Myrtle Creek Slates Adult Sewing Class

An adult education class in beginning sewing has been scheduled at Myrtle Creek High School in the home-making room each Monday evening for ten weeks.

The first session is slated Monday, March 18, from 7 to 10 p.m. Any person 16 years of age and over, who is not enrolled in high school, may attend.

Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Mary Lee Brady by calling 375 at the high school sometime before Friday March 8.

Mrs. Mildred Bunch will be the instructor for the class. The first project will be a cotton dress. Cost of the course, $6, will be collected at the first meeting.

DANCE LESSONS SET

The Hayloft Square Dance Club will start its last series of beginners' lessons until fall March 11 on Melrose Road. The lessons will be held each succeeding Monday at 8 p.m. Duke Sibley is instructor.
