

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

—The News-Review, Roseburg Ore. 5

A LARGE AND CHARMING affair of the week took place at the Melrose Grange Hall Sunday, when members of the Melrose Home Economics Club entertained at an open-house in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Woodruff, pictured at the top left, on their golden wedding anniversary, and to honor Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Busenbark, center left picture, on their 53rd wedding anniversary.

MAID OF HONOR AND BEST MAN at the Woodruff wedding 50 years ago were Mrs. C. J. Lundeen and V. T. Jackson. Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lundeen and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson are pictured at the lower left. The wedding took place in Edenburg, Dec. 4, 1906.

HOSTESSES for the affair are pictured at the top right. Left to right are Mrs. Otto Matthews, Mrs. Max Myers, Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Mrs. L. E. Goodbourn (sister of Mr. Busenbark and who was asked to give), and Mrs. Fred A. Goff.

All pictures on this page by "Chris" of Photo Lab

THE BUSENBARK FAMILY (center right) includes their two daughters, Mrs. James (Joyce) Busenbark and her family and Mrs. Alexis (Ferne) Busenbark, and her daughter, Shannon, and son, Tim. Seated are Mrs. James Doyle, Mrs. Alexis Wheeler and daughter, Fay, of Eugene, and the Doyle's younger daughter, Denise.