

POSING FOR THEIR wedding portrait are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haynes, above, whose marriage was an event of Sunday at the Church of the Nazarene in Myrtle Creek. The bride, LeBerta Peterson, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson of Canyonville. The bridegroom is from Auburn, Wash. (Picture by Ken's Camera and Record Shop, Canyonville).

In an afternoon ceremony Sunday at the Church of the Nazarene in Myrtle Creek, LeBerta Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peterson of Canyonville, became the bride of Ray Haynes of Auburn, Wash. Elder Don Gray of the Roseburg SDA church officiating.

The wedding party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Mrs. Charles Davis of the Milo Academy. The bride, dressed in a two-piece blue velvet dress and gray accessories, joined the wedding party in the receiving line. Silver wedding bells and white candles grouped attractively about the room formed the decorations. Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. Nellie Nichols, Rita Nichols, Mrs. Francis Dunham, Mrs. John Carlock and Mrs. Arthur Thompson assisted with the serving of wedding cake and punch. Jean Harry and Mrs. Merion Jones were in charge of the gift table and Mrs. Charm Hatley, the guest book.

Duane Corwin of Myrtle Creek introduced those who entertained at the reception. Included were a vocal solo by Mrs. Otto Epping, a trumpet solo by L. E. Russell, principal of Milo Academy. Following the reception the newly-married couple, with the bride dressed in a going-away costume of a red knit suit with black and white winter accessories, left for their wedding trip. They will make their home at Renton, Wash., where Mr. Haynes is employed.

Mrs. Haynes was graduated from Laurelwood Academy, completed two years at Walla Walla College and has been employed at Forest Glen Hospital in Canyonville.

Perish-Gwaltney Nuptials Take Place On Dec. 22nd

One of the loveliest of winter brides was Marylin Kay Gwaltney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Gwaltney, when she became the bride Dec. 22 of Frank Joseph Perish Jr., son of Frank Perish of Brownville, Minn., and Mrs. Len Majors of this city. The beautiful double ring service was performed at 8 p.m. candlelight service at the First Baptist Church by Dr. Eugene Gerltz. One hundred friends and relatives were present.

White candles in candelabra entwined with holly and baskets of white chrysanthemums and holly formed the church decorations.

Mrs. Sam Warg was organist and accompanied Frank Moore who sang "Always" and "Bridal Prayer."

Ellis Gwaltney gave his daughter in marriage. She wore white tulle with a semi-train. The bride had lace at the neckline and waist and long sleeves, coming to a point over the wrist. She wore a fingertip veil, secured by a sequin headband and she carried a cluster of white and red roses on a white ribbon.

Miss Mollie Fullerton was maid of honor and Miss Elaine Anderson of Eugene and Mrs. Jack Stone were bridesmaids. They wore red velvet street-length gowns, fashioned with cap sleeves and inverted pleats. Their satin slippers matched their gowns and they wore white fur headpieces. Their bouquets were white feathered chrysanthemums arranged with holly.

Richard Gwaltney, brother of the bride, lighted the candles before the ceremony. Elwyn Jones was best man and ushers were Sam Reitman and King Moore.

Mother of the bride wore a beige wool dress with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a teal blue suit with rose accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

A reception followed the church ceremony. Miss Lois Downing of Sweet Home, at the piano, played carols and other selections and was accompanied on the violin by Miss Sharon Anderson of Eugene. The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, topped with wedding bells and lily of the valley, was served by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Maude Cameron of Mt. Vernon, Ill., and by Mrs. Richard Berney, Joyce Mault of Ashland presided at the punch bowl and Darlene Ross of Ukiah, Calif., served the coffee. Mrs. Norman Queen of Tacoma presented the guest book.

For going-away, the new Mrs. Perish wore a black wool dress accented with touches of white, small white fur hat and gloves.

The young people honeymooned in Sacramento and San Francisco and are at home at 115 Ash St., Eugene.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and is presently a senior student in nursing training at Sacred Heart Hospital, Eugene. The bridegroom is employed by Umpqua Valley Appliance.

How About A Second Honey-moon?

BY JACK WEST
Let me ask you men a question. Do you have to be reminded that such and such a day is your wedding anniversary? I can understand. But I can't tell you what to do. I dare say your wife, smarter than you imagine, contrives some way to call the important date to your attention.

Maybe there ought to be some kind of a "reminder service" for forgetful husbands. How about that? A sweet voiced lady would phone you and say "Don't forget, Mr. Jones, that next Thursday is your wedding anniversary." Wouldn't that be wonderful?

Then you could come here, buy her a lovely gift, have us wrap it appropriately — and on the Big Day she would be so thrilled! You could even take a SECOND HONEYMOON—perhaps with her wearing a beautiful new and modern wedding band chosen here. (The new ones really are exquisite. New, carved designs either plain or set with tiny baquette diamonds. And quite reasonable in price, too!)

Speaking of gifts, I want you to remember that we make a specialty of carrying loveliest jewelry articles. Toilet sets, atomizers, inlaid compacts of silver and gold, bracelets, earrings, scatter pins. Oh, the variety is almost unending. Come in today whether you have a wedding anniversary in the offing or not. We have one of the largest stocks of fine jewelry on display anywhere.
