

Days Creek Sets Blue, Gold Meet

By JEAN YODER
The annual Blue and Gold banquet for Cub Scouts at Days Creek is scheduled Feb. 27.

At the last meeting of the Parent-Teachers Assn., which sponsors the scout program, Institutional representative Bob Thompson urged attendance of parents at the banquet.

Thompson also reported on the progress of the Cub and Boy Scout programs at Days Creek.

Mrs. Marlen Yoder also reported on the coming talent show, scheduled March 8 at Days Creek.

At the meeting school Supt Marlen Yoder accepted the chairmanship of the April 11 meeting, which will be "fun night" for parents and teachers.

During the meeting, members of the PTA divided into five groups to discuss school topics.

Mrs. Cline's third-grade room won the room count.

Abraham Lincoln and Gary Cooper once were door-to-door salesmen.

Two Dances Scheduled Roseburg Youth Center

Two dances are scheduled this weekend at the Roseburg Youth Center, Mrs. Charles Brown, secretary, said.

The first dance will be held Friday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The event will be a square dance for the sixth grade students in the Roseburg School District.

The Youth Center will sponsor a dance for junior high school students Saturday from 8 to 11 p.m. This will be the last weekend students will be admitted to the center without membership cards.

Mrs. Brown said. Members of the organization recently appointed a nominating committee which is compiling a list of possible candidates for offices in the center.

Western Retail Lumbermen Elect Corvallis Man

SPOKANE — C. A. Perin, general retail manager of the Willamette National and Santiam Lumber Co., Corvallis, Ore., was elected president of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Assn. Wednesday.

He succeeds R. M. Slettedahl of Elma, Wash. Delegates heard a California market analyst warn that retailers must do a better job of setting prices and managing their businesses if they want to make satisfactory profits this year.

Paul R. Hollenbeck said the retailer often was the weak link in the chain from manufacturer to consumer. "The retailer must know more about his business than ever before," he added.

Vice presidents elected were: B. M. Norell, Nampa, Idaho; Frank J. Rima, Pullman, Wash.; Joe T. Webster, College Place, Wash.; John R. Kendall, Spokane; Morris Tarte, Bellingham, Wash.; John Kettering, Battle Ground, Wash.; P. W. Patterson, Portland; R. B. Thierolf, Medford, Ore.; and Floyd Volk of Seattle to represent Alaska.

Named to the board of directors were: F. H. B. Richards, Vancouver, Wash.; Earl J. Fosse, Wenatchee; Wayne Matson, Seattle; R. Munro Pineo, Bremerton; Alan H. Knox, Oswego, Ore.; Don Corkill, Astoria, Ore.; M. F. Moyer, Eugene, Ore.; W. P. Scharpf, Albany, Ore.; and W. M. Tubby, Lewiston, Idaho.

The convention ends Thursday.

Beware Of Tax Experts Who 'Would Save You Money,' Revenue Commissioner Say

By LEWIS GULICK
WASHINGTON — Revenue Commissioner Russell C. Harrington said, "taxpayers should beware of the 'so-called tax expert' who claims he can save money in making out other people's tax returns."

"Any person who advertises himself as a tax expert who can save money for people on taxes is not legitimate," Harrington told a House Appropriations Subcommittee in Jan. 29 closed-door testimony made public today.

"He is violating all of the canons or ethics of the profession. He is violating the regulations of the Treasury Department on representations. We have had a lot of trouble with those fellows."

Harrington made clear he was not referring to "the reputable tax consultants in the country," the legal and accounting professions and persons like bank clerks and school teachers who help others make out income tax returns as a favor or for a small fee.

"That is perfectly legitimate and should not be confused with these shysters who do all of this advertising and all this crooked stuff," Harrington said.

One such "refund artist," Harrington said, claimed false deductions for his clients amounting to more than $400,000. He said the man was put in jail and $175,000 collected from the clients, the "innocent parties."

"That is one of the saddest things that happens to me in my present job," the Revenue chief said.

"Some poor fellow comes in, who does not know anything about it, and now he faces a fraud penalty, because he hired some expert, for $10, to prepare his return. Now he finds it is fraudulent and we are after him for fraud, and he does not know a thing about it."

From all sources, Harrington said, checks of income tax returns in 1956 led to added tax and penalty recommendations totaling $1,271,000,000, up 11 per cent from the year before.

Audits of claimed refunds before they are paid, Harrington said, produced 74 millions, or double the previous year's.

WOMAN, 67, Stilt Walker Recovering From Fall
CHARLESTON, W. Va., (AP) — Mrs. Amma Haddox, immobilized but cheerful, reflected Wednesday on the hazards of walking on stilts at the age of 67.

Mrs. Haddox, recovering from a broken leg at a Charleston hospital, could still proudly recall that as a girl of 17 she was the champion stilt-walker in her neighborhood of Roane County.

When some kids were playing on stilts in her driveway last Saturday, Mrs. Haddox said she couldn't resist the urge to try her skill.

After the fall, she said: "The embarrassment was worse than the pain."

"I'm not going to be old until I get old," she added. She has four grandchildren.
