

Umpqua School Assn. To Buy Stage Curtains

By MRS. GEORGE MUNSON house last Friday. The Umpqua School Assn. held its December meeting at the school conducted by the president, Jim

Brown. The curtains for the new stage in the auditorium are to be bought this week, it was announced. Plans were made and committees appointed for an adult card game evening in January. The program was presented by the third and fourth graders under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Ware. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Thennes, Mrs. Neilson, Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Nichols. The next association meeting will be held Jan. 4.

Inspection Held By Umpqua Grove

The Umpqua Grove No. 51 of the Supreme Forest Woodman Circle held a formal proficiency inspection Monday night of the ritualistic work of the newly elected officers and team members.

State manager Mrs. Zeldah K. Puckett, Portland, was present at the meeting held at the Evergreen Grange Hall.

Mrs. Puckett reported on her recent trip to Sherman, Tex., where she attended the dedication of improvements at the home for aged and children. She noted that 48 women and three children are now making use of the home, dedicated in memory of the late Dora Alexander Tally.

Plans were made for a joint family party Saturday starting with a potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. for the Woodman Life, the Boys of Woodcraft and the Umpqua Grove. The group's Christmas party will be held next Monday at the home of Mrs. Lucy Benson. Mrs. Phoebe McGuire will act as co-hostess.

LODGE CLOSURES

The Alpine Lodge and Coffee shop, south of Canyonville, closed last week after having been operated this past year by Mrs. Raymond Hayes. Mrs. Hayes is still managing the Alpine service station. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hussey of Roseburg are the owners of the Alpine facility.
