HALFTIME ACTIVITIES during the Yoncalla - Elkton basketball game played Tuesday night at Yoncalla, featured the presentation of the District Four and Douglas B League championship football trophies. Also presented was the B League second place trophy baseball award won by the Eagles during the past season.

Leo Christman of Eugene, who is district commissioner, made the presentations on behalf of the OSA.

Yoncalla went through B League football action undefeated and then tied Powers 13-13 during district play, but won the title on total yardage.

DOUGLAS COUNTY college athletes home for the Christmas-New Year holidays, who have been attending local schools are Jerry Droscher and Bill Rudzik. Both lads are attending Oregon State. Jerry was a three-sport man while attending Roseburg and Rudzik did likewise at Douglas.

Both were outstanding players in Junior Legion baseball. Just received our Roseburg high school Indian "basketball facts" book. A big thanks for a job well done should go to those responsible for its publication. It gives complete data on all the players, coaches, ticket information, schedule, game information and administrative officers.

It overlooks one mighty important factor, however, which usually is very much in evidence at every athletic and school function. We are speaking of the finest looking and best dressed cheering section of the state prep ranks, our Indian rooting squad.

For a person who has never watched the gals in action or failed to see their beautiful peach-colored uniforms, we suggest a trip to the old maple court tonight when the Bill Harper-coached quint will be trading baskets with long-time foe, Grants Pass, at 8 p.m.

Members of the well-trained crew are Linda Backen, Nancy Bell, Sonya Carlock, Wanda Sims, Carol Lindbloom and Susan Short.

Alternates are Donna Graves and Diane Myers. HARPER'S Roseburg Indian hoop squad continues to lead the field in Douglas County A-school prep ranks. Harper's lads chalked up victories three and four during the week to run their undefeated string to four.

Coach Ray Stratton's Drain Warriors moved up the ladder with a single win against Myrtle Creek. They have a 4-1 mark. Glendale moved into third place with a lone win over Oakland and boast 3-1. Glide split its two game and rests fourth with a 2-1 record.

Reedsport and Douglas are tied for fifth place after both teams won one and lost one in two games played. Each team is 3-2. Sutherlin and Myrtle Creek did likewise and rest 2-3. Oakland has yet to taste victory after four straight losses.

The standings:

W	L	Pct.
Roseburg	4 0	1.000
Drain	4 1	.800
Glendale	3 1	.750
Glide	2 1	.667
Douglas	3 2	.600
Reedsport	3 2	.600
Sutherlin	2 3	.400
Myrtle Creek	2 3	.400
Oakland	0 4	.000

WEEKEND PREDICTIONS: Friday: Roseburg over Grants Pass; Myrtle Creek over Myrtle Point; Drain over Sutherlin; Elkton over Creswell and Brookings over Glendale. Saturday: Roseburg over Corvallis.

THE IRD ROSE BOWL (Press, Radio and TV) information booklet reached our desk Thursday. It gives complete data on both teams, players, coaches along with past Rose Bowl history.

Douglas County will be well represented, having two outstanding players on the Beaver roster in the persons of Tony Arana, whose folks reside at nearby Sutherlin, and local product Nub Beamer.

Arana is a good passer and runner. He is also one of the better punters of the team and has an average of 36.8 for eight kicks. Beamer is rated as an extremely hard runner, and lacks only experience. He carried the ball 35 times for 164 net yards (4.7 average). He is hard to bring down and capable of going all the way. Beamer has been used as linebacker during a good portion of the past season.

Coach Tommy Prothro says he could be one of the best fullbacks in the PCC next year.

HOWIE RAND, great comic star of the Harlem Clowns, is back in the lineup after a year's absence. Howie wows the fans with his impromptu comedy stuff and as a ball handler has no peer. Rand will be in the Clowns' starting lineup and is one of the key men in their razzle-dazzle style of play on the court. The hoop comics will tangle with the star-studded Seattle Cheney Studs Dec. 29 at Roseburg High School. Leading the Seattle hoopers are the fabulous O'Brien brothers, Johnny and Eddie, who were college standouts a couple years back. Johnny made All-American honors.

Despite Loss, DeMarco Reigns Fight Favorite
NEW YORK (AP) — If Gaspar Ortega repeats his upset victory over Tony DeMarco in tonight's rematch at Madison Square Garden, it will be time to take seriously the challenger of the lanky Mexican welterweight.

Ortega's split decision over the former champion in their Nov. 23 bout resulted in a revision of the 147-pound ratings. Both Ring and the National Boxing Assn. promptly awarded Ortega the No. 4 post among Carmen Basilio's challengers. DeMarco remained No. 1 with the NBA but slipped to second in the Ring.

Aragon Suspended For Alleged 'Fix'

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Art Aragon, third ranked welterweight was suspended indefinitely by Texas Boxing Commissioner H. B. Morgan Thursday for trying to fix a fight in San Antonio with Dick Goldstein.

A 30-day suspension was given Goldstein, a boxing buddy of Aragon. Both men are from Los Angeles, Calif. Goldstein fought in Washington State several years back under the name of Dick Sibette.

Under rules of the National Boxing Assn. both men are automatically suspended in all states except New York.

The suspension came after both men had taken lie detector tests. Morgan said, "I concluded that there had been conversation between the two about the fight. It was understood that Goldstein was to go down and Aragon was to win."

Morgan said that conversation concerning Goldstein taking a "dive" in the third round were first held in Los Angeles.

"It's another case of a big-time fighter not wanting to take a chance of being whipped by a little-time fighter," Morgan said.

Goldstein testified in a hearing Wednesday that he was offered $500 and threatened with death if he didn't take a "dive"—fake losing the fight—in the third round.

Duke Snider Leads National Loop In Slugging; Cincinnati Top Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Duke Snider of Brooklyn, the National League home run king, also led in slugging percentage with a .598 figure.

Joe Adcock of Milwaukee was next to Snider with a .597 mark in the averages based on total bases divided by total at bats. Others near the top were Henry Aaron of Milwaukee and Frank Robinson of Cincinnati, .558 each, and Willie Mays of New York, .557.

Records Broken
Thirteen major league records were broken by National League players or teams during the season, many of them inconsequential.

One record that may stand for years was the feat of Pittsburgh's Dale Long, who hit homers in eight consecutive games. Red Schoendienst of St. Louis and New York set a new mark for fielding at second base, .9934; Robin Roberts of the Phillies allowed more homers than any other pitcher in history, 46; and Junior Gilliam of Brooklyn made 12 assists at second base in a July 21 game.

Joe Adcock's 13 homers against Brooklyn tied the National League mark against one club and Stan Musial of St. Louis set new league records in several batting departments.

Waits Most
Snider also showed the way in total walks 99, including a new record of 26 intentional passes. The old record for intentional walks was 25 set by Ted Kluszewski in 1955.

Wally Post, one of Cincinnati's leading home run hitters who often hits long "tape measure" drives, struck out more times than any other National League, a total of 124. In contrast, Don Mueller of the New York Giants, who specializes in place hitting, fanned only seven times. Post, incidentally, hit 36 homers, drove in 83 runs and batted 249. Mueller rapped only five homers, drove in 41 and hit 269.

The pitchers' favorite target was Frank Robinson, Cincinnati's rookie prize, who was hit 20 times by pitched balls. The next high in the league was Ray Jablonski of Cincinnati with seven. Carl Furillo of Brooklyn grounded into the most double plays, 27, and Don Blasingame of St. Louis bounced into only three.

In the team figures it was interesting to note that Cincinnati had the best slugging average .441 and Brooklyn drew the most intentional walks, 91, and grounded into the most double plays, 146.

Ready for Reserve Action
Ready for reserve action are Gary Cripps, Marvin Fray, Tommy Burgess, Rod Hoenish, who was moved back to the varsity roster, Bill Kelly and Larry Sloan.

Jayvee action between the two schools gets the show under way at 6:30 p.m.

Roseburg Hoopers Shoot For 5th Win

Basketball rivalry between Grants Pass and Roseburg will blaze anew tonight when the Cave-men of Coach Ray Davis come to town for a night encounter against the Bill Harper coached Indians. Game time is 8 p.m.

Saturday night, the Indians travel to Corvallis for a rematch with the Spartans. Roseburg won the first meeting between the two schools, 34-21.

Experience Limited
Grants Pass brings a hoop crew boasting four returning lettermen, although only one, Larry Henderson is a seasoned veteran. Several have plenty of jayvee experience, however.

Grants Pass hosted both Marshfield and North Bend last weekend and dropped both encounters, losing to the Pirates, 50-42, and to the Bulldogs, 55-33.

Starting nods will probably go to Henderson who stands 6-3½ at center; Jim Smith, 6-1½ junior guard; Mike Sparlin, 6-0 junior; and Jerry Putnam, 6-3 sophomore in the forward slots. Junior Chuck Remberth will probably get the other guard assignment. He stands 5-11.

Sparlin and Remberth played jayvee ball last year, and Putnam, being a sophomore, has had only freshman-squad experience. First-line reserves include 6-3½ Larry Walker, 6-3 Bruce Marks, 6-2 Bob Fowler, 6-1 Bob Linqvist 5-11 Gary Walker and 5-7 Chuck Lasher.

Roseburg will be after its fifth consecutive win, but Coach Harper is undecided as to whom will get the starting nods. A lot will depend on whether 6-3 transfer center John Caudill is ready for action. The first string pivotman injured his hip last week and has missed the past two encounters.

His replacement on the other hand, Tom Barrong, has looked terrific and could get the starting nod anyhow. Forward spots will be held by 6-2 Fred Skeels and 6-2 Wes Jackson. Center duty will be handled by either Caudill or Barrong. Guards are sure to be 5-7 Brady Montgomery and 5-10 Bill Oerding. The latter two are both deceptive and fleet foot. They usually do most of the scoring.

Ready for reserve action are Gary Cripps, Marvin Fray, Tommy Burgess, Rod Hoenish, who was moved back to the varsity roster, Bill Kelly and Larry Sloan.

Jayvee action between the two schools gets the show under way at 6:30 p.m.

Waterfowl Hunting Poor

PORTLAND (AP) — Waterfowl hunting prospects for the coming weekend are the poorest in some time, the weekly summary issued by the state Game Commission indicates.

In none of the five shooting areas summarized is the outlook better than fair. This is the situation:

Northwest
Ducks are still plentiful in the north Willamette Valley, but flood waters have dispersed birds widely. Duck hunting in the south Willamette Valley has again slowed up.

Central
Most of the birds in the Klamath area have migrated south. Upper and Lower Klamath Lakes are poor, but some mallards and honkers are using Swan Lake and Yoncalla valleys.

Northeast
There are small bands of mallards in Baker Valley. Fair hunting will be found near Keating and Richland, and along Burnt River near Hereford. Ducks are becoming more numerous in the Union County.

Southeast
Most of the birds are gone from Summer Lake and Warner Valley, but duck hunting should be fair along the Snake River in Malheur County.
