

SHARON LANDER, (at left) freshman at Pacific Bible College in Azusa, Calif., presently majoring in Bible literature and theology, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Lander, Harmony Lane. She is secretary of the freshman class and of the Inter-Scepter, college publication. She has served as chairman of the friendship committee of her class and of the hand-book committee. For recreation, Sharon enjoys swimming and playing the piano, also acting as pianist for various churches. With her full schedule, Sharon finds time to visit her brother, Dale Lander, at the California Rehabilitation Center in Santa Monica, and work with community youth.

BRIAN BOOTH, (upper right) son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Booth, 327 W. Riverside Drive, is a junior student at the University of Oregon, majoring in economics. He has an imposing list of accomplishments behind him, having been elected to Phi Eta Sigma, national scholastic honorary for freshmen men; Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary; and Druids, junior men's honorary. He is presently president of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity; vice president of the junior class; and business manager of the Northwest Quarterly. A member of ROTC, Brian's plans after graduation call for army service and a law career.

JIM BACKEN, a senior at Southern Oregon College, was recently selected outstanding man in teacher education at the college by Phi Delta Kappa, national men's education honorary. He is active in school and national organizations and has served as chairman of a number of student functions. Jim, who is the son of Mrs. E. K. Backen of Glencoe, Minn., plans to teach high school English after being graduated this spring. His engagement to Miss Judy Schopf of Ashland has recently been announced. He makes his home here with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Roundtree, Rt. 1 Box 1240.

JOANIE KRUSE, (lower left) daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kruse of Riversdale, is a sophomore psychology major at Cascade College in Portland. Joanie is assistant editor of the college annual, Cascadian, and is secretary of the organization, Campus Council. She is also vice president of her dormitory. Her future plans call for marriage in June to Merton Peterson, ministerial student at Cascade, and completion of her studies. An honor student, Joanie enjoys playing the piano in her leisure hours.

MARY ANNE BACKEN, (lower right) a freshman majoring in education at Oregon State College, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Backen Jr., 713 W. Nebo. She is attending school on a 4-year Nebo teacher scholarship. Her beauty and personality have attained for her the title of "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" and also placed her in the finals for Snow Carnival princess at the college. She is active in student affairs and is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority. After school hours Mary Anne works in the college co-op book store.

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER

SATURDAY APRIL 6, 1957

—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

FIVE outstanding college students from Roseburg make up today's society feature page which was arranged by Bev Brooke of the society department. The five were among the many Roseburg students home for the recent spring vacation.

Pictures
On This Page
By
'Chris' of the Photo Lab