

Baptismal Service Scheduled Friday

The meetings at the "Voice of Youth" auditorium, Military and Umpqua streets, continue, well-attended as Elder Don Gray presents a different Bible topic each Sunday, Tuesday, and Friday evening. Last Sunday evening a prize was given to the one having the largest number of relatives present at the meeting. This prize was presented to Grandma Lang who had 28 relatives present. Her prize was a book.

Friday evening the service will begin at 7:30. The topic for the evening will be, "The Sin That God Cannot Forget," according to Elder Walter Riston, pastor of the local Seventh-day Adventist congregation. The service will be preceded by baptismal service.

According to Elder Gray, his subject will be "The Jewish Riddle Solved."

Elizabeth Martin Rites Set Friday
