

Grandparents And Their Favorite Topics

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY, JANUARY 12, 1957

—The News-Review, Roseburg Ore. 5

THE FAVORITE TOPIC of conversation of most grandparents is their grandchildren. Five proud grandparents and their grandchildren make up today's society feature page.

MRS. WILLIAM MARTIG, above left, of Rosemead, Calif., is pictured with her granddaughter and grandson, Marietta and Dennis Munson of Roseburg. Mrs. Martig is the former Bertha Cooney of Roseburg. She is a sister of Mrs. Charles Doerner of this city. She has returned to her home in California, following the holidays here.

ATTORNEY AND MRS. R. L. WHIPPLE, top right, have six grandchildren to be proud of. Left to right: Roger Stewart, (11) Larry Rawson, (11) Attorney Whipple, Cheryl Rawson, 9½; Nancy Stewart, 15; Mrs. Whipple, Jo Ann Stewart and Ronda Rawson, both, 3. Roger, Nancy and JoAnn are the children of Lois and Gordon Stewart, and Larry, Cheryl and Rhonda are the children of Betty and Gene Rawson.

MRS. FLORENCE McKEE of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Koepp of Yachats (center right picture) are especially proud of their two grandchildren, Carol and Richard (Dickie) McKee, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Paulus McKee of Roseburg. The grandparents spent the holidays at the beautiful new McKee home on Hawthorne Terrace.

MR. AND MRS. MART UNDEM (lower left) come all the way from Rogers, N. D., to spend the holidays with their three young grandchildren, Patty 4; Beth 2½, and Bobby, 15 months, the daughters and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Rod) Nevue, who reside in Laurelwood. The Undems were accompanied here by their 15 year-old son, Danny.

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE CASKEY, lower right, are shown with their five grandchildren. Mr. Caskey is holding 11 months-old Bruce Willhite. Left to right: Connie Lynn Caskey, 7; Becky Willhite, 3; Donna Rae Caskey, 5; Mrs. Caskey and Connie Gayle Willhite, 7. Connie Lynn and Donna Rae are the daughters of Donald and Shirley Caskey. Bruce, Becky and Connie Gayle are the children of Mary Ann and Robert C. Willhite.

Pictures on this page by "Chris" of Photo Lab

