

PCC Directors In Discussion On League Laws

PORTLAND, Ore. — Faculty representatives and athletic directors of the Pacific Coast Conference sit down here Friday to talk over proposed conference rules on scholastic requirements and aid to athletes.

Washington, Washington State, Oregon, Oregon State, Idaho, Stanford, California, Southern Cal and UCLA are represented at the meeting which will be closed to the press. A report on the meeting's progress will be made Friday afternoon by a spokesman for the conference.

One of the major matters to come before the conference is a progress report on proposed new regulations for financial aid to athletes.

Dean Orlando Hollis of Oregon is chairman of the committee which is writing the rules from a statement of principals approved last month by the conference presidents' council.

This statement calls for financial aid based on need. The extent of this need is to be determined by an independent agency, such as the college scholarship service, and is to be based on the cost of living at the various campuses.

There has been considerable opposition to this program from Stanford and Oregon. Dr. Clark Kerr, California chancellor, views the program as "a step toward professionalism."

The question of stiffening scholastic requirements also will be discussed. A statement of principals announced earlier calls for passing grades in 24 semester hours or 36 quarter hours between seasons of an athlete's sport.

Tar Heels After 24th

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's still another river to cross tonight for North Carolina — the nation's top-ranked college basketball team.

The Tar Heels take their glittering 23-0 record into the camp of bitter state rival Duke in their final test before the March 7-9 Atlantic Coast Conference tournament.

OKEH, SO FAR—Brooklyn Dodgers' manager Walter Alton (left) examines the right hand of catcher Roy Campanella at the Dodgers' spring training camp at Vero Beach, Fla. Campanella took swings at the ball and reported no pain in the right hand on which a bone-chip operation was performed last November. After the first "live" batting practice, Alton said, "Campy hit the ball pretty good. If I had to judge from what I saw today, I'd say he was all right."

Majors In Training Camps With 30 Holdouts Unsigned

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Nearly 30 players assumed the traditional "holdout" role today as the major league clubs officially opened the spring training season.

Milwaukee Braves, beginning a campaign for their first pennant since moving the franchise to the Midwest, were minus three important regulars — 19-game winner Lew Burdette, relief pitcher Ernie Johnson and center fielder Billy Bruton. All were in camp at Bradenton.

On the other hand, Brooklyn's National League pennant winners needed to sign only Sandy Amoros to complete their roster. The other six senior circuit members had all players preseat and accounted for.

Amoros arrived at Vero Beach yesterday. But Vice President Bussy Bavasi, who handles contracts, was out of town.

Yankees Sign Larsen

The American League picture was quite different. The world champion New York Yankees signed Don Larsen to close their ledgers yesterday. But the other seven clubs still had more than 20 blank contracts.

Heading the list in number was Cleveland with five, but shortstop Chico Carrasquel was the only missing regular. Rudy Regalado, who has received numerous trials, and pitchers Dick Tomanek, John Gray and Ed Gasque were still unsigned.

Sammy White, a catcher, infielder Billy Klaus and outfielders Jim Piersall and Gene Stephens have not come to terms with the Boston Red Sox.

Tigers Missing Three

Southpaw Billy Hoelt was considered Detroit's biggest problem. But Eddie Robinson and outfielder Gil Coan were still unsigned. Kansas City's headaches were pitcher Maury McDermott, recently acquired in a multiplayer deal with the Yankees, pitcher Tom Morgan, infielder Hee Lopez and catcher Hal Smith.

Baltimore's Willie Miranda, who hasn't been heard from since he returned his first contract unsigned in January, is the Orioles' only holdout.

Ted Sees Banner Year

SARASOTA, Fla. — A jovial and friendly Ted Williams, visibly happy to be back in a baseball uniform, predicted a banner season for himself Friday but was not nearly so optimistic about his club, the Boston Red Sox.

Baseball's greatest hitter said he couldn't see how any club could possibly beat out the New York Yankees for the American League pennant this year.

UCLA, Southern Cal Slate Start Of Crucial Series

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's showdown time for UCLA and California as the Bruins seek to regain lost glory and the Pacific Coast Conference basketball lead against the pace-setting Golden Bears Friday night and Saturday at Berkeley.

California has a PCC record of 11 victories and one defeat and holds a scant half-game lead over the defending champion Uclans, ranked sixth in the Associated Press poll. A double triumph this weekend would clinch Cal at least a tie for the conference title.

UCLA's championship express was sidetracked by Southern California Tuesday, 41-40, but the Bruins could jump right back in to the favorite's spot by whipping big brother Bear twice.

Washington Idle

Washington, in third place with 11-3, is idle this week, while Southern Cal's rejuvenated Trojan entertain cellar-dwelling Oregon, Stanford invades Idaho and Oregon State hosts Washington State.

Pacific Needs Win For NWC Pennant

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Pacific University could simplify matters in the Northwest Basketball Conference by beating Willamette in their final game this Saturday.

A win not only would give Pacific the championship but would put the Forest Grove five in the NCAA small college regional play-off at the same time.

Pacific leads the conference but a loss Saturday would give Linfield a share of the title. If that happens those two teams will meet in the first round of the NCAA play-off.

Otherwise Pacific will draw a bye in the first round and then will meet the winner of the Far West Conference and the California at-large team for the district title.

Three other Northwest Conference final season games are on tap this weekend.

Whitman plays at College of Idaho Friday and Saturday and Willamette travels to Portland Friday to play Lewis and Clark.

COACH HIRED

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Sacramento State College has hired Johnny Baker, former line coach at the University of Washington, as head football coach at an undisclosed salary.

Santa Anita Horse Lacks Only Jockey

ARCADIA, Calif. — The top horse in the 20th running of the $100,000-added Santa Anita Derby Saturday is Prince Khaled and all he needs is a jockey.

Ralph Neves was booked for the ride but Thursday he was suspended for five days beginning Saturday and the stable launched a nationwide search for a rider.

Neves was suspended for a faulty ride on Duc de Fer.

The latest rundown on the probable field for the Derby indicated that 15 3-year-olds will race in the mile and one-eighth feature.

In addition to Prince Khaled, the field included such strong contenders as Blue Spruce, Buford,

Promised Land, Round Table

Other probable entries were Gaelic Gold, Irishier, Mystic Eyes, Royal Academy, Royal Heir, Sir William, Swirling Abbey and Shiplacerwin.

Three times in the past five editions the winner at Santa Anita went on to win the Kentucky Derby—Swaps in 1935, Determiner in 1934 and Hill Gail in 1932.
