

Dietrich Shows as Vegans Much

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Marie Dietrich's opening night of a three weeks' engagement at the Sands Hotel was, as the press gents say, supercolossal — real — "the most."

She wore a gown last night that a dressmaker says was fashioned with 227,000 hand-sewn diamond beads, required a million hand stitches and was six months in the making. She wore a huge white coat made from down of the breasts of 200 swans — count 'em. The coat trailed 12 feet from the top of the collar to the end of the rain and was eight feet at its widest point.

Marie started off with a rock n' roll number, gyrating in the Elvis Presley manner. Later, in her dressing room, she confessed she is a fan of Presley. "He's my idol; I think he's the greatest," she said in a serious tone.

Her show included some of the songs that made her famous, "See What the Boys in the Back Room Will Have," "Toot, Toot, Tootsie" — 13 altogether.

Glide Board Members, Superintendent in Salem

Two school board members and the superintendent of the Glide school district are in Salem today to attend the State Legislature's hearing on the "key district formula."

Board members Howard Hatfield and Watson Talcott will join Supt. Harry Harvie at the hearing on Senate Bill 64, designed to equalize taxpayer burdens among school districts.

PTA Founder's Day Skit Due At Lookingglass

By HAZEL S. MARSH
The Lookingglass PTA will hold its Founder's Day program on Monday at 8 p.m. A skit featuring the day will be given by a group of the club's members. "What PTA means to the Fathers," Melvin Thrasher, Junior Carlisle, Alvin Greer, George Marsh, Elton Grass and Carl Ellis will take part in the skit.

Music will be furnished by the first grade pupils under the direction of their teacher Mrs. Oris Marberry. A meeting of the executive committee was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jon Wilson, at which time announcement was made that a piano had been purchased and would be installed for the coming meeting of the organization.

PERMIT UNION LABEL
SALEM — A bill to permit use of the union label on state printing was introduced this week by Sen. Monroe Sweetland (D), Milwaukie.

The label could be used when requested by the head of the department ordering the printing. The state printer uses union employees.

Toastmistress Club Has Valentine Topic

The Roseburg Toastmistress Club met Tuesday at the Swedish Dining Room at an 8 p.m. dessert supper.

Ilyne Schmitt offered the inspiration for the evening after which Maple Lyons, new president of the club, gave a short talk and introduced Ruth Chandler, topic mistress. She chose as her topic "Valentine, Past and Present." Each member spoke briefly on the subject.

Emma Manning, toastmistress, introduced Emily McCullom and Peggy Shelton, each of whom gave her icebreaker speech. Critics were Ruth Heiner and Mary Benedict.

Several of the members gave impromptu talks after which a short business meeting was conducted by the president. It was pointed out that the next session, Thursday, Feb. 26, would be devoted to prepared speeches, in preparation for the Council speech contest at Camas Valley March 10.

Twelve members and two guests, Bonnie Stone and Beverly Brooke, were present.

Roseburg Couples Attend State Posse Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Farenbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Puckett and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sherlock attended the annual meeting of the Oregon State Assn. of Mounted Poses in Klamath Falls, Feb. 8-9.

The three couples took the Shasta Daylight from Eugene in making the trip. Officers were elected for the coming year at the meeting and plans were made for the annual statewide "Showdown" at Grants Pass this summer.

The three couples attending from Roseburg are members of the Douglas County Mounted Sheriff's Posse.

Myrtle Creek School's Standard Questioned; Board To Hear Report

The Myrtle Creek school board will meet with a representative from the State Dept. of Education to hear a report on the reason the elementary school has been rated "conditionally standard" again this year.

At this week's meeting the board reviewed the standardization report on the upper elementary building. The meeting at which the department representative will speak has been scheduled at 8 p.m. Monday, Feb. 18, according to correspondent Ruth M. Evans.

Also at this week's meeting, the board members discussed proposed policies, recommended by the administration, concerning an adequate testing program for pupils and a better method of keeping records.

Members also discussed pending educational legislation before Congress.

The board took action on a request for replacement of tile in the high school. It authorized the maintenance department to replace 700 square feet of tile which was damaged by water when water pipes froze and broke Jan. 28. The board also asked the administration to look into the matter of discipline on buses.

FOOD INDEX UNCHANGED

NEW YORK — Wholesale food prices, as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet food index, were unchanged this week.

At $613 the index was the same as last week and up 3.2 per cent from $594 a year ago.

The index represents the total cost at wholesale of one pound each of 31 foods in general use.

Huskies Lose Guard For Oregon Invasion

SEATTLE — The Washington basketball team will be without the services of guard Johnny Tuft when the Huskies invade Oregon for a two game Pacific Coast Conference series this weekend.

Tuft, who sparked the Huskies to last week's 90-74 upset of UCLA, was hurt in a tumbling class Wednesday. He fell on a parallel bar and suffered a painful back injury.

Coach Tippy Dye said he planned to start Lou Coaston, a sophomore, in Tuft's place against the Ducks.

ANNOUNCEMENT DELAYED

PORTLAND — It will not be known until at least Feb. 25 who the new football coach at Portland State College will be.

Willard Spalding, chairman of the faculty committee on athletics, said Wednesday the announcement is being delayed.

The replacement will be for Ralph Davis, who is quitting to concentrate on track and teaching.
