Charter Members Honored At Anniversary Affair

Roseburg Chapter No. 8, Order of Eastern Star, celebrated its 71st anniversary by honoring 50-year members at the chapter's latest meeting. Two of the five 50-year members were present.

Myrtle Olmschied, worthy matron, and Ralph Cooper, worthy patron, presided. Maude Kidder, one member honored, was reported to have joined in September of 1897. She transferred her membership to the Philippine Islands during a period when she lived there, and is now an honorary member of the Roseburg Chapter. She is also a past matron of both chapters.

Flossie Virden has been a continuous member and is a past matron of the local chapter. The other three 50-year members, Eva Abraham, Jane Harris and Elizabeth Heinlein, were unable to attend.

The chapter room was decorated by Connie Pratt, chairman of the decoration committee. The program included selections by the Roseburg Barbershop Chorus, under the direction of C. A. Ricketts.

A smorgasbord was served in the dining hall following the program. The committee in charge included Mabel Lange, chairman, Otto Lange, Loren Allen, Gladys Monger, Clayton Osborn, Florence Plummer, Betty Kelsay, Pat Evans and Nell Cooper.
