

Bridge Approach Work Started For Glide-Wilbur Cut-Off

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY
Work has been started on the approaches of the new bridge across the North Unquas for the Glide-Wilbur cut-off road under construction by the Douglas County Road Dept. Don Horsley and Cliff Kiss of Roseburg, employees of the West Coast Steel Co. of Portland, are putting in the forms and will be joined by steel workers after the first of the year to install the steel girders. The bridge will have a cement deck, 480 feet in length, including the approaches. Miss Donna Henry, senior student at Oregon State College, arrived Tuesday to spend the Christmas and New Year's holidays at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Welch.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Sabin and family left Saturday for Portland to attend the Dec. 17 funeral of baby Joyce Sabin whose death occurred by suffocation Dec. 13 at their Glendale home. The family is remaining in Portland over Christmas, visiting Sabin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sabin, and Mrs. Sabin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gustafson.

Elkton School Gym Installations Made

By MRS. ARIEL HUBBARD
George Bowman and Jim Haines have been installing back-boards and supporting frames above the bleachers in Elkton High School gym for use as cross courts for basketball practice.

Dinner Held
The annual Christmas dinner for high school students, teachers, and their husbands or wives, the school board and other school personnel was held today at noon. Gifts were exchanged among the students.

Recent visitors at the Del Dungey home were Dungey's parents from Scappoose.

Tommy Hescoek, student at Elkton High School is ill in the Sacred Heart Hospital. He has been reported doing better, and hopes to be home soon.

Mrs. Orlin Palmer was in Portland over the weekend to visit her mother Mrs. R. R. Wells who is critically ill in a Portland hospital.

Lawrence Smith killed a panther on the Leonard Ross place last Saturday. He was out alone with his two dogs when they treed the animal.

Job's Daughters Meet In Glendale

The Glendale Bethel of Job's Daughters held a regular meeting at the Masonic Temple Monday evening. Exchange of gifts and a dance followed to which guests had been invited.

The most important business transacted at the meeting was an announcement by the honor queen-elect, Sally Jo Thompson, of the names of her appointive officers.

They are: senior custodian, Nornie Smith; junior custodian, Sharon Miller; musician, Donna Stevens; first messenger, Vickie Hays; second messenger, Kay Edson; third messenger, Janis Nicholson; fourth messenger, Rowena Miller; fifth messenger, Diane Cleveland; inner guard, Marilyn Harris; outer guard, Mildred Hays; librarian, Mary Ann Johnson; treasurer, Georgia Mill; recorder, Kathie Cleveland; chaplain, Mary Pate and lady of lights, Rene Young.

The names of elected officers, as announced at the previous meeting are senior princess, Beverly Cox; junior princess, Jean Fachel; guide Linda Humphries and marshal, Sally Johns.

The installation of the new officers will be held at the Masonic Temple Jan. 12. An initiation meeting will be held Jan. 7.

Following the meeting and party, the girls served cookies and punch to members and their guests.

Glendale FL Club Has Christmas Party

The Glendale FL Club held its Christmas party last week at the Glendale IOOF hall.

The group packed homemade candy to send to the Odd Fellows Home and exchanged gifts.

Plans were made for the club members to help with the X-ray unit in Glendale this week and also with the well-child clinic.

Salad and hot rolls were served by Mrs. Vi Kimbrough, Mrs. Beverly Rondeau, Mrs. Jennine Johns, and Mrs. Eloise Humphrey, hostesses for the evening.

New Books Now At Dillard School

By ROSA HEINBACH
The children's books which were donated to the Dillard elementary school by Mrs. Mona Hult when she moved to Eugene, are now available for use in the school. They are on display in the lunch room where the teachers and students may check out an entire set and take them to their room for study. The sets include "Childcraft," "My Book House," "Pictureque Tales of Progress," "Young Folks Library," and several other individual copies.

Recent Guests
Overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Linna Tuesday and Wednesday were the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Don Buswell and family from Willow Creek, Calif., who were en route to Toledo, Wash., to spend the holidays with their parents. Also stopping were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Adams and son and daughter from Seattle, Wash., who were returning home from a visit with Mr. Linna's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Johnson in Watsonville, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Middlestadt were accompanied by the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Middlestadt of Lebanon, to Portland last week for business and pleasure. They were guests of his uncle, and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kroplin while in Portland.

Glendale Masonic Officers Elected

Officers of the Glendale Masonic Lodge were elected and installed last week at the Glendale Masonic Temple.

Eastern Star members were invited to be present for the installation and for a refreshment period which followed. Pictures were taken of those officers who had participated in the formal dedication of the temple Oct. 13.

New officers are as follows: Worshipful master, Henry La Prath; senior warden, Herb Reed; junior warden, Bill La Prath; senior deacon, Robert Adair; junior deacon, John Dillen; treasurer, Lacy Sparks; secretary, Howard Edson; marshal, Carl Sether; senior steward, Frank Woodley; junior steward, James Apperson; chaplain, Fred Beerli and Ralph Shoulters.

Bill La Prath acted as master of ceremonies for a program which followed the installation. The program was participated in by Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Paine, Vic Opperman, and Mrs. Mary Wright.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Sparkman Asks For Check On U. S. Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala) today called for a "reappraisal" of American foreign policy in the light of developments behind the Iron Curtain and in the Middle East.

Sparkman, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he thinks it inevitable that congressional groups will ask "a lot of questions" about the Eisenhower administration's course in the international field.
