John Decker has gone to work at Harry's Furniture store as a salesman.

Clarence DeCamp of the Farmers Insurance Group, went to Portland Monday to attend to business, returning home the following day.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Helweg of this city left today for Portland to attend to business prior to going to Bend to spend the weekend visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gervais.

Mrs. C. J. Brent of this city left Wednesday for Gresham, where she was called by the serious illness of her mother, who is at the home of Mrs. Brent's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. Horace Whilon, former Roseburg residents.

Sally Hill, owner of the Hill Dance Studio in Roseburg, and Mrs. Mary Hayman, of this city went to Eugene Tuesday, where the former was guest instructor in Hawaiian and Tahitian dances at the Myra Quinn Talent School. Mrs. Hill is teaching students as well as the school instructor in preparation for the school's June recital.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olson, NW Harlan Street, are grandparents of a girl born to their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lawson, Reno, Nevada. The baby has been named Sandra Eileen. At birth she was 17½ inches long and weighed 4 pounds 6 ounces. The Lawsons are parents of three sons, Wesley, Charles and Jerry. Mrs. Lawson, the former Eleanor Olson, is a former local Seventh-day Adventist Junior Academy student.

Among recent visitors in the Roseburg area who attended Sabbath services in the local Seventh-day Adventist Church, were Mr. and Mrs. James Gohl and family, Manson, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Myrtle Creek; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Owens, Ketchikan, Alaska; Mrs. Charm Hatley, Canyonville; E. F. Hannamonn, Fairfield, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hamlin and Deanna, Klamath Falls; Diane Murray, Milo Academy; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Springfield. The Andersons, former Roseburg residents, were both teachers at Roseburg Junior Academy.

Miss Carol Trimble, Douglas County Librarian, has returned here, following a trip to Salem to attend the library development Committee and board of trustees of the Oregon State Library reported on the bill which they plan to have introduced at the Oregon State Legislature. This bill provides for funds from Oregon to match federal funds which are expected to be available as a result of the federal library service act. The purpose of this act is to stimulate the development of library service in rural areas. The funds will be available for a 5-year period only and will be used to demonstrate the value of library service in areas where such service can later be supported locally.

Lauren Kieth Loveland received his Bachelor of Laws degree from Stanford University Jan. 11. His diploma will be issued in June. He will spend the next three months taking the Bar Review course at Stanford before taking the state bar examinations. He previously received the Hilmer Oehlmann Jr. award established at Stanford for award winners of Moot Court competitions in the school of law. He received his AB degree from Stanford in 1953. He attended University of Oregon three years prior to transferring to Stanford. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brent of this city. His wife, the former Marcia Newland, who received her AB degree from Stanford in 1956, is employed as a secretary in the National Service office at Stanford. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Newland of this city.

Miss Jacqueline Swint, who has been the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wentlar in Roseburg for the last week, left Wednesday for Corvallis to be guest speaker before several groups at Oregon State College, before returning to Portland to resume her visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Swint. Miss Swint has just returned from two years in Orleans, France, where she served as secretary to the Deputy Chief of Staff at Headquarters, U.S. Army, Europe, Communications Zone. Prior to that she spent two years as secretary to the Consul, American Embassy, Ciudad Trujillo, Dominican Republic, West Indies. She was graduated from Oregon State College prior to going to the West Indies. Her next assignment will be in Georgia for a period of approximately six months, after which she will be assigned to Army headquarters in Japan. Last week, Miss Swint was a guest over TV on Channel 8, Portland.
