

CUTTING THE TRADITIONAL first piece of their wedding cake are Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Jones, who were married in Mt. View Chapel, Alaska, Monday evening by the Rev. Hugh Rounds. Before her marriage, Mrs. Jones was Miss Beverly E. Burge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Burge, Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wheeler, 1708 Twining Ave., Nunaka Valley, Anchorage, Alaska.

The bride wore a street-length dress of mauve, styled with a scoop-neckline bodice. She wore pink accessories and carried pink and white roses. Her jewelry was a three-strand pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom's mother. Mrs. Nancy Rathoon was her matron of honor, wearing an ice-blue street-length dress of crystal-lette with gold accessories and pink and white roses. Royce Curry was best man. The double ring ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with candelabra. Richard Benjamin was organist and also sang.

"Because."

Assisting at the reception which was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents were Mrs. Lee Conquest, Miss Ann Caldwell and Mrs. James Tripp.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and was a member of the W.A.F., receiving her discharge in July. She has been employed at the Anchorage city hall.

The bridegroom received his education in Illinois, saw service in the U. S. Navy and has been an employee of Morrison-Knudsen in Anchorage.
