and the inside of a television set is fascinating. But when you realize the intricacy of hundreds of electronic parts and devices, you know that it is not like mending a broken chair or fixing a leaky faucet. Proper instruments and meters are necessary to service a TV set besides the learned training.

In one way, we at CROWN RADIO & TELEVISION SERVICE hate to see the "do-it-yourself" books go. Some of the resulting jobs we received were real challenges. One, for example, turned the lights off in the house when the volume was turned up to a certain capacity. It just burned out the house fuses.

If the inside of your TV set fascinates you, phone OR 3-3501 and you can watch us service it in your living room. We'll show you some points that will give you a real kick.
