Long-time Canyonville Man Recovering From Stroke

By VIRGINIA PROCTOR
 E. A. Antis, long-time resident of the Canyonville area, is reported resting comfortably following a stroke which completely paralyzed his right side last Thursday morning.
 According to Mrs. Antis, he can be cared for at home with the assistance of the "loaner" hospital bed installed for her by the Canyonville Lions Club Thursday. A few adult visitors may be allowed, Mrs. Antis said.
 A series of missionary studies concerning the work of the Methodist Church in the United States mission field will begin at the Canyonville Methodist Church next Sunday with a family potluck dinner at 6 p.m., according to the Rev. Elmer Burkey, pastor. Special work is planned to interest the children in the study hour which will occupy only an hour, according to the Rev. Mr. Burkey. Classes will be held each Sunday until the course is complete, with a dinner concluding the meetings.

 Mrs. Robert Trenholm will be hostess to the Canyonville Wesleyan guild at her home in Tri-City Monday evening, Jan. 21.
 Bertha Rebekah lodge of Canyonville met recently at the 1000 hall and voted to accept the audit report made by Mrs. Elmer (Minola) Stanley.
 In other business, Mrs. William (Elveda) Preston was elected 1957 trustee. Mrs. H. R. (Alice) Green and Mrs. Doris Fitzpatrick were reported ill. Plans were made for the formal installation of officers to be held on Tuesday, Jan. 22. The Canyonville Lions Club met for its regular Wednesday evening dinner meeting at the Forester's cafe in Canyonville with Charles Rimell, presiding.

 Plans were made to have ladies night at the next meeting, Wednesday, Jan. 23, with the men of the Wesleyan Guild serving the dinner.

Canyonville, Glendale Men Union Delegates

Robert L. Fisher, president, Glendale, and Oliver Dotson, business agent, Canyonville were appointed to represent Local 2716, Lumber and Sawmill Workers at the Western Council convention, AFL-CIO, at Seattle Feb. 11.

FUNNY BUSINESS

"We don't object to the coffee break, but do you have to use our competitor's coffee?"

FROM NINE TO FIVE

By Jo Fischer

Oh, it's perfectly all right, Mr. Wump. I find things much quicker this way.
