

Contest Successful Affair

MRS. CAL STORRS, president top left, presents the check as first prize for the Table Setting Contest sponsored by the Associated Volunteers to Miss Betty Stanek, president of Gamma Iota Chapter, Epsilon Eigma Alpha, and the past president, Mrs. Jack Phillips. The table was a symphony in charcoal and pink.

MRS. WALTER ULRICH (center left), chairman; Mrs. L. L. Spencer, chairman of radio and TV publicity, and Mrs. Story Iles, publicity chairman, worked diligently for weeks to make the affair a success. Organizations participating were DAR, Roseburg Woman's Club, Tau Eta Eta, Beta Sigma Phi, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Beta Iota, Gamma Iota, Camara Club, Douglas Community Hospital, B.P.W.C., Douglas Baracks Auxiliary 176, Roseburg Junior Woman's Club, Jay-C-Ettes, Zonta Club, Job's Daughters, Women of the Moose and American Legion Auxiliary.

WINNER of second prize was the Camera Club. Mrs. Ulrich (lower left), is shown presenting the check to Mrs. Chester Johnson and Mrs. Norris Jewell. At the top right are the sponsors from left to right: Mrs. H. T. Carstens, Mrs. Roland West, William Carstens and Roland West. The event took place at Carstens Furniture. Silver and dishes were from Roseburg Jewelers. Linens were from Miller's Department store. Center right Mrs. Gene Williams and Mrs. Robert Haughburn, judges, and at right, Mrs. John Gillespie, a guest from Eugene. Judges not present for the picture were Mrs. Vernon A. Meyer and Mrs. D. W. Puryear, all of Eugene. Proceeds of the affair go to sponsor the weekly parties at the VA Hospital under sponsorship of the Associated Volunteers.

Pictures by Gene Powell
of Master Studio

DON'T TELL SIS!

"I just heard Mommy phone Daddy that she'd sold all the things they advertised in the Classified, so it was OK for him to buy those toys we asked Santa to bring!"

Sell Don't-Needs With Classified Ads