By ADDIE SCHNEIDER
Clifford Hess, Garden Valley's prominent chicken farmer has received his first shipment of baby chicks from Seattle, Wash. The 530 chicks arrived last week by parcel post. Before the year is over Hess will receive several more

How To Hold FALSE TEETH More Firmly In Place

Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass you when you eat, laugh or talk? Just apply a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug counter.

THIS WILL COST A PRETTY PENNY

Running a house is like driving an automobile. If it injures someone, you may be sued—for plenty!

Not only your home, but your children, your pets, and your sports or personal activities can cause injuries to persons or property damage—for which you may be held liable. But why worry?

For only $10 a year you can buy a new $10,000 Comprehensive Personal Liability Policy which protects you and your whole family against damage suits and also covers your liability as an employer if you have servants or occasional domestic help. Let us tell you more about this policy—the biggest $10 worth of protection in the world!

We stand between you and loss

Move Away

The Darse family have moved temporarily to Welches, Ore., to make their home. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Wall visited a few days with Mrs. Paul Paulsen and Barbara in Garden Valley and with Mr. Paulsen, who is still confined to the hospital.

Rose Marie Culler and her sister, Kathie May Kirby, are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Sig Madison while their mother is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sanders, Eugene, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Zuver and family. Mrs. Sanders is the mother of Mrs. Zuver.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lockington and daughter, Cora Lee, of Medford visited Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Elton Zuver and family. Mrs. Lockington and Mrs. Zuver are cousins.

Mrs. Tressie Claypool has received word that her step-daughter, Hazel Gilbreath, expects to have a lung operation soon.

Toastmistresses Host Joint Meeting Tuesday

Roseburg Toastmistress Club members were hostesses at a joint meeting with the Roseburg Toastmasters at the Swedish Dining Room Tuesday evening.

Neil Morgan, president of the Toastmistress Club, opened the meeting with the introduction of guests and members. Walter Brittle, Toastmaster Club president, introduced members of his club and their wives.

Maple Lyons, as toastmistress of the evening, introduced Lexicologist Doris DeGuire who gave a quiz on 12 words not commonly used. Topic Mistress Emma Manning, with the help of several members, discussed the statement by Solomon, "There is nothing new under the sun."

Principal speakers of the evening were Toastmaster Marvin Lane and Toastmistress Ruth Heimer who spoke of New Year's resolutions. Their critics were Celia Day and Bob Johnson.

General evaluator for the evening was Orville Madenwald of Myrtle Creek, past president of the Timberline Toastmasters Club of Portland.

The next Toastmistress Club meeting will be Tuesday, Jan. 22, at the Swedish Dining Room. Installation of officers will be held.

Riversdale Cubs Purchasing Flag

By BEVERLY CHRISTIAN
Riversdale Cub Scout Pack 143 has received a $10 gift from the Riversdale Grange, it was reported at the latest meeting of the pack's executive committee.

It will be used to help purchase a pack flag.

The next regular meeting of the pack will be Friday at 7:30 p.m. at the Garden Valley Woman's Clubhouse. This is a change from the regular meeting night.

At the close of the pack meeting, refreshments will be sold to raise money to complete payment on the pack flag.

Visiting Relatives

Mrs. Joan Talley and two children of Fresno, Calif., are visiting on Fisher Road with the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hebard, and family. Mrs. Floyd Squier went to Portland last week to buy a new car.

Miss Judy Ott, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ott Jr. is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bil have moved back to their home on Curry Road which they purchased several years ago from the Utterbacks. For the past 1 year the C. T. McCoy's have lived there.

Back Disc Broken

Mrs. Ernest Trussell's mother, who was staying with her after suffering a fall at her home in Roseburg, has been taken to the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Niday. It was found that Mrs. Niday received a broken disc in her back.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hebard spent Friday in Eugene where the former attended a logging conference.

Don Kruse went to Woodland, Calif., Friday night to assist his brother-in-law, Phillip Mast, move from there to Myrtle Point. The latter received his discharge from the Air Force in December. Mrs. Kruse and children stayed at Melrose with her sister, Mrs. Jerry Wickman, over the weekend while her husband was gone.

M. P. Emmitt, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Kruse, went to Eugene on Saturday where they visited the former's daughter, Marlene, a student at the University of Oregon.

MC PTA Committee Members Appointed

The committee to nominate new officers for the Myrtle Creek PTA, was elected at the Jan. 10 meeting which was held at the Myrtle Creek High School.

Mrs. Joe Hallonquist was named chairman, with Mrs. John Payne, Mr. Jim Darnelle, Jim Darnelle and Mrs. Al Kolb serving on the committee.

Mrs. Dale Sall, president, announced that Myrtle Creek PTA and Tri-City PTA will host the County Council PTA group at the high school on Feb. 9 from 10 to 3 p.m. The two PTAs will serve lunch to the group.

Kenneth Barneburg will speak on legislation concerning education that will be brought up in congress this year. The executive board of the Myrtle Creek PTA will meet Jan. 2 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Neet.

Mrs. Alec Reiber, program chairman, then introduced three musical numbers after which a film, "Freedom to Learn," was shown to the group. Refreshments were served in the Home economics room.

CBA Instructor To Take Army Reserve Training

Aaron Rothman, Canyonville Bible Academy instructor, who holds the rank of captain in the Army Reserve, has accepted an invitation to take special officer's training this spring at Fort Benning, Ga. Rothman and his family will report for duty there on Feb. 3.

Willard Fenderson will take over Rothman's post as boy's dean of CBA, as well as his classes. Mrs. Rothman has held a position on the nursing staff at Forest Glen Hospital during their two-year stay in Canyonville.

Woman Recuperates From Broken Ankles

By ROSA HEINBACH

Mrs. Reuben Benson is recuperating from two broken ankles at her home on Highway 42. It was originally reported only one ankle was broken.

On her right leg, four bones were broken in the ankle and on her left, one was fractured. The injuries were received when she fell at her home.

Flown To Ship
A telegram was received by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Claiborne that their youngest son, Kyle, has gone to Naples, Italy, to join his assignment ship, the USS Boston.

Surprise guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Myers were the latter's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Max Welton, of Tacoma, Wash. During their four-day stay in Dillard, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Myers in Green and Mr. and Mrs. Don Heggie. This was the Welton's first trip to Dillard.

Improving
Mrs. C. E. Hull is reported improving at her home in Dillard after undergoing emergency treatment at the Douglas Community Hospital last week.

A surprise visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Lack last week was the former's brother, Roy, from Bellingham, Wash. He was on his way to San Leandro, Calif.

Mrs. Ruth E. Springer has returned to her home in Dillard after a visit with relatives in Portland. She also visited a brother, Ted, and sister, Thelma, at Yoncalla, Mrs. Springer is a fifth grade teacher at Dillard Elementary School.

Education Relations Committee To Visit Oakland High School

The High School-College Relations Committee of the Oregon State System of Higher Education will visit Oakland High School Thursday at 9 a.m., reports Principal Kenneth Williams.

An assembly has been called to explain general college preparation and requirements. Later sessions are to be held to discuss specific requirements of the different institutions.

The visitation, which is open to the public, is offered annually as part of a guidance program to help students in post-high school training.
