Oregon State Mothers Club Schedules Sale

The Oregon State Mothers Club will hold a rummage sale at the Episcopal Parish hall Saturday from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

All Oregon State mothers and other interested persons are requested to bring their rummage to the parish hall Friday, or call Mrs. Foster Butler at OR 3-7370 for pickup service.

FREE TRANSPORTATION

PORTLAND —Portland's all-girl Little Chamber Orchestra will get free transportation from the Army to and from Europe on a scheduled concert tour next summer. Chamber spokesmen got this word.

The State Department is backing the tour, which will take the orchestra to England, Norway and France and to a number of Army European posts.

NEW BOYS TOWN MAYOR

BOYS TOWN, Neb. —Ronald Ford, of Portland, Ore., is the new mayor of Boys Town, a home for homeless boys.

Ford, 18, is a top athlete at the Boys Town High School.

Publisher Named Drain Chamber Head At Banquet

Lowell Anderson, editor and publisher of the Drain Enterprise, was introduced Saturday night as the Drain Chamber of Commerce president for 1957.

Other officers for the new year are: Chester Rydell, vice president; Forrest Johnson, treasurer; Mary M. Scott, secretary. Directors are: Bob Miller, Ivan Johnson, Jim Whipple, Lee Darnell, Bob Thomas and retiring president Dick Duncan.

The officers were officially presented at the annual banquet at the grade school in an atmosphere of organ music and candlelight.

Retiring president Richard Duncan was presented with a community service award scroll and a gift from the chamber. Another gift went to Mary Scott, who has served as secretary of the organization for eight years.

Four special guests at the banquet were the three members of the Douglas County Court, Judge V. T. Jackson and Commissioners Frank Ashley and Huron Clough, and Roseburg Chamber President Thomas Pargeter.

The banquet was prepared by women of the Sunnydale Grange.

Concert Representative Makes Roseburg Visit

Mrs. Pearl Summers, representative of the Community Concert Assn., was in Roseburg last week making arrangements for the forthcoming membership campaign of the Roseburg association later this spring.

Next concert on the association's agenda will be the appearance here Jan. 29 of the Paganini Quartet. It will feature Henri Temaikka, first violin; Gustave Rosseels, second violin; Charles Foidart, viola, and Lucien LaPorte, cello.

This group was formed in 1946. Each plays an authentic Stradivari instrument, which were originally the possessions of Nicolo Paganini, the great virtuoso of that era and whose name the group has taken.

3 Oil Companies Increase Prices

PORTLAND —Three oil companies Friday said they have boosted prices on gasoline, heating and diesel oils to match an increase made Thursday by Standard Oil Co. of California.

Gasoline and heating oil prices in the Portland area were lifted 1/2 cent a gallon by the Union Oil Co., Shell Oil Co. and the General Petroleum Corp.

The three firms said heavier fuel oils were raised 15 cents a barrel and marine diesel 21 cents a barrel.

Union and General said they will increase gasoline prices from 6 to 7 cents a gallon on some parts of Eastern Oregon and Idaho because of what they termed increased transportation costs.

EXAMINER DUE

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Roseburg Thursday and Friday at 642 SE Kane St. between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., according to an announcement received from the Dept. of Motor Vehicles of Oregon.

Persons wishing original licenses or permits to drive are asked to file applications well ahead of the scheduled closing hour in order to assure time for completion of the required license test.

Canyonville Church Damaged By Recent Fire

Canyonville volunteer firemen answered a call to Surprise Valley on Gazley road north of Canyonville Wednesday morning when the wall of the Pentecostal Church there became ignited from a faulty chimney.

Neighboring families who turned in the alarm had almost extinguished the flame with garden hoses when the department's truck arrived, according to Norman Hanson, fire chief. Hanson estimated the damage to the structure at about $250.

March Of Dimes Underway In Oakland

The March of Dimes drive is underway in Oakland, with Mrs. Fern Neas as chairman. Containers have been placed in business houses.

The annual dinner will be held Feb. 4, at the Veterans Memorial building, sponsored by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Legion Auxiliary and Beta Pi Sorority.

The Mother's March will be held Jan. 31. The Calapooia Ladies Club is selling a quilt to benefit the fund, and a card party was scheduled Saturday at the Rice Valley hall.

Other activities will be announced later. The Best Cafe is holding a coffee hour each day from 3 to 4 p. m., and all proceeds will go to the March of Dimes.

Fullerton Camp Fire Girls Report Activities

Tawatanka Camp Fire Girls of Fullerton School completed a variety of activities last month. They made cookies for the Veterans Hospital; made stars for the "Mile of Stars," with buttons, pins and needles to send to Hungary; and went caroling with Camp Fire girls at the Roseburg hospitals and county home at Christmas time. Mrs. Cummins is their leader. Mrs. Amundson helped them pick their group name, which means "doing everything together."

THE MIGHTY CHRYSLER

Most glamorous car in a generation

Look how little it costs to own the world's most modern motor car

If you have believed the cost of a Chrysler to be out of your reach, you owe it to your pocketbook to stop in and inquire about the new Chrysler Windsor illustrated above.

Here is a car which in beauty, beam and engineering quality has always been compared with the most expensive cars made. Yet it is priced right smack with the medium-price cars.

Remember, too, that this is all Chrysler... full size outside and in. It brings you all of Chrysler's triumphant new 1957 achievements... the new Torson-Air suspension that eliminates rock and roll... the new TorqueFlite transmission... a 285-horsepower airplum-type V-8 engine. Total-Contact brake and many others.

When you compare these price-cutting advances with what the three other major cars in its price class offer you for the same money... we think you'll be satisfied with nothing less than the most glamorous car in a generation. Come in soon and drive it!

See the Chrysler Windsor the only premium-class car that sells at a medium price!
