13 Communities Take Part At BPW Spring Conference

State officers of the National Business and Professional Women's Club attended the Southern Oregon spring conference at the Umpqua Hotel in Roseburg last weekend.

The first day, Mayor Arlo Jackson welcomed all the ladies attending. There were representatives from Glendale, Grants Pass, Klamath Falls, Lakeview, Medford, Merrill, Myrtle Creek, Yoncalla, Myrtle Point, Eugene, Salem, Portland, and Coquille.

State President Dr. Eleanor Gutman, Salem, spoke on program coordination; achievement through action; service to our community and interesting new members. Schott Adams of Portland presented a proposed income insurance plan to be considered at the state convention at Coos Bay, May 17.

The Four Flats and their director of Roseburg High School entertained with barbershop tunes. Sunday morning, 60 women attended the BPW breakfast, which was opened with an invocation by the Rev. John Adams, First Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Clifford Downes presented a solo, "Count Your Blessings."

A resume of proposed national and state by-laws to be considered at the state convention in Coos Bay was presented by Elsie Downing.

Committees in charge of conference plans were: Conference, Matilda S. Rapelje, Floissie Vorden; V. Vivian Logsdon, Florence Snedaker; registration, Ann Stores, Edythe Gilmour, Arta Terrel, Helen Emery, Cloe Moats; hostesses, Ada Jane Dick, Connie Jean Judd, Stella Spencer; decorating, Laura Iles, Charlotte Hyre, Florence Snedaker; all members of the Roseburg club; music, Francis Lintott; courtesy, V. Vivian Logsdon.

PIERRE DEGLANE has been given the "dark horse" tag for tonight's Russian "over the top" battle royal main event at the Douglas County Fairgrounds wrestling arena. Other contestants in the $125 extra purse scrap include Bull Montana, Herbie Freeman, Jack Gence and Luigi Macera. Two preliminaries are slated starting at 8:30 p.m. with Montana meeting Macera and Freeman clashing with Bence.

Glide PTA Issues Adult Talent Call

The Glide Parent-Teachers Assn. is calling for talent for its May talent show, reports correspondent Mrs. Arthur Selby.

The proceeds of the show will go toward a scholarship fund.

Directors of the show, Kenneth Deacon, Frank Maxwell and Sherman Black have urged all adults in the community interested in appearing in the variety show to attend a tryout. The tryout is scheduled April 16 at 8 p.m. in the high school multipurpose room.

Musicians, vocalists, specialty dancers, comedians and any other talented adults are being sought.

Claude Butler Elected Skate Club President

Claude Butler was elected president of a new dance skating club this week at the Rollets Skating Rink. Others elected to office were: Bob Sanders, vice president and Alayne Serafin secretary.

The group meets every Monday at 7:30, and anyone interested in learning to dance skate is welcome.

May 5, the club is planning to go to Salem to skate, and will return late that night.
